VOLUME LIV

SALINA, KANSAS

FEBRUARY 17, 1970

NUMBER 4

Play Cast Selected For "Mr. Roberts"

The cast for the play "Mr. Roberts" to be presented this spring has been selected.

"Mr. Roberts" centers around the life of a young naval lieutenant who is assigned to a cargo ship during World War II. He isn't happy aboard ship but his captain will not let him leave. His crew finally resorts to trickery to get him transferred to the battle lines.

Members of the cast are Randy Ames as Johnson; Bill Harrington as Mr. Roberts; David Hancock as Doc; Bruce Livingston as Dowdy; Andy Davis as the Captain; Gerald Tincani as Insignia; Bill Gresham as Manion; David Dorais as Lindstrom; Randy Pierce as Stefanowski; David Westapher as Wiley.

John Vnuk as Schlemmer; Ron Tucker as Reber; David King as Ensign Pulver; Evan Pyle as Dolan; Charles Dawson as Gerhart; John Cooper as Payne; Mike Hanmer as a shore patrolman; Bill Brasset as a military policeman; Rick Thompson, shore patrol officer; Jack Cairns as the voice and Tom Harper as the L. C. T. officer.

Brad Davis will be the student director.

The play will be presented the Sunday before Commencement and again immediately following the awards assembly on the Friday before Commencement.

Directing the play will be Lt. Robert Stevens, assisted by Mrs. Kathryn Weckel, Capt. Leo Ayers and Lt. Paul Sommers.

The stage crews will be selected following spring furlough.

Carnival Makes Money; Provides Entertainment

As entertainment and a fund-raising project the annual St. John's Carnival held Jan. 24 in the School gym was successful. A total of $692.54 was earned by the various clubs and organizations to be used for club projects.

The Cadet Patrol sponsored a "double or nothing" booth.

The Crack Squad had a roulette wheel.

The bingo booth was sponsored by the Drama Club with the Glee Club having a pie throw.

Key Club sponsored the basketball throw and the L-Club a ring-toss.

The ever-popular cake walk was sponsored by the National Honor Society with the proceeds being divided between the Upper and Lower School societies.

The Photo Club sold pictures and sponsored the Mr. SJMS contest.

A dart throw was the activity of the projectionist club.

The Rifle team had a rifle shoot.

The profits from the concession stand went into the S-Club treasury.

New Cadets Join 82nd Corps

Several Cadets have joined the 82nd Corps since Christmas furlough.

They are Robert Neely, sophomore, Greensburg, Kans.; Harry Reynolds, eighth grade, Lincoln, Neb.; Mark Spiess and Michael Wait, both seventh graders from Topeka; William Ames, sophomore, Golden, Colo.; Randy Anderson, Greeley, Colo.; Jonathan Cropas, junior, Morristown, N. J.; Gary Fisk, seventh grade, Grandview, Mo.

Craig Coburn, sophomore, Whitewater, Colo.; Gregory Tompkins, sophomore, Kansas City, Mo.; William McGonagle Jr., seventh grade, Norman, Okla.; Steven Watson, eighth grade, and David Dorais, ninth grade, both from Albuquerque; Raymond Spencer, junior, Merriam; Barton Bowling, junior, Kansas City, Kans.; and Russell Jaiser, junior, Leawood.

Two "old boys" have rejoined the Corps. They are James Croke, Empire, Colo., and Michael Gepner, Ulysses, Kans. Both boys are sophomores.

A bottle throw was sponsored by the Science Club.

"The Wild Mouse" race and "flip-a-chip" was sponsored by the Spanish Club.

Pie and ice cream were served by the Waiters Club.

The Yearbook staff had a penny pitch.

Valentine Dance Is Scheduled

A Valentine Dance for staff NCOs and officers will begin at 8 p. m. Saturday, Feb. 14, in the School gym. The party will feature music by a combo.

Attending as guests will be girls from Salina and dates from Cadet hometowns.

Crack Squad Drills For Two Events

The Crack Drill Squad, commanded by Billy Harrington, has made two public performances since returning from Christmas furlough.

The squad drilled at a Cloud County Junior College basketball game Jan. 6 in Concordia. The group was hosted by Mr. and Mrs. John Peck. Mr. Peck is a member of the Board of Trustees.

