Excellent Report Given Following ROTC Inspection

"A report of excellence" was given Col. Keith G. Duckers, Superintendent, by the inspecting officers before they left campus Wednesday, April 15. Maj. Archie Ringgenberg and Maj. Malcom P. Schwarzenbach conducted the annual inspection of the Junior Reserve Officers Training Corps detachment.

Ramrod stiff, the 208 Cadets braced for the annual inspection in ranks by the officers from St. Joseph's Military Academy, Hays, and from the U. S. Fifth Army Headquarters at Ft. Sheridan, Ill.

The two officers were greeted at 7:30 a. m. by a special honor guard and then conferred with Colonel Duckers. After the conference, the officers were briefed on the history and functions of the School by members of the J-ROTC Cadet staff headed by the Cadet Battalion Commander, Lt. Col. Jimmy Lee Armstrong. A walk-through inspection of the barracks and the inspection of ranks followed.

In the afternoon, the officers were treated to an exhibition by the SJMS Crack Drill Squad at 1 p. m. and a retreat parade and review at 2:30 on Perkins Field.

St. John's has earned "honor" ratings during the last three inspections. The findings of this year's inspecting team will not be known until later in the semester. Hopefully, the results

Father Marsh To Speak At Baccalaureate

The Venerable M. Lewis Marsh jr., Archdeacon of the Diocese of Colorado, will be the speaker for the St. John's Military School Baccalaureate, Sunday, May 24, at the Salina High School auditorium.

Fr. Marsh is the father of ninth grade Cadet Stephen Marsh.

He was born in New York City, educated in the New Jersey public schools, earned his B. A. degree from Colorado State College of Education, Greeley, and was graduated from The General Theological Seminary, New York City, in 1941.

He was ordained a Deacon May 22, 1941. He moved to Evergreen, Colo., where he was the priest in charge of the Mission of the Transfiguration. He stayed at Evergreen until Aug. 1, 1964. During his time there he built a rectory and saw the mortgage on it burned and the Mission achieved parish status. A new church was built and dedicated in the summer of 1963.

He moved to Lakewood in August of 1965. His duties as

The Ven. M. Lewis Marsh, Jr.

Archdeacon take him throughout the state of Colorado on visits to missions and parishes on both sides of the Continental divide.

He has served the Diocese as chairman of the Board of Missions; member of the Board of Trustees and secretary-treasurer of the Evergreen conference.

In addition to church work, he has been active in various civic groups and projects.

Fr. Marsh and his wife, Helene, have two other children in addition to Stephen. They are Abigail and Mordecai Lewis.

WATCHING THE TROOPS MARCH BY during the annual Federal Inspection of the junior ROTC detachment at St. John's Military School April 15 were Cadet Col. Jimmy Lee Armstrong, and Maj. Schwarzenbach of U. S. Fifth Army Headquarters, Ft. Sheridan, Ill.

Set Goal, Pay Price, Have Faith Tom Hedrick Tells Lettermen

Set a goal, be willing to pay the price, and have faith in yourself and in God were the three points stressed by Tom Hedrick at the annual Lettermen's Dinner in Nichols Hall April 17.

Hedrick is the sports director for KOLN-TV and KGIN-TV in Lincoln, Neb., and has broadcast the Super Bowl game for three consecutive years.

Following a steak dinner, lettermen in the various sports in both the Upper and Lower Schools were recognized by their coaches.

Lt. Col. Paul H. Kellogg, Commandant, was the master of ceremonies. Arrangements for the dinner were handled by Lt. Gary O. Tucker, Athletic Director.

Coach Tucker introduced the Cross Country lettermen—Jimmy Armstrong, Ray Garvey, Bill Griffith, Stephen Marsh, Kenneth Harper and Gene Strickland; basketball lettermen, Armstrong, Tim Butterfield, Griffith, Billy Harrington, Jay Heese, Randall Pierce, Bill Brassette, Tom Cory, Brad Davis, Charles Dawson, Barton

Hoffman, Greg Jenkins, Larry Millican, Steven Phillips and Scott Teschke, and John Stuart, manager, and the 1968-69 golf lettermen, Curt Jones, Bob Killebrew, Bob Thomas and Strickland.

Maj. Larry Dwyer, wrestling coach, introduced the varsity and B-team lettermen, Mike Blanck, Doug Calvert, Marc Cartier, Robert "Andy" Davis, Thomas Fiske, Leslie Kent, Kenneth Nix, Gaylen Piercy, Jim Shoffner, Strickland, David Swanda, Frank Swank, George Tull, Pat Blossom, Donald Eddie, Garvey, Michael Hanmer, H. Robert Loughrey, Marsh, Kenneth Miller, Peter Tarnawsky and Paul Turner, and managers Fred Rogge and Kent Tretheway.

M/Sgt. Frank Hazzard, Rifle Team coach, presented several trophies to teams competing in the Watson Rifle matches. The team captains in turn presented them to Coach Tucker for the School. Earning letters were Andrew Anderson, Roby Anderson, Drew Demshki, Frank Hazzard, Kent Mosher, James Pflumm, Jim Renalde and Philip Smith, and manager, Ronnie Kuehn.

