SJMS Development Program Begins

... Council Selected

A Development Council for St. John's Military School has been organized according to Col. Keith G. Duckers, Superintendent. The Council will work on long-range development plans for the School which will include the solicitation of funds for endowments, scholarship funds and the improvement and expansion of the campus.

Colonel Duckers will be devoting much of his time this year to development work. Acting as adviser in the new program is Al Lyons of Lyons and Associates of Denver, Colo.

Colonel Duckers said, "In making our plans we are aiming high. We must remember that a logical plan and diagram once adopted will never die, but long after we are gone will be a continuing thing. We must remember that our sons and grandsons are going to do things that would stagger us. An education at St. John's is going to help in the betterment of humanity. Our goal will be to serve society by building better education."

"The planning of a comprehensive, workable long-range plan and the solicitation of support for endowments and capital improvement on a continuing basis are 'firsts' for St. John's," said Colonel Duckers.

"Funds for scholarships are a necessity as many boys could be aided whose families do not have the financial resources to pay the total cost of programs such as ours," he continued.

The Council has had one meeting and will be meeting again in October. Plans are being made to make the membership representative of the entire nation.

The Development office has sent Gift Packets to be used for Memorials or Honorariums to all alumni, past and present Foundation members, past and present trustees, and members of the "Mule-skinners" club. A brochure explaining the Mule-skinners program is being developed for the further expansion of the $100-a-year club.

Salina members of the Council are Dan Bolen, the Rt. Rev. William Davidson, Dr. L. F. Eaton, William Exline Jr., William H. Graves, H. D. (Joe) Hale, Tom Hampton, C. N. Hoffman Jr., Mrs. Verla Joscelyn, C. Dale Lyons, Joe Rauh, Ralph E. Reitz, Gerald Shadwick, Dr. Edward Simmons, John J. Vanier, Clifford Wertz, William Yost and Harvey Hoover.

Representing Wichita will be William H. Avery, former governor of Kansas, Miss Maud Beech, Dr. Ralph Hale and Cecil A. Jordan.

Members of the Council from other Kansas communities are Melvin A. Armstrong, Shawnee Mission; Milton Blakemore, Liberal; C. Dale Miller and Mrs. M. Clare Miller, both of McPherson; John M. Peck, Concordia, and Edward M. White, Atchison.

From the state of Colorado are the Rev. R. L. Clem, former superintendent of St. John's now living in Denver; Dr. Andrew Demshki, Pueblo; Mrs. M. Lewis Marsh Jr., Lakewood, and Mrs. J. G. Spencer, Littleton.

Ben J. Taylor, Oklahoma City, is the representative from Oklahoma.

Members of the Board of Trustees Long Range Development committee are Robert H. Kastner, James Greenwood, Tom Kennedy, all of Salina; Dr. Frank Bosse, Atchison, and Ralph Cramm, Wichita.

Men to Work For Wills, Gifts, Bequests

A committee to solicit wills, bequests and deferred gifts for St. John's Military School has been announced by Col. Keith G. Duckers, Superintendent.

The committee is headed by Ralph E. Reitz, CPA, president of the Salina accounting firm of Kennedy and Coe.

Other members of the committee are William W. Yost, New York Life Insurance field underwriter; Kelly Slaughter, manager of the Salina office of A. G. Edwards and Sons; Thomas Hampton of the law firm of Hampton, Royce, Engleman and Nelson, and James Berglund, trust officer of the First National Bank and Trust Company of Salina.

Reitz, Yost, Hampton and Slaughter are all former trustees of the School.

"I am delighted to have this 'blue ribbon' committee to help in our development program," Colonel Duckers said. "All these men are leaders in their fields and have shown a great deal of interest in the School and have supported its programs."

Staff Officers Selected For 83rd Corps

The 83rd Corps of Cadets has been organized under the command of Cadet Major Dwight Bruening of Liberty, Mo. His Battalion executive officer is Cadet Capt. Jerry Tincani.

Members of the staff are Cadet Capt. Bill Griffith, S-1, and Cadet Capt. Dennis Purinton, S-3. The positions of S-1 and S-2 are still vacant.

The Battalion sergeant-major is Cadet Sgt./Maj. John Cowger.

Company commanders are Cadet Capt. Bob Thomas, Headquarters; Cadet Capt. Brian Adams, "A" Company; Cadet Capt. Purinton, "B", and Cadet Capt. Kent Mosher, "C".

The other key company positions will be filled in the near future on the basis of leadership and academic standing of the Cadets in the Corps according to Lt. Col. Paul H. Kellogg, Commandant.