The Squad drilled at Liberty (Missouri) High School Monday, Jan. 26. The Squad left the school on Sunday and spent the night with parents of Liberty and Kansas City Cadets. Parents hosting Cadets were Mrs. Betty Bruening, Mr. and Mrs. H. Robert Loughrey, Mrs. Roy Carlock, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Taylor Jr., Dr. Robert N. Davis, and Mrs. Norma Purinton. The Cadets were guests at a chili supper given by Mrs. Bruening before returning to Salina.

Another drill has been scheduled for Feb. 21 at a Kansas Wesleyan University basketball game in Salina.

Denver Foundation To Meet April 21

The Spring meeting of the Denver Chapter of the St. John's Military School Foundation will be held at the Episcopal Diocesan Center, Denver, April 21.

Col. Keith G. Duckers, Superintendent, will be the speaker at the meeting.

Mrs. M. Lewis Marsh, Chapter president, said that coffee will be served from 7:30 to 8 p. m. with the meeting starting at 8 p. m. The Center is located at 16th and Clarkson streets in Denver.

Five Matmen To Regional

Five Cadet matmen qualified to participate in the Regional Wrestling tournament at Rosedale High School, Feb. 13-14.

To qualify each wrestler had to finish in the top four of his weight class at the District tourney. The tourney was held Feb. 6-7 at Chapman.

David Swanda won first in the 130-pound division. George Tull placed fourth in the 98-pound weight. Frank Swank won a decision to place third in 115. Ken Nix placed fourth in 137 and Andy Davis finished third in the heavyweight class.

Tom Watson Rifle Matches Scheduled for April 3-5

Plans are being made for the first annual M/Sgt. Tom F. Watson Smallbore Indoor Invitational Rifle matches at St. John's Military School according to Sgt/1st C. Frank B. Hazzard, Rifle Team coach.

The matches are named for Sergeant Watson who was with the ROTC instructional group and Rifle team coach before his retirement from the U. S. Army in November of 1969.

The tournament, approved by the National Rifle Association, will be held in the School's Armory April 3-5. The event is being sponsored by the ROTC Department at the School.

Sergeant Hazzard said that the matches are open to NRA members and members of NRA affiliated clubs. There will be a junior and senior category in the tournament.

Entries must be received at the School by March 25.

Various individual and team awards will be made. More information on the matches will follow in later issues of "The Skirmisher".

Invitations have been mailed to 30 clubs and schools.

H. Cook Is New Chef

A new chef, Harley Cook, began work in early January replacing the late Frank Moomau in the kitchen of Nichols Dining Hall.

Cook, a native of Arizona, came to St. John's from the Salina Hilton Inn where he was the managing chef. He has worked with a food service at Arizona State University, Tempe, and the University of California at Irvine.

Cook is active in Salvation Army work and has been a scout master and post advisor in the Boy Scouts of America.

His wife, Rose, is also an employee of St. John's. She has been a baker at a local supermarket and has food service experience.

The Cooks are the parents of three daughters, and a son, Owen, a student at Salina High School.

The Cooks live on-campus at the School.

M. Thomas Heads L. S. Honor Roll

Mark Thomas headed the Lower School's honor roll for the fourth grading period. Others named to the list were John and Glen Lundgren, and Stuart Zager.

Earning honorable mentions were Brad Sidles, Geoff Morris, James Rucker, Richard Renwick, Bob Hiltz and Doug Putney.

Crack Drill Squad May Enter Competition

Tentative plans are being made for the Crack Drill Squad, commanded by Billy Harrington Jr., to enter a National drill competition in Boulder, Colo. April 18 according to Lt. Col. Paul H. Kellogg, Commandant.

Riflemen Fire Postal Match

The St. John's Rifle Team has been firing for the National Rifle Association and the Kansas State Rifle Association Postal matches. The results of these matches will be available this spring according to Sgt/1C Frank Hazzard.

On Jan. 26 the Cadets fired the Fifth Army Postal match for a team total of 2,476. The team average was 247. Sergeant Hazzard says the team has a good chance of winning the military schools division in the Fifth Army's jurisdiction.