Lettermen's President Expresses Their Thanks

(Editor's Note: The following tribute to the athletic coaches and staff was given by Gaylen Piercy, S-Club President, at the annual Lettermen's Dinner.)

Well, this is the time of the program that I, as president of the Lettermen's Club, am supposed to say thank you to all the people who have helped our program this year. There have been so many, that no matter where I draw the line, someone will be left out in center field. For this I am sorry, but let me try to say thank you to a few and hope the others will be big enough "sports" not to feel left out.

Colonel Duckers has said many times that any new faculty officer has to go around the track once before he can really become an "old boy" here—not just the eight weeks it takes a rat. This has been the case of our new Athletic Director, Lt. Gary Tucker. Not only has he expanded this year's intramural program and brought may sore muscles to the non-athletes in the Cadet Corps; he has also been a coach every season this year.

This has not been an easy year, building a strong program can't be done in only one year. The basketball team, aided by an old, "old boy" in a new, new job, Colonel Guernsey, bettered last year's record by 500 percent. Although this only brought five wins, the players learned the importance of being united as a team.

The wrestling team had its "new boy", Lt. Jack Gardner, who joined Major Dwyer in a season that was not without surprises. The season waned from a low-ebb at Great Bend where the biggest SJMS excitement came when the referee split out the seat of his pants, to the almost embarrassing humiliation of the matmen from Minneapolis.

The cross country team spent the year building with many underclassmen. We look for better things from them next year. We still look for some trophies from the golf team. The Upper School track team never got off and running, but despite all of this, we salute the local newspaper and radio stations for their fine coverage.

The Lower School sports program has again brought honors to the School. The boys have not only practiced running out the gate, but the track program with Lt. Bill Austin and Capt. Bruce Cummings has taught them to run to the wire and throw for the mark. The Cagers only had one bad moment when a Cadet got mixed up in center court and joined the opposing team for a basket.

And last but not least comes the full season sport—Rifle Team. I wasn't sure they would make it, but I'm glad to see them here tonight. They lost Sgt. Tom Watson this year, but gained an equal in Sgt. Frank Hazzard. Then, of course, there was the first rifle tournament on campus—in honor of the departing coach.

There are others. We must thank Mrs. Cummings for meals in the Spencer Center at odd hours of the day and night; the late Mr. Moomau and Mr. Cook for special dinners and tonight is no exception; Colonel Kellogg for late sleeps, and Lt. Bob Stevens for his eventful car rides. And all the rest of the faculty, parents, Cadets and friends for their support whether we were winning or losing. We could never have finished the year without you.

"Salina, City on the Move" Given The School By Its Author

An autographed copy of the book, "Salina, City on the Move", was presented to the Clem Library by its author, Mrs. Ruby Phillips Bramwell of Salina.

Published in December of 1969, the book tells of the early history of the town in which St. John's Military School is located.

The Topeka State Journal said about the book, "Mrs. Bramwell has figuratively swept the landscape clear of civilization out in Northcentral Kansas to resettle and rebuild Salina, in an orderly progression of interesting events as they occurred from the mid-point of the last century. . . In the main, Mrs. Bramwell has confined her efforts to the era just extending a few years this side of the turn of the century."

The Salina Journal said, "Her book is one to be read and enjoyed as well as to be placed upon the school and reference shelf!"

Copies are available at a cost of $5.25 from Survey Press, P. O. Box 572, Salina, Kansas 67401.

ity Law School, Topeka, Kans. He was a recent visitor to the School . . . Bill Beaver, now an Army Captain, was assigned to brief the Bishop of the Armed Forces on the military situation in his area. The Bishop was the Rt. Rev. Arnold M. Lewis, former Bishop of the District of Western Kansas and president ex-officio of the St. John's Board of Trustees. After the briefing, the Bishop—not recognizing Bill—complimented him on the excellence of his presentation. Bill replied, "That's just the way they taught us to do it at St. John's, sir." After Bill identified himself as a graduate of St. John's, Bishop Lewis clapped him on the shoulder and told him that he ran into "old boys" all over the world."

Class of 1964—John "Rick" Taylor was awarded the Army Commendation Medal. He received the medal for meritorious service as a member of the U. S. Army Air Defense Center at Ft. Bliss during the period from May 1, 1968 to March 3, 1969. The commendation reads, "Entrusted with the grave responsibility of training and motivating today's young soldiers, he led his men by setting an example of dedication and professionalism worthy of emulation by the most loyal and experienced officers." His father wrote the School: "Since the School merits so much of the credit for Rick's achievement in the Army, I thought you might be interested in seeing the enclosed copies." . . . A recent visitor to the campus was Robert "Steve" Erb and his wife Judy. The 82nd Corps marched in review in honor of Erb, who was the Battalion commander in 1964. Since leaving St. John's, Erb was graduated from the U. S. Naval academy, Annapolis; has completed graduate work at the Navy's Postgraduate school, Monterey, Calif., and has finished training on prop planes. He is now taking jet training at Meriden, Miss.

