

ST. JOHN'S MILITARY SCHOOL SKIRMISHER

VOLUME LV

SALINA, KANSAS

NOVEMBER 24, 1970

NUMBER 2

Thanksgiving Festival Activities Are Set

Many events have been planned for the two-day Festival of Thanksgiving, a tradition at St. John's Military School. Parents and friends have been invited to the school on Nov. 25-26.

Parents are invited to visit classes and meet the teachers from 9 a. m. to 12 noon, Wednesday, Nov. 25. Conference times may be arranged through the main office.

A "get-acquainted" coffee for the parents will be held from 2 to 4 p. m., Nov. 25 in the Conference Room, second floor of Vail Hall. Hosting the reception will be parents from Denver, Wichita, and Kansas City chapters of the St. John's Foundation.

The dinner for the "Miss Sound-Off" contestants, their escorts and the judges will be held at 5:30 p. m., Wednesday, Nov. 26.

The Thanksgiving Ball will begin with the faculty receiving line at 8 p. m., Nov. 25, in Nichols Dining Hall. The "Miss Sound-Off" pageant with the crowning of the yearbook queen and her two attendants will be at 9 p. m., followed by the Grand March.

The Crack Drill Squad, under the command of Dwight Bruening of Liberty, Mo., will make its first performance of the 1970-71 school year following the Grand March.

The Ball will end at 11 p. m. Taps will be at 1 a. m. for the Cadets.

A service of Holy Communion will be celebrated at 7:15 a. m., Thursday, Nov. 26, at Christ Episcopal Cathedral in downtown Salina. Attendance is optional but all patrons and Cadets are invited.

The annual meeting of the St. John's Foundation will follow an 8:30 a. m. breakfast at the Hilton Inn in downtown Salina. The meeting will be dismissed in time for parents to watch the march of the 83rd Corps of Cadets through downtown Salina. The Corps will leave the campus at 10:10 a. m. The Service of Thanksgiving

Christmas Leave Begins Dec. 18

The dates for Christmas furlough have been set.

Cadets may leave campus following the last scheduled event on Friday, Dec. 18. A chartered bus will leave Salina at 4 p. m. for Denver.

Furlough will end at 7:30 p. m., Sunday, Jan. 3.

All tickets, except for the chartered bus, are to be mailed to the Commandant's office before Dec. 10.

will begin at 11 a. m. at the First Presbyterian Church. The Rev. Douglas Mould of Hutchinson will be the preacher.

The turkey dinner will follow at 12 noon at the 4-H building in Kenwood Park. Cadets will be free for the remainder of the afternoon.

The St. John's Fine Arts Department will give a performance of two short plays, "Twelve Angry Men" and "Refund" at 6:30 p. m. in the School gym. The St. John's Band, directed by Sgt/1C Teddy Hamner, will play a concert between the plays.

The Thanksgiving passes and recess end at 9:45 p. m., Thursday, Nov. 26 with taps at 10 p. m.

The regular schedule will resume at 6:30 a. m., Friday, Nov. 27.

NHS Inducts New Members

Two Cadets were recently initiated into the National Honor Society. They were Kent Tretheway and Ray Spencer.

Brian Adams is president of the group with Bob Thomas, vice president, and Ray Garvey, secretary-treasurer.

The Society sponsors are Mrs. John Weckel and Lt. Paul Sommers.

Drug Program To Be Given

A program on drug abuse will be presented by the Rock Castle Jaycees at 1 p. m., Nov. 30 in the Armstrong Chapel. The Rock group is made up of inmates of the State Reformatory at Hutchinson.

The group has spoken to several schools in Salina and the area.

Fuchs Makes "Old Boy"

The name of Karl Fuchs was added to the list of "old boys" by special order recently. He was promoted to the rank of private first class.

Band Performs

The St. John's Military School band provided the half-time show at the Kansas Wesleyan-Bethany College game on Saturday, Nov. 14. Members of the 83rd Corps were guests of KWU at the game.

Military Ball Will Be On Campus

The Military Ball will be held in Nichols Dining Hall on the SJMS campus instead of at Memorial Hall as announced in earlier letters to patrons.

Memorial Hall is undergoing renovation and is not available this year.

