SJMS Riflemen Win Match Medals

Members of the St. John's Rifle Team have placed in a number of recent matches according to M/Sgt. Frank Hazzard, team coach.

In the Mid-America Smallbore Rifle Position tournament in Topeka, Jim Pflumm placed first in kneeling using an iron sight; second in the aggregate scores using any sight; and second in the grand aggregate. Kent Mosher placed first in prone firing, using an iron sight, and second in kneeling, using any sight.

Clay Beckham placed second firing in a prone position, using any sight.

Andy Anderson finished first kneeling, using an iron sight and second kneeling, using any sight.

Jack Cairns placed second, using any sight, in the prone position and placed third in the grand aggregate score, using any sight.

The team of Pflumm and A. Anderson placed second among the two-man teams.

In the U. S. Fifth Army Postal matches, St. John's placed third among all military schools in the division and won the right to fire in the National Championship postal matches to be fired in April.

Roundball Team Loses In Regional Action

In District basketball play the Cadets lost a game to one of the ranking Class AA teams in the state and lost the consolation round by only a point.

The St. John's Cadets fell to the Lincoln Leopards, 91-30 in the first round of play Thursday, Feb. 26.

St. John's kept an even pace for the first four minutes of the tilt, but fingers turned to ice and Randy Pierce, with a free shot, was the only Cadet to score in the remainder of the first period.

"Voice of K. C. Chiefs" To Be ROTC Inspection Lettermen's Dinner Speaker Set for April 15

... On April 17

The "Voice of the Kansas City Chiefs", Tom Hedrick, will be the speaker at the annual Lettermen's Dinner on Friday, April 17, in Nichols Dining Hall. Arrangements for the annual function are being handled by Lt. Gary Tucker, Athletic Director.

Honored at the dinner will be all Cadets who earned an athletic award during the current school year. Special guests will include sports announcers and sports editors.

Hedrick is sports director for two Lincoln, Neb., television stations and a radio station. He is the only person to announce the Super Bowl game for three consecutive years on CBS radio. He joined the sportscasting staff of the Chiefs in 1964 and has broadcast their games on a 54-station radio network.

Hedrick received his B. A. degree from Baker University, Baldwin, in 1956, and his M. A.

from the University of Kansas in 1958.

He was voted top Kansas sportscaster for six straight years and was a finalist for that honor in Nebraska, two years.

He is a member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. He is a member of the Board of Directors of the National Sportscasters-Sportswriters Association and a Regional vice president with the same association.

Among civic organizations he is a member of the Lions Club and Executive Club.

Tom Hedrick

The annual Federal Inspection of the Junior Reserve Officers Training Corps detachment at St. John's Military School will be April 14-15 according to Lt. Col. Paul H. Kellogg, Commandant.

Inspecting officers will be Major Schwarzenbach, U. S. Fifth Army, Ft. Sheridan, Ill., and Major A. Riggensberg of St. Joseph's Military Academy, Hays.

The inspectors will arrive on campus April 14 and will be guests at a reception hosted by the Military Staff at the School.

At 7:30 a. m., April 15, the inspecting party will be greeted by an Honor Guard and will hold a conference with Col. Keith G. Duckers, Superintendent, at 7:45 a. m.

Inspection of personnel and barracks will follow. Checks on administrative records will run concurrently. The officers will be guests at noon mess.

The Crack Drill Squad will perform at 1 p. m. A retreat parade and review will be held at 3 p. m. on Perkins Field with various Salina dignitaries invited as special guests.

Making arrangements for the day are Maj. James H. Hamilton, SAI; M/Sgt. Robert Hernon, and M/Sgt. Frank Hazzard, Military Staff; M/Sgt. Teddy Hanmer, Band Director, and the Cadet officers and staff, headed by Lt. Col. Jimmy Lee Armstrong, Battalion Commander.

5 Trustees Elected at Feb. Meeting

Four Salina men and one from Wichita were elected to the St. John's Board of Trustees at its meeting Feb. 27 at the School. They are John Ryberg, president of the Salina Planing Mill; Jim Greenwood, manager of the Salina Westinghouse Plant; Pat Bolen of Bolen-Wood Real Estate and Insurance Agency; and Stewart Horejsi of Brown Welding Supplies, all of Salina, and Thomas R. Brunner, Wichita accountant.

They will replace five men who will complete three-year terms in June. They are Willim Exline, Dr. Edward Simmons and Fred Vandegrift of Salina; John M. Peck, Concordia, and C. Dale Miller, McPherson.

Denver Foundation Group To Meet

The Denver Chapter of the St. John's Foundation will meet April 21 at the Diocesan Center in Denver according to Mrs. M. Lewis Marsh jr., chapter president. Col. Keith G. Duckers, Superintendent, will be the speaker.

All Colorado patrons and alumni are welcome to attend.