83rd Cadet Court Members Elected

The Cadet Corps Companies have been elected representatives to the 1970-71 Cadet Court. Dwight Bruening, as Battalion commander, is the court chairman.

Representing "C" Company are Jim Croke and Mark Thomas. "B" Company elected Dennis Purinton and Mike Johnson. Brian Adams and Peter Tarnawsky represent "A" Company and Robert Thomas and Mike Hanmer, Headquarters.

North Central School Evaluation Begins

.... According to Lt. Sommers

The periodic evaluation of St. John's Military School by the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools will be held next spring. Lt. Paul Sommers, Guidance Counselor and General Chairman for the Evaluation, said the member schools are visited by an evaluation team every seven years.

Faculty and cadet committees are meeting and writing reports for the evaluation.

Dates for the visitation by the team have been set for April 19, 20 and 21.

Members of the Steering committee are Sommers, Mrs. John Weckel, Mrs. H. E. Nuss, Lt. Col. R. L. Guernsey, Capt. Harold Frazier, Lt. Jack Gardner, Col. Keith G. Duckers and Maj. Larry Dwyer.

There are seven general area committees.

Members of the Philosophy committee are Capt. Fraizer, Lt. Sommers, Col. Guernsey, Lt. Gardner, Mrs. Nuss, Mrs. Weckel, Col. Duckers and Maj. Dwyer.

Members of the Administration committee are Capt. Leo Ayers, Lt. Ken Faerber, Maj. James Hamilton Jr., Mrs. John Fonck and Mrs. Robert Vishneske.

The Professional Staff committee members are Capt. Bruce Cummings, Maj. Dwyer and Mrs. Laverna Kern.

Members of the Guidance and Student Personnel Services committee are Mrs. John Clymer, Lt. Sommers, Lt. Robert Stevens and Chaplain Loyd Holifield.

Do You Need A Program?

Two Cadets, John Cowger and Randy Greer, along with Lt. Robert D. Stevens and members of the School administration, have prepared a 20-minute slide program describing St. John's Military School.

The formal part of the program includes about 65 slides which depict life at St. John's accompanied by a 10-minute script. An informal question and answer period normally follows.

Already the Cadets have appeared before the Salina Rotary Club and the Salina Downtown Lions Club. Tentative engagements have been scheduled with the Bennington Lions Club, the Junction City Rotary Club, Guidance counselors of the Kansas City, Kans., area, and the St. John's Board of Trustees.

The program is available to any organization, ranging from civic clubs to church groups, in

The Program of Studies committee is made up of Lt. Gardner, Lt. Faerber, Lt. Henry Aguilera and Mrs. Keith Duckers.

Members of the Instructional Media Center committee are Mrs. Nuss, Mrs. Don Rauh, Mrs. Weckel, Lt. Robert Salter, Lt. Don Owen and Lt. John Linden.

The School Plant committee members are Maj. V. B. Loy, Ed Kliem, Lt. Bill Austin, Mrs. Lena Baldrige, Lt. Linden and Lt. Gary Tucker.

Subject area sub-committees have been formed with members of each department as members and other faculty members serving on the committees as unrelated members. One or two Cadets are members on each of the committees.

Cadet members of the committees are Mark Thomas, Jerry Tincani, Bob Hiltz, Brian Adams, Frank Hazzard Jr., Bill Griffith, Richard Watkins, Jay Heese, John Cowger, Teddy Hanmer, Larry Hazzard, Dennis Purinton, Ray Garvey, Bob Thomas and Randy Greer. Several committees have not named their Cadet members according to Lt. Sommers.

Brothers Make Enrollment News

In the 83rd Corps of Cadets are 10 sets of brothers. They are Phillip and Richard Dahlene of Topeka; John and Joseph Donald also of Topeka; Ronald and Randy Greer of Harlan, Iowa; Philip and Stephen Grone-meyer of Leawood, Kans.; Bruce and Eric Hargrove of Farmington, N. M.; Kenneth and Mark Harper of Denver; Frank and Lawrence Hazzard of Salina; Robert and Tom Loughrey of Liberty, Mo.; Brent and Stephen Miller of McPherson, Kans. and Dana and Kent Tretheway of Jeddah, Saudi Arabia.

Former Cadets returning for their senior year are Samuel Templin, Jeff Broome and John Beckner.

Kansas upon request. At a later date the slides and a script will be made available to patrons and friends of St. John's to use at their organizations' meetings.

Recently added as alternates for the production are Mark Thomas and Ken Harper.

