

ST. JOHN'S MILITARY SCHOOL SKIRMISHER

VOLUME LV

SALINA, KANSAS

APRIL 27, 1971

NUMBER 6

A Week of Inspection Was April 19-23

Junior ROTC Group Was Examined

... Hope for "Honor" Rating

One inspecting team left at noon and another inspector arrived on campus at 2:30 p. m., Wednesday, April 21.

The North Central Association evaluation team was on campus three days for a periodic study. Lt. Col. Edward Tompkins arrived for the annual inspection of the Junior ROTC program at the School.

The results of the ROTC inspection determine whether or not the School maintains its honor school rating.

Colonel Tompkins, Professor of Military Science, Lincoln University, Jefferson, Mo., was greeted by a Cadet honor guard, met with Col. Keith G. Duckers, Superintendent, and was briefed by the Cadet Battalion staff.

Following a coffee hour to meet the faculty, he conducted a walk-through inspection of the barracks and inspected the ROTC facilities.

The review with retreat parade was held at 5:30 p.m. on Perkins Field followed by dinner.

Invited guests were Larry Shoffner, Roger Morrison, Robert Kastner, Harvey Hoover, Whitley Austin, C. N. Hoffman jr., Max Sanders, Chuck Nichols, Ken Jennison, Sherwood Parks, Dr. Floyd Coppedge, Don Ogilvie, Arnold Lehmann, Dr. Lloyd Schurr, the Rt. Rev. William Davidson, Maj. Harold L. Boyd, James Lacy, Ervin Hindman, John Woody, Hobart McCabe, Melvin Thelander, Norris Olson, Robert Caldwell and the Rev. Donald McCarthy.

The Crack Squad Drill at 8 a. m. in the gym opened activities on April 22. The Inspector inspected military records with Maj. James Hamilton jr., Senior Army instructor, inspected the Corps in ranks, and following lunch held an exit interview with Colonel Duckers.

The results of the inspection will not be known until later in the year, possibly by Commencement weekend.

Seniors To PECUSA

The annual senior outing to PECUSA, the Episcopal Church camp on Webster Reservoir near Stockton, will be April 30 and May 1-2.

The weekend outing gives the seniors a chance to be together for fun and relaxation before Commencement.

Accompanying the seniors will be Maj. Larry Dwyer, Maj. V. B. Loy, the Rev. Loyd Holifield, Sgt. Mike Torpey, John Ritter and Ed Befort.

All seniors are invited but not required to attend.

Features of the weekend are swimming, fishing, sleeping and eating.

Class of '61 To Hold Reunion

The Class of 1961 will hold its ten-year reunion during Commencement activities May 21-24 according to Mrs. John Fonck, Administrative Assistant. Tom Banes of Albuquerque is the reunion chairman.

North Central Team Evaluates Program

It was evaluation time as the team representing the North Central Association of Secondary Schools and Colleges visited the St. John's Military School campus, April 19-21.

Member schools of the Association must undergo a periodic inspection according to Lt. Paul Sommers, Guidance Counselor and general chairman for the visitation.

Members of the team were U. H. Budd, chairman, Director of Federal Programs, State Department of Education; Mrs. Patricia Boone, instructor at Belleville High; H. D. Collins, Curriculum Coordinator for Lincoln Unified School District; Gary Duff, teacher at Salina Central; E. L. Fiedler, Superintendent of Unified School District 435, Abilene; Dan Hanson, Counselor at Roosevelt Military Academy, Aledo, Ill.; Menno Holdemen, Librarian at Cloud County Community Junior College, Concordia; Mrs. Betty Lewis, teacher at Chapman High School; John Laurie, principal of Boswell Junior High, Topeka; Col. Glen G. Millikan, Superintendent of Roosevelt Military Academy, Aledo, Ill.; Garth Renkin, teacher at Washburn Rural High School, Topeka; Mrs. Marcella Stitt, teacher at Ellinwood High School; Mrs. Kay Tomlinson, teacher at Cloud County Community Junior College; and James T. Weixelman, Principal at Horton High School.