COBURN MAKES "OLD BOY"

Craig Coburn passed the "old boy" exam and was authorized to wear the shields and was promoted to the rank of private first class.

10 Boys Join Junior NHS

Ten Cadets were recently initiated into the junior National Honor Society. The society honors outstanding academic achievement in the seventh, eighth and ninth grades.

The new members are Bob Hiltz, Scott Kirkland, John and Glen Lundgren, Geoff Morris, Douglas Putney, Richard Renwick, Brad Sidles, Stuart Zager and Robert Loughrey.

Assisting with the ceremony were Maj. Larry Dwyer, Director of Studies, and Capt. Harold Frazier. Mrs. John Clymer is the sponsor.

Ice cream and cake were served in the junior NHS lounge following the initiation in Parkview Hall.

Crack Squad To Drill Competition

The Crack Drill Squad has entered the Mile-High Drill competition at the University of Colorado, Boulder, Colo., Saturday, April 11. The Squad, commanded by Billy Harrington jr., will leave Salina April 9 and will return on April 12.

The drillers will stay with parents of Cadets living in the Denver-Boulder area.

Drill teams from high schools, private schools and colleges will be entered in the competition.

Smart, Hill, Lewis Form Folk Group

A new folk music group has been organized by three Cadets at St. John's. They are Warren Smart, Doug Hill and Bob Lewis. Hill and Lewis play guitars and Smart is the vocalist with the group.

S-Club Initiates Lettermen

The S-Club, Lettermen's group, held its initiation March 3-4. Only Cadets earning athletic letters are eligible for the group.

For two days, the initiates wore sweat suits, carried a brick and a sack of candy, and ate onions. The formal initiation was held in Armstrong Chapel March 5. Following the ceremony, all S-Club members enjoyed a pizza smorgasbord at the Pizza Hut.

The new members are Andy Anderson, Clay Beckham, Doug Calvert, Drew Demshki, Frank Hazzard jr., Les Kent, Ken Miller, Kent Mosher, Jim Renalde, Phil Smith, Bob Thomas, George Tull and Kent Tretheway.

Other members are Jimmy Armstrong, Dwight Bruening, Jack Cairns, Andy Davis, Ray Garvey, Mike Gepner, Bill Harrington, Doug Hill, Bob Lewis, Gaylen Piercy, Dennis Purinton, Fred Rogge, Gene Strickland, J. B. Stuart.

Duckers Elected To National Post

Col. Keith G. Duckers, Superintendent, was elected secretary-treasurer of the National Association of Military Schools at its recent meeting in Washington, D. C.

THREE MAKE "OLD BOY"

Three more Cadets were added to the ranks of the "old boys" by special order. They are Paul Schmeck, Eric Niepman, and Bob Neely.

Career Interests Selected

The annual Career Day at St. John's Military School has been scheduled for Wednesday, April 22, according to Lt. Paul Sommers, Guidance Counselor. The complete schedule of sessions will be announced later.

Fields of interest for the day were selected on the basis of a Cadet questionnaire.

Representatives from the following areas will be on campus to speak to Cadets: accounting, advertising, air pilot, U. S. Army, architecture, auto mechanics, business management, data processing, detective and law enforcement, medicine, electrician; mechanical, electrical and mechanical engineering; farming and ranching, foreign service, forest ranger, highway patrol, interior decorating, law, U. S. Marines, mortuary science, music, U. S. Navy, photography, printing, psychiatry and psychology; radio and television, stockbroker, teaching, truck driver, veterinary medicine and wild life management.

Cadets Attend Music Events

Students in the Music Appreciation and Vocal Music classes, taught by Mrs. Robert Vishneske, have attended several musical events in Salina recently.

Attending the Broadway production of the musical comedy, "I Do, I Do", at Marymount College were Marc Cartier, Dave Hancock, David Nordling, Ken Miller, Ron Tucker, John Cooper, Ken Nix, Bob Lewis, Scott Teschke, Tim Burke and Doug Hill.

Attending the "Pop" concert given by the Salina Civic Symphony Orchestra were Hancock, Bill Gresham, K. Miller, Burke and Cartier.

Attendance at the rehearsal for the "Pop" concert was for the benefit of the Introduction to Music classes to aid in the study of instruments. Attending the rehearsal were Cartier, Hancock, Hill, Miller, Charles Burrell, Teschke, and Gresham.

NHS Inducts 2 Members

Two new members were initiated into the National Honor Society in a candlelight ceremony held in the Conference Room, Vail Hall, March 6.

The members are Thomas Harper and James Shoffner.

Assisting in the ceremony were club sponsor, Mrs. John Weckel; Director of Studies, Maj. Larry Dwyer, and the society officers.

Following the ceremony a dinner was held at Kim's Steak House followed by bowling at the Holiday Bowl.