Galen Spencer Helped Others Enjoy Life

John Galen Spencer believed in helping others to enjoy life. The Spencer Cadet Center stands as a memorial to his generosity. It is a place where Cadets can enjoy their free-time while at St. John's Military School.

A portrait of Mr. Spencer hangs in the Center. He wore a full beard and was often mistakenly identified as Al Hirt or the late Ernest Hemingway. Mr. Hemingway and Mr. Spencer did share common interests—deep-sea fishing and big game hunting.

Mr. Spencer became interested in St. John's while his son, John Benjamin, was a Cadet.

We at St. John's express our sympathy to his widow and son and once again say "thank you" for making St. John's a better place in which to educate boys.

Church Flag Given As Adams Memorial

A new Episcopal Church flag, a memorial to Raymond V. Adams, was given the Armstrong Chapel by Miss Maud Beech, Wichita, Mr. Adams' sister-in-law.

An engraved silver band bearing Mr. Adams' name is attached to the flag staff.

Mr. Adams died June 4 in Sun City, Ariz. He was a retired medical representative with the Lederle Laboratories in Wichita. He was a graduate of Kansas State University and received a master's degree in business from Harvard University. He served his country during both World Wars and attained the rank of lieutenant commander in the U. S. Navy.

SJMS Invites Army Field Band

The United States Army Field Band has been invited by St. John's Military School to present a concert in Salina during its 1971 Spring tour.

Issuing the invitation was Maj. James H. Hamilton Jr., Senior Army Instructor. The school has requested the date of May 14.

St. John's School and various civic organizations in Salina would sponsor the concert at a location to be selected later.

Spencer Center Donor Dies In Denver

John Galen Spencer, whose contributions made the Spencer Cadet Center a reality, died Aug. 27 at Presbyterian Hospital in Denver. His son, John Benjamin, is a 1964 graduate of St. John's Military School.

Mr. Spencer, 65, was a widely known Englewood businessman, sportsman and supporter of civic betterment causes. Funeral services were held Monday, Aug. 31, in the First Presbyterian church of Littleton, Colo.

Born at Columbus, Kans., Spencer was a member of a wealthy Pittsburg, Kans., family which for many years owned the Pittsburg and Midway Coal Co. During World War II he and his late father and two brothers founded an ammonia nitrate munitions plant which after the war became the Spencer Chemical Co. The coal and chemical companies were both sold to the Gulf Oil Corp. five years ago.

Besides his son, Mr. Spencer is survived by his wife, the former Ada Belle Files, a contralto with the touring San Carlos and La Scala opera companies.

Staff Supervisors Mrs. Keith G. Duckers
Lt. Robert Stevens

Five New Faces Appear On 1970-71 Faculty & Staff

Five new people joined the faculty and staff of St. John's Military School at the beginning of the 1970-71 school year.

Mrs. Mark Ramsey is the new Latin teacher replacing the retired Mrs. Bula Tait. Mrs. Ramsey is a graduate of Emporia High School and Emporia State College. She taught for two years at Phillipsburg, Kans. Her husband is a sixth grade teacher at Sunset School in Salina. They are the parents of two daughters, Cerci Rae, 2 years, and Marci Ana, five months.

Kenneth C. Faerber is the new teacher of American History, World History, Psychology and Sociology. He attended Wyandotte High School and Kansas City Junior College, both in Kansas City, Kans. He earned his B. S. and M. S. degrees from Emporia State Teachers College. His previous experience includes five years at Northwest Junior High in Kansas City; four years at Washington High, Bethel, Kans., and two years at Midwest Institute, Eureka, where he was also Director of Admissions.

He and his wife, Lillian, and children, Patricia, Billy and Bob live on campus.

John Linden is the new shop teacher replacing Gene Velharticky who is devoting full time to his trophy-making industry. John Attended Parsons, Kans.,

High School and Parsons Junior College. He received his B. S. degree from Kansas State College, Pittsburg. He taught at Council Grove before coming to St. John's. His hobbies include sports, motorcycles, boating, fishing and hunting. He lives at 917 N. 13th.

The full-time chaplain this year is the Rev. Loyd W. Holifield jr. He is a graduate of Culver Military Academy, Culver, Ind.

Chaplain Holifield earned his B. A. degree from the University of Indiana and his B. D. degree from Seabury-Western Theological Seminary. He also attended General Theological Seminary.

He served as the chaplain to Episcopal students at the North Central campus of Purdue University and is the summer chaplain for the Culver Military School's Woodcraft Camp.