The team viewed the retreat parade before attending dinner at 6 p. m., April 19. The evening was spent in organizing activities of the visiting team, School administration, and the steering committee.

The second day, April 20, team members met with various special interest group committees during the day.

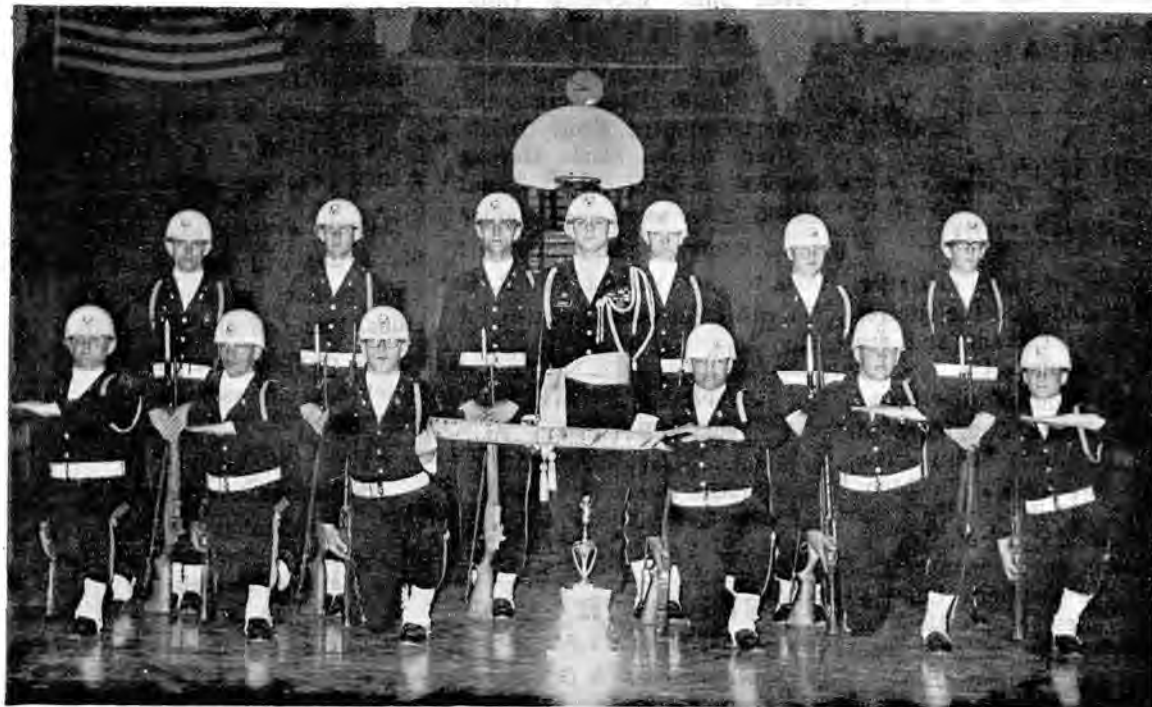

Team members met members of the Board of Trustees at a 6:30 p. m. dinner at the Salina Country Club.

The visiting team had breakfast with the SJMS Steering committee and School administration to begin the third day.

Subjects of interest on the 21st were instructional material, conferences with students, and meetings with random selected groups.

The visit officially ended following lunch at 12:15 p. m. at the Cavalier Club.

Members of the St. John's faculty and staff started early in the School year in evaluating the various programs at the school. The results of this evaluation were compiled in a 301-page book.

Crack Squad Is Number One

The St. John's Military Crack Squad took first place in the 12th annual Mile-High Drill meet sponsored by the University of Colorado at Boulder, March 27.

Twenty-five teams from four states participated in the Men's High School division. Competition consisted of seven-minute precision drills with an M-14 rifle equipped with bayonet.

Trees Planted On Campus For Arbor Day

Six trees replacing recently removed dead elm trees were planted on campus during recent Arbor Day activities in Salina.

The Sweet Gum trees were planted at Mize Hall and in the lawns surrounding the School drive.

Capt. Harold Fraizer was the faculty chairman and was assisted by Maj. Scott Haviland and the Rev. Loyd Hollifield.