Firers and their scores were Andy Anderson, 256; Frank Hazzard jr., 255; Mike Lonchar, 255; Jack Cairns, 251; Roby Anderson, 250; Kent Mosher, 249; Phil Smith, 246; Jim Renalde, 244; Jim Pflumm, 241 and Richard Watkins, 229. Others firing were Clay Beckham, Charles Burrell, Karl Swoyer and Peter Walker.

4 Make "Old Boy"

Four Cadets earned their "old boy" shields shortly before the beginning of Christmas furlough and were promoted to the rank of private first class. They are Harold Hertlein, Warren Smart, Sandie Ghilino and Richard Watkins.

ST. JOHN'S—28 SHHS—25

Andy Davis gained a pin in the heavyweight match Dec. 15 to bring St. John's wrestling team from behind to a 28-25 victory over Sacred Heart High School of Salina.

Sacred Heart had moved ahead 25-23 after winning forfeits in the 175 and 185-pound divisions.

The Muleskinners gained four pins in the match. Pinning their men were Frank Swank, Gaylen Piercy, Jim Shoffner and Davis. Sacred Heart wrestlers gained two pins over Doug Calvert and Leslie Kent.

George Tull and Dave Swanda won by decisions. Tom Fiske lost by a decision.

Mike Blanck fought to a 2-2 draw in the 145-pound class.

ST. JOHN'S—53

MINNEAPOLIS—0

The St. John's Cadets easily defeated Minneapolis high school in a wrestling match Jan. 12 winning 53-0.

Minneapolis gave up two matches by forfeit, but that had little effect on the outcome. George Tull at 98 pounds and Frank Swank at 115 pounds were without visiting opponents.

All the Cadet grapplers but Mike Blanck pinned their opponents. Blanck won by a 3-0 decision.

Scoring pins were Tom Fiske, Gene Strickland, David Swanda, Doug Calvert, Jim Shoffner, Les Kent, Terry Lasswell, and Andy Davis.

ST. JOHN'S—25

CHAPMAN—28

Chapman's Irish outlasted the St. John's wrestling team 28-25 in the Cadets' final home match of the season, Thursday, Jan. 22.

Chapman, which wrestles at Concordia next for the North Central Kansas league mat title, is now 6-2-1 for the year in dual meets. St. John's is 3-4.

Chapman led 26-18 going into the 185-pound match, which finished in a 9-9 draw between the Cadets' Mike Hammer and the Greenies' Kenny Shey.

Then St. John's Andy Davis pinned Dennis Shey in the heavyweight match in 2:38.

In addition to Davis' pin in the heavyweight division, Gaylen Piercy, 123; Ken Nix, 137, and Jim Shoffner, 155, posted pins for the Cadets. Nix was wrestling in only his second match and he has won both by pins.

Peter Tarnawsky, 175, won a decision for the Cadets.

Losing by decisions were George Tull and Frank Swanda.

Losing by pins were Tom Fiske, David Swanda, Mike Blanck and Les Kent.

ST. JOHN'S—36

HERINGTON—14

The St. John's Military School wrestling team took a 36-14 decision from Herington, there, Monday, Feb. 2.

St. John's was ahead 21-14 going into the final matches. The Cadets took all three by forfeits.

Wichita Collegiate handed the St. John's Military School Cadets a defeat in the Cadet gym by a 79-50 score Friday, Jan. 9.

Tim Butterfield was the Cadets' top scorer with 15 points.

Wichita Collegiate got in 18 points in the final six minutes of the second quarter while the Cadets could only find the range for seven points. St. John's shooting hit a cold streak in the third period as Bill Griffith's two shots were the only successful Cadet field goal attempts in the entire quarter.

They only outscored the Cadets by three points in the final quarter.

Bill Harrington was the only other Cadet to score in double figures as he tossed in 12 points.

Wichita Collegiate won the B-team contest, 68-29.

DURHAM—58

The St. John's "run and gun" game overpowered Durham's slow and deliberate ball control at Durham, Jan. 13 as the Cadets won 62-58.

Back to pre-holiday form, the Muleskinners were down by seven points at the end of the first quarter. They battled back to a 32-21 halftime lead.