Chaplain Holifield lives in an apartment in Vail Hall.

Assisting with the Wednesday night Celebration of Holy Communion in Armstrong Chapel is the Rev. Charles R. McGinley. Fr. McGinley is the Rector of St. Matthew's Church in Newton.

Born and educated in Hagerstown, Maryland, Father McGinley was graduated from the Boston University School of Public Relations and Communications and the Protestant Episcopal Theological Seminary, Alexandria, Va.

Fr. McGinley was a radio announcer and station manager before entering the priesthood. He is the Training and Support Chaplain for the U. S. Naval Reserve Training Center, Hutchinson, and was recently promoted to the rank of Commander. He served as a Naval enlisted man during the final years of World War II and served aboard the USS Union, an amphibious attack ship, during the Korean emergency.

He has served at churches in Virginia and at St. Edward the Confessor in San Jose, Calif., before coming to Newton in 1968.

He is chairman of the Boys and Girls committee of the Newton Kiwanis Club, is a member of the Board of Directors of the Newton Community Theatre, and is a member of the Newton Ministerial Alliance.

He and his wife, Katherine, are the parents of three sons, Richard, 16; Howard, 14, and Andrew, 8.

Drama Society Plans 2 Fall Productions

The Dramatics Society will present two short plays, "Refund" and a condensed version of "Twelve Angry Men" for Cadets and and their parents during the Thanksgiving weekend.

"Twelve Angry Men", the first to be performed, revolves around a jury which has just heard a six-day trial of a Mexican boy who is accused of stabbing his father. The action depicts the struggle of the jury whether to find the boy guilty or not.

Three veterans of the St. John's stage have been cast in the leading roles. Gerald Tincani will portray juror three and John Cowger is juror eight. Tincani held supporting roles in "Stalag 17" and "Mister Roberts" while Cowger was a lead in "Mister Roberts". Charles Winburn is the foreman of the jury.

Other jurors are John Cooper, two; Michael Lipp, four; John Vnuk, five; Walter Webb, six; Randy Ames, seven; George Ward, nine; Craig Coburn, ten; Sigthor Petursson, eleven; and Tom Wahl, twelve. Joe Davis is the judge; Dean Mini, the clerk; and Don Krewson, the guard.

"Refund", featuring an entire novice cast, will perform following a concert by the St. John's band. It is the story of a graduate of a preparatory school who returns for the refund of his tuition after 18 years, because he claims he learned nothing. The "farce" unfolds when the masters of the school battle him to pass his finals, which he re-takes.

John Beckner plays Bleiken-sop, the returning graduate. Bart Bowling is the headmaster. Leading the faculty attack is Gary Rorabaugh as the mathematics master. Bart Hoffman is the history master; Ron Greer, physics master; and Dana Tretheway, physics master. Mark Harper is the servant.

Randy Greer and Mike Hawk-eworth will be the student directors. Steve Cussen is stage manager for "Twelve Angry Men" and Rik Thompson for "Refund". Lt. Robert D. Stevens will direct both shows. The band will be under the direction of Sgt. Ted Hanmer. Assisting Lt. Stevens will be Mrs. John Weckel, Capt. Leo C. Ayers, Lt. Paul Sommers, Chaplain Loyd Holifield; and Mrs. Robert Vishneske.

As this is a project of the Dramatics Society, there will be no admission charged. The first performance will be on Saturday, November 21 for the St. John's faculty and staff and their families. The Cadet performance will be Nov. 22. Curtain time for both will be 8 p. m. The final curtain will open at 6 p. m. on Thanksgiving, Nov. 26.

The St. John's Military School faculty bowling team is currently in first place in its league according to Maj. Larry Dwyer, Director of Studies. Members of the team are Sgt. Mike Torpey, F/Sgt. Frank Hazzard, Major Dwyer, Lt. Gary Tucker and Lt. Ken Faerber.

Lt. Robert Stevens and his yearbook crew are busy taking pictures for the 1970-71 yearbook, "The Sound-Off".

Some group pictures of fall sports were taken on Sept. 25. Pictures of the seniors for the yearbook, senior panel and transcript purposes were taken that day.

Pictures of all underclassmen and the staff and faculty were taken on Sept. 26 in Room L-23 of the Clem Library.

The underclass picture packet will be sold for $4. Re-orders are available.

The seniors will receive at least eight proofs from which they may order one or more poses for the yearbook and personal use. A price list will be provided upon the return of the proofs. The seniors will be given two weeks to select their pictures. The finished pictures will be available by Christmas.