Occupations Discussed At Annual Career Day

The fifth annual Career Day at St. John's Military School was successful according to Lt. Paul Sommers, Guidance Counselor. He expressed his appreciation to the many guest speakers who cooperated and gave of their time to the Cadets to make the day of career-occupation orientation meaningful.

Cadets in the Upper School had the opportunity to attend three different sessions during the day.

Speakers and their fields were Eugene Griggs, auto mechanics; Capt. Bruce Cummings, forest ranger; Bill Graves, truck driver training; Merle G. Heskett, wild life management; Allison Chandler, advertising; Bill Rakestraw, pilot; Lyle Lightfoot, architecture; Dr. William Null, medical doctor; R. M. Beatty, data processing; Jimmy D. Huff and Glen Kochanowski, detective-law enforcement; Virg Lundgren, electrical engineer; S/Sgt. Loran Yeager, Army; Kaye Pearce, teaching; Earl

Van Cleef, musician; Lt. Bill Austin, foreign service; James Robertson, radio and TV broadcasting;

Fank Evans, electrician; Willis Bell, mechanical engineer; Wayne Johnson, farming and ranching; Dean Owens, lawyer; Gifford McCarger, photography; Hurschel E. Buscher, psychology-psychiatry; Dr. Charles Olson, veterinarian; Chief John Munsterman, Navy; Ralph Reitz, accounting; Arthur Hanshu, business management; Capt. Jim Adkins, Highway Patrol; Dwight Putnam, interior decorating; S/Sgt. Phillip Richardson, Marines; Bob Stinson, stock broker; and Roland Cox, printing.

Rattlesnakes Knew Enough To Stay In Out of Snow

Into weather in which only men but not rattlesnakes would be out ventured forth seven Cadets and two faculty sponsors in search of the snakes April 3-5.

The annual rattlesnake hunt is held at Waynoka, Okla. Making the trip were Drew Demshki, who originated the project; Kevin Boundy, Don Eddie, Mark Thomas, Stuart Zager, Ken and Mark Harper. Faculty sponsors were Lt. Col. R. L. Guernsey, Chairman of the Science Department, and Lt. Paul Sommers, Guidance Counselor.

The hunters awoke on Saturday morning to find the ground covered with snow and no snake hunting that day. The group visited the Little Sahara State Park with the major attraction being a cow with five legs.

The snow melted by Sunday morning so the Cadet hunters made a short hunt but it was too cool for the rattlers to be out. In spite of the weather, hunters, some from as far away as Alberta, Canada, were there.

A five-mile search of rugged terrain Sunday afternoon failed to turn-up any snakes. The Cadets attended the annual auction of snakes that had been caught during warm weather earlier in the season. Colonel Guernsey said that five-foot snakes sold for $5 and $6.

Plans are being made to include the snake-hunt in the activity schedule for 1970-71. It will be the first weekend after Easter. More than 40 Cadets expressed interest in attending this year but transportation was available for only seven.

FIRING THE FIRST SHOT in the first annual Tom Watson Rifle Matches at St. John's Military School was Col. Keith G. Duckers, Superintendent, (left). Handing him a bullet is M/Sgt. Frank Hazzard, Rifle Team coach and tournament director.

1st Watson Rifle Matches Drew Many Competitors

Appreciation has been expressed to coaches and competitors for making the first annual Tom F. Watson Smallbore Rifle Match a success. It was held April 3-5 in the Spencer Center Armory. Making the comments were Maj. James H. Hamilton jr., Senior Army Instructor, and M/Sgt. Frank Hazzard, Rifle Team coach.

The second annual match has been tentatively planned for March 28-29, 1971.

The St. John's Gold team placed third among the six four-man teams competing. Team members, Frank Hazzard jr., Jack Cairns, Andrew Anderson, and Jim Pflumm, fired a team score of 2060. The St. John's Black and Silver teams finished fifth and sixth with scores of 1907 and 1680, respectively.

The two-man team of A. Anderson and Pflumm finished fifth among 14 teams competing with 1046. The team of Hazzard and Cairns finished seventh with 1014 followed by Jim Renalde and Roby Anderson, ninth, 989; Kent Mosher and Phil Smith, 11th, 918; Drew Demshki and Mike Lonchar, 12th, 846; Clay Beckham and Rick Watkins, 13th, 834, and Karl Swoyer and Dave Nordling, 14th, 771.

Teams from Leavenworth High won first in both the four-man and two-man divisions.

Individual awards to Cadets in the junior category were awarded to Cairns, first, off-hand in the open class, and second sharpshooter; Pflumm, first sharpshooter and first kneeling in the sharpshooter class; A. Anderson, second marksman and second off-hand in marksman class; Renalde, third marksman and third kneeling in marksman class; Watkins, second prone in marksman class and Mosher, second kneeling in marksman class.
