SJMS To Sponsor Flight Program

A flight training program will begin on the SJMS Campus Jan. 20. Maj. Scott Haviland, Quartermaster, is the sponsor. He is currently involved in flight training and will monitor all phases of the program.

Classes will be taught by FAA licensed instructors in accordance with FAA rules and regulations.

The course involves 40 hours of instruction and a four-hour exam conducted by a licensed examiner.

Haviland said, "Cadets entering the program must understand that it is serious business, is expensive, and will require a great deal of time and hard work. However, the rewards of receiving wings and a private pilot's license made it worthwhile."

Near the completion of ground school, arrangements will be made to start flight training at the Salina Municipal airport. Haviland added, "I feel it is most important that ground school training be completed before expending funds for aircraft rental and instructor fees."

The maximum enrollment will be 15 Cadets. Cost of the ground school training, text books and equipment will be $130. Checks are to be made payable to St. John's Flying Cadets. Haviland said that this is a reasonable price for such a course of instruction.

Haviland will also arrange for students to attend as many FAA flight seminars as are available within driving distance of the School.

Another course is being planned for the fall session.

Haviland plans a "Flying Cadets Club" with appropriate gear, slogan and traditions once Cadets receive their pilots' licenses.

Sergeant Organizes Stamp & Coin Club

A Stamp and Coin club is being organized at St. John's School by SGM Lyle Van Lew, Tactical Officer.

Van Lew said that stamp and coin collecting have long been the top hobbies in the world. Approval for the new extracurricular activity was given in November. More than 35 Cadets have expressed an interest.

Van Lew has collected and studied stamps and coins for 20 years. A display of his personal collection was the highlight of the first meeting in the Library of the Vanier Academic Center.

He said, "Some of the subjects covered by studying stamps and coins are history, cultures, religion and world leaders. Individuals also learn about paper types, printing, inking methods, watermarks, metals, and the care and cleaning of paper and metal items."

He added that old envelopes with stamps still attached may be worth many dollars.

Brass Choir Plays Carols

The SJMS Brass Choir provided Christmas music in downtown Salina from 1 to 2 p.m., Saturday, Dec. 12.

Members of the brass group are Brian Bradford, Brad Post, David Brockhaus, David Price, Richard Martin, Scott Bruce, Robert Schawo and Tom Bollig.

A special Christmas Chapel program will be held prior to the Christmas dinner and party Dec. 18. A service of Lessons and Carols will be conducted. The Creche will be blessed.

The Rt. Rev. John F. Ashby, Bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Western Kansas, will be the officiant at the service.

Special music will be provided by Cadet Vladimir Tellez on his classical guitar and the Cadet Chorus.

A beautiful Christmas tree was decorated on the portico of the Vanier Academic Center, Dec. 8. Turning on the lights during evening formation were Cadets Jeff Kohl and Lawrence Summers, the two newest Cadets in the 94th Corps.

During the short ceremony, the brass section of the Cadet Band played several Christmas selections.

The sophomore English class, taught by Mrs. Phyllis Rowland, attended a workshop about the play "Our Town" at 12:45 p.m., Dec. 9 at the Salina Community Theater. The class returned to the theater in the evening to see the play.

Mrs. Rowland said, "We read the play in our literature book. The workshop included discussion covering several aspects of the play such as staging, production and celebratory images."

Teacher is Leading Lady

Mrs. Phyllis Rowland, English teacher, has the lead role of Lola in the play "Come Back, Little Sheba" to be presented in January by the McPherson Community Theatre.

Foundation To Fund Publication

The SJMS Foundation voted to underwrite the cost of publishing an up-to-date St. John's Military School History from 1887.

Lt. Col. Virgil B. Loy wrote, as his thesis for his Master's degree, a "History of St. John's Military School from 1887 to 1964" which was published in book form. Since that time he has completed a manuscript covering the years from 1964 to the present.

St. John's will celebrate its centennial in 1987 and it was the wish of School officials that the up-to-date publication be available at that time.

Other projects discussed were the renovation and air conditioning of Nichols Dining Hall and the rehabilitation of Armstrong Memorial Chapel.

MacArthur Award Ceremony Set

A St. John's Cadet will receive the Douglas MacArthur Cadet of the Year award in ceremonies scheduled for Jan. 27, in the Banes gymnasium

The Chaplain's Corner

CHRISTMAS . . . . .
"And the Word was made flesh and dwelt among us" . . .
John 1:14

"This verse from St. John's Gospel tells what Christmas is all about. St. John has a theological and poetic way of explaining God's action in sending His only Son into the world, 'that we might live through him.' St. John gives us the inspiration to celebrate the day of Christmas for several reasons - for the gift of our Lord, for the blessings of this life, for the love of God, for commitment to our Lord Jesus Christ, etc. All of this is because our Lord is 'full of grace and truth; we have beheld his glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father.'

"Behold this miracle on Christmas Day and celebrate it with your family - with your community of Christians. The Spirit of Christmas is infectious; so be a part of the festivities and share in the Love of God, always.

God Bless you all -
and may your Christmas be Christ-filled,

. . . Fr. Norm Nicholls,
Chaplain †

Prophesy

"Prophets are people who utter divinely inspired revelations. The many prophets in the Old Testament were people like this - they revealed God in their speech and in their writings. They spoke of events to come as well as God's revelations to His people.

"As we reach the Advent season in the Church year it brings us to a realization that something is about to happen. We wait expectantly for it. We know that as we wait in this season something marvelous happens as a culmination of days spent waiting.

"Many times we get to a point in our lives when we are waiting for something to happen and young and old alike become impatient as they wait. Nothing is so exciting as waiting for a child and many of us parents can relate to this. This is the marvel of the Christmas season - this is the miracle of Christmas!"

. . . Fr. Norm