The Spencer Cadet Center will also be open for the convenience of parents and friends.

Cadets Reminded Of Holiday Rules

Cadets and parents are reminded of the several rules and regulations governing Cadets during the two-day Festival of Thanksgiving at St. John's Military School.

Col. Keith G. Duckers, Superintendent, said that routine requests for weekend passes over the two-day Thanksgiving holiday will not be granted. Regular classes are scheduled for the Friday and Saturday following Thanksgiving.

Cadets may not spend the night at the motels with their parents. Parents arriving on Tuesday will be permitted to spend the evening with their sons.

Cadet attendance is required at the Military Ball, the Service of Thanksgiving and the Turkey dinner.

Cadets may not drive cars unless they are accompanied by a parent or an adult approved by the parent or guardian.

Six Cadets Apply For ROTC Grants

Six Cadets have made application for the ROTC scholarships offered by the Army, Navy and Air Force.

Applying are Ray Garvey, Kent Tretheway, Gerald Tincani, Bart Hoffman, David Donoho and Mike Lipp.

The scholarships pay tuition, room and board and $50 a month.

Toastmasters To Honor Cadet "Toastmasters"

Cadet "toastmasters" will be recognized by Toastmasters International following dinner on Sunday, Dec. 6. A group of Cadets has been taking part in a condensed eight-week program.

Members of the Salina Toastmasters group have met with the Cadets following dinner each Sunday.

Claude Wilson of Salina has been the sponsor.

Cadets participating are Dwight Bruening, Brian Adams, Ray Garvey, Bill Griffith, George Ward, John Matzen, Rik Thompson, Robert Thomas, John Vnuk, Randy Greer, Mike Hawkesworth, Randy Ames, Robert James, John Cowger, Kent Mosher and Steve Cussen. Adams is the president, Garvey, the secretary, and Griffith, the sergeant-at-arms.

Cast Prepares For Final Performance

The final performances of "Twelve Angry Men" by Reginald Rose and "Refund" by Percival Wilde will be given at 6:30 p. m., Nov. 26, by the St. John's Fine Arts Department as its fall project in the gym.

A special showing for the faculty was given Nov. 21 and the following night for the Cadets. The final performance will be for the parents.

Lt. Robert D. Stevens announced one major cast change. Randy Greer was shifted from student director to the foreman in the first play. Mike Hawkesworth is the new student director. He is assisted by James Croke, Roby Anderson and Dwight Bruening.

The crew chiefs for the play are Steve Cussen, stage; Jim Rucker, costume; Robert Hiltz, props; Robert Thomas and Gene Strickland, lights; and Randy Greer, sound.

Assisting with make-up will be Capt. and Mrs. Leo C. Ayers, Chaplain Loyd Holifield, and Lt. Paul Sommers. Mrs. John Weckel is the assistant director.

The band performed during the intermission of the first night and will play again Thursday under the direction of Sgt. Ted Hanmer.

The first play is about the infighting of a jury after they have listened to the trial of a teenage boy who is accused of murdering his father. The second revolves around the attempts of a private prep school graduate to be refunded his tuition after eighteen years, because he claims he has learned nothing.

Yearbook Staff Selected

Lt. Robert D. Stevens, yearbook adviser, has announced the staff of the "1971 Sound-Off", which will be issued to all Cadets during Commencement festivities.

Rik Thompson, a veteran on the staff, will be staff-coordinator. Other members of the staff are Drew Demshki, John Cooper, Sigthor Petursson, Randy Greer, Ray Garvey, Fred Van Winkle, and George Ward.

The staff members are journalism class students. Photography training has been added this year. Assisting Lt. Stevens in the instruction are Ernie and Robert Vishneske of A-Smile-a-Minute and Fritz Mendell of The Salina Journal as well as other area photographers.

Film and paper for the class are being donated by Ted Keehn of Belmont Studios in Wichita, the school photographer.

Watson Match Dates Set

The date for the Tom Watson Invitational Rifle Matches at St. John's Military School has been set for March 26-28 in the School Armory. A team from Detroit Mich., and two from Joplin, Mo., have already entered.

Staff Changes Made in T. O.

Four changes have been made in the Table of Organization of the 83rd Corps.