Tim Butterfield had the game scoring honors with 23 points. At the half way point of the final period, Butterfield connected for two points and SJMS led the rest of the way.

The victory evened the Cadets' record 3-3 with other wins over Manhattan's Luckey High and Longford.

The St. John's B-team lost a 47-28 decision.

LONGFORD—38

The St. John's Cadets, led by a much improved defense, rolled past Longford, 80-38, in the Cadet gym, Friday, Jan. 16.

The victory, which raised the Cadets' record to 4-3, tied the season high scored against Manhattan Luckey earlier this season.

Longford's 38 points was the fewest allowed by the Cadets this season.

Randy Pierce put St. John's ahead 1-0 with only 35 seconds gone with a charity shot. Dwight Bruening and Bill Griffith added field shots to increase the margin to 5-0.

St. John's rushed to a 15-1 lead behind a pair of fielders each by Jay Heese and Tim Butterfield and a field shot by Bill Harrington.

St. John's outscored Longford, 25-10, in the third quarter as Heese connected for eight points and Butterfield added six. The Lions scored 13 points in the final period as Cadet Coach Gary Tucker substituted reserves Bill Brassette and Charles Dawson.

The Cadets controlled the backboards as they grabbed 75 rebounds—35 on offense and 40 on defense.

Bruening who had previously averaged 10 points per game, tossed in 25 points while grabbing off 23 caroms. Heese and Harrington each tallied 16 points while contributing 13 rebounds apiece. Butterfield was the fourth Cadet in double figures with 12.

The Cadets defense—alternating from man-to-man to zone coverage—limited Longford to only 13 field goals.

Longford won the B-game 44-39 after the Cadets faded from a 34-34 tie midway in the final quarter.

WAKEFIELD—42

A hot and cold St. John's Military School basketball team topped the Wakefield cagers at Wakefield, Friday, Jan. 23, 65-42.

First-class defense in the second period and red-hot shooting in the last quarter saved the game for the Cadets, who stand 5-3 for the year.

After being down by two points, 9-7, St. John's turned on in the second period. Wakefield

GENESE0—57

St. John's lost to Geneseo, 57-47, there, Jan. 27 as the five Cadet starters were sidelined by fouls, one at the final gun.

Reeling from the loss of the starters, the Cadets only popped in two fielders in the final frame.

The Muleskinners' high scorer with 16, Bill Harrington, was the final Cadet to head for the showers when he fouled Reed Rolfs at the gun.

In the hotly contested tilt, Geneseo did not tuck away the win until the last minute of action.

Bruening connected for 12 points and Butterfield for 11 during the game.

Geneseo won the B-game 61-36.

DURHAM—72

St. John's could not overcome a nine-point first quarter deficit and tumbled to the Hornets of Durham, 72-62 in the Cadet gym Feb. 3.

The loss dropped St. John's below .500 with a 5-6 record. In the first encounter between the two teams St. John's was victorious on Durham's court.

The Cadets opened the scoring but fell by the wayside with less than two minutes of play gone.

The first quarter ended with the Cadets down 21-12. They could never do better than hold the Hornet even for the remainder of the game.

Still down nine points at half, the Cadets pulled within three points on a foul shot by Butterfield with 4:21 left in the third quarter.

Jay Heese, who led the Cadets in cleaning the boards, led the scoring with 21 points. Harrington with 14 and Butterfield with 13 were the only other Cadets to hit double figures.

Fouls still plagued the Cadets as three players were forced from the game early. Dwight Bruening, Randy Pierce and Butterfield left the game in the fourth frame.

The B-team lost the preliminary game.

ST. JOHN'S—72

After staging a second-half comeback, the Cadets dropped a 72-64 overtime thriller to St. John's at Beloit Feb. 6.

Handicapped with three starters on the bench and Tim Butterfield ailing from an old back injury, the Cadets' only overtime scoring came on two free throws from reserve Bill Brassette.

Fouling plagued the Cadets again. Randy Pierce left the ball game three minutes into the fourth quarter and two minutes later Jay Heese fouled out. High point man for the Cadets, Bill Harrington, left the game with his fifth infraction with a minute left.

Butterfield scored 12 points and Heese 11.