Planting the trees were Jay Heese, Xavier Flowers, Dale Grace, Ken Harper, Bob Hiltz, Tom Fiske, Tom Loughrey, Steve Johnson, Mark Spiess and Bob Littler.

Organizations contributing money to purchase the trees were Cadet Patrol, Science Club, Key Club, L-Club, National Honor Society, Latin Club, Junior NHS, S-Club, Spanish Club, Yearbook staff, Drama Club, Waiters Club and St. John's Teachers association.

Captain Fraizer said that he hopes this will become an annual project of the School's clubs. Many of the large elms on the campus have died from Dutch Elm disease.

Cadets Visit Fort Riley

Climbing over tanks, shooting M-16's, and reliving the Army's past were all part of the day's activities when the Cadets of the Upper School journeyed to Fort Riley on April 10.

The trip, the second this year to the nearby Army reservation, is used to supplement ROTC classroom training. The Cadets were the guests of the Fourth Battalion of the 63rd Armor.

Upon arrival, the Cadets were taken on a tour of the support group's motor pool and lectured on the various equipment there. The session was concluded with a tank demonstration.

The second stop was the Fort Riley Historical Museum. This was followed by Army mess.

The final stage of the day was devoted to the M-16. After careful instruction, each Cadet was allowed to fire 15 rounds at pop-up targets on a Custer Hill range.

Military instructors accompanying the group included Major James. Hamilton, Sgt. Charles Eidson, Sgt. Robert Herndon, and Sgt. Frank Hazzard. Also making the trip were Sgt. Michael Torpey, Sgt. Ted Hanmer and Lt. Robert Stevens.

Color Guard Posts Colors

The St. John's Color Guard has been busy advancing the Colors for various state conventions in Salina.

The conventions were of the Kansas Women's Federated Clubs and the Kansas branch of the American Association of University Women.

Members of the guard were Dwight Bruening, Dennis Purinton, Charles Burrell and Mike Hanmer.

To Drug Institute

The St. John's Commandant, Lt. Col. Paul H. Kellogg, will attend the National District Attorneys Institute on Dangerous Drugs in Las Vegas, Nev., April 25-29.

Collect for MS Drive

The seventh and eighth grade Cadets collected $438 for Salina's Multiple Sclerosis drive on April 5.

Forty-one Cadets participated in the community-wide canvass. Transportation for the Cadets was provided by the local VFW Club. The Lower School Cadets have participated in the MS drive for seven years.

SJMS Trackmen Set New School Records

The St. John's Track team of 35 Cadets has competed in two recent meets. Capt. Bruce Cummings is the coach assisted by the Rev. Loyd Holifield and Lt. John Linden.

In a dual meet with Bennington the Cadets earned 62 points to Bennington's 79.

Tom Jacobs placed third in the high hurdles. Larry Replogle took second and Rik Thompson, third, in the 100-yard dash. Mark Faulkner took first in the pole vault followed by John Matzen taking second. St. John's took all three first places in the shot with Dennis Purinton, Dwight Bruening and Mike Hammer.

Fred Van Winkle placed second in the 440 dash.

George Ward took first and Matzen third in the low hurdles. Ken Harper placed third in the 880-run. The Cadets took all three first places in the high jump with Ward, Tim Jackson and Steve Phillips. Bruening placed first in the discus. Thompson placed second in the 220 dash. Paul Ham placed third in the two-mile run. Bruening took first and Hammer second in the javelin. Faulkner won first in the broad jump.

St. John's placed 11th in the Geneseo Invitational. Bruening placed fourth in the javelin with a throw of 140' 11". He scored fifth in the shot. Faulkner tied for the second in the pole vault at 11 feet setting a new school record. The 880 relay team of Dave Donoho, K. Harper, Replogle and Ward scored fifth. Ward equaled his school record of 23.7 in the low hurdles but did not place.

The team will not compete in the Sacred Heart Invitational this year due to the North Central Evaluation and the inspection of the ROTC program.

The next meet will be the Wichita Collegiate Invitational April 30, followed by the State Regionals on May 8.