Dennis Purinton was transferred to Headquarters for duty as S-3. Mike Hawkesworth replaced him as the "B" company C. O.

Brian Adams was transferred to Headquarters as S-4. His replacement as "A" company C. O. was Ray Garvey.

Many New Cadets Make "Old Boy"

A number of Cadets have been found well qualified to be elevated to the status of "old boy" and were promoted to the rank of private first class.

They are Dave Cain, Gordon Crumby, Rick Dahlene, Don Duncan, Ken Evans, Mark Faulkner, Jon Fassnacht, Mike Fitzpatrick, Ron Greer, Steve Gronemeyer, Scott Hargreaves, Kirk Hutchinson, John Matzen, Gary Rorabaugh, Melvin Rose, Scott Tucker and William G. Vandenberg.

Two More "Old Boys"

Richard Shanbour and Albert Hilliard have earned the status of "old boy" and were promoted to the rank of private first class.

Cadets "Howled" On Halloween

A Halloween Howl complete with a fortune teller, cake walks and dancing was held Saturday night, Oct. 31 in Nichols Dining Hall.

Playing for the dance was the Muleskinners Combo. Members of the combo are the Greer brothers, Randy and Ron, Ken Evans, Steve Gronemeyer and John Liggitt.

Rifle Team Begins Firing

The Rifle Team has fired in two matches according to Coach Frank Hazzard.

The team fired its first outdoor match Oct. 4 in the Capital City Gun Club match in Topeka. Firing was to qualify for the Pan Am games in 1971. None of the Cadets qualified for the games but they did win 18 medals. Firing were Frank Hazzard jr., Drew Demshki and Kent Mosher.

The Gold Team of Hazzard, Demshki, Mosher and Gordon Crumby placed third in a contest in the Golden Valley Invitational Match at Kingman. The team score was 994.

The Texas A & I postal match was fired Nov. 12. The first North Central Kansas gun league match was fired Nov. 16.

Crack Squad Drills on TV

The St. John's Crack Drill Squad appeared on television Nov. 10. The members of the squad were guests on the Joyce Livingston Show on KTVH television out of Wichita.

Making the trip were 12 drillers, the squad commander, Dwight Bruening, and a four-Cadet Color Guard.

Lt. Col. Paul H. Kellogg, Commandant, accompanied the group and explained the drill.

New Sergeant Joins Military

A new sergeant has been added to the staff of the Military Department by U. S. Fifth Army. He is Sgt/1C. Charles Eidson, who has just returned from a tour of duty in Vietnam.

He is a native of Portland, Tenn., and has served with the Army in Japan, Korea and Germany. He and his wife, June, and four sons live at 1649 Elgin Dr. in Salina.

"Miss Sound-Off" To Be Crowned

Rik Thompson has been named the general chairman for the "Miss Sound-Off" dance and dinner set for Nov. 25 by Lt. Robert D. Stevens, yearbook advisor.

Cadets this year have entered fifteen girls in the contest for the yearbook queen. The judging will be done during the dinner Wednesday at the Cavalier Club. Mr. and Mrs. Tom Kennedy and Mr. and Mrs. Bryan H. Lynch will be the judges. George Ward is the dinner chairman, assisted by Sigthor Petursson and Drew Demshki. Ray Garvey is supervising the contest, assisted by John Cooper and Thompson. Randy Greer will be the master of ceremonies.

The queen will be crowned at the dance, which this year will be held in Nichols Dining Hall.

Thompson is the chairman of the committee which will decorate the dance in a winter motif. He is being assisted by Ward, Greer, and Fred Van Winkle.

Those attending will enter through an ice tunnel into the main part of the mess hall. To the left will be an ice pond and to the right a snow forest.

The queen will reign on a throne backed by a picture window. Through the window a mural depicting the majesty of the mountains is visible. The Spencer Cadet Center will also be available for refreshments.

Music will be provided by Earl Van Cleeve and the St. John's combo.

4 More "Old Boys"

Four more Cadets have qualified as "old boys". They are William Blackmer, Terence Earnest, John Evans and Lawrence Hazzard. They were also promoted to the rank of private first class.

Mosher is Adjutant

Kent Mosher has been transferred to Headquarters Company for duty as the Battalion adjutant.
