NO. 3

1955 Grad, Former Teacher To Speak At Commencement

A 1955 graduate of St. John's Military School, D. Dale Browning, now Senior Vice President of the Colorado National Bank, Denver, will be the speaker at the Baccalaureate service during Commencement 1975 according to Col. Keith G. Duckers, Superintendent.

Browning will be in Salina to attend the reunion of the classes of 1954-56. (Pictures of others planning to attend are on page 2 of "The Skirmisher".)

The only speaker during Commencement activities is at the Baccalaureate service according to Col. Duckers.

Browning is a graduate of SJMS and Kansas Wesleyan in Salina. While attending KW, he worked as a counselor at the school. Following graduation from KW he returned to St. John's as a social studies teacher and National Bank and Trust company of Chicago.

Browning joined the staff of the Colorado bank in the management training program in 1965. In 1967, he was named manager of the customer service department and in 1968 manager of the Rocky Mountain BankAmericard Corporation. As manager of the credit card operation, Browning administered the program for Colorado, Montana, Wyoming, New Mexico and Western Nebraska.

He was named senior vice president in 1972 and assumed responsibilities for the Bank operation and data processing departments in addition to the BankAmericard department in 1973.

While a Cadet at St. John's, Browning was a platoon leader in "B" Company, a member of the Crack Squad and a drillser with the Crack Platoon. Coming from Pueblo, Colo., he played football, basketball and baseball. He was a member of the S-Club and later as a staff member and coach, he was the faculty sponsor.

Browning holds positions in various organizations. He is advisor to the board of National BankAmericard, Inc., chairman of the executive committee of the Bank Card division of the American Bankers Association; a member of the Installment Loan committee of the Colorado Bankers Association and a board member of the Colorado Hearing and Speech Center.

D. Dale Browning

basketball coach from 1959-1963. He left St. John's in 1963 to attend the executive training program in administration and personnel at the University of Chicago.

During that time he was employed at the Continental Illinois

MISS SOUND-OFF CONTESTANTS AND THEIR CADET ESCORTS

MISS SOUND-OFF OF 1974-75

Miss Cathie Cutsforth, Boulder, Colo., was crowned Miss Sound-Off during the Thanksgiving Military Ball. She was sponsored and escorted by her brother, James Cutsforth, a freshman Cadet.

"Miss Sound-Off" Named At Thanksgiving Ball

A Colorado beauty was crowned "Miss Sound-Off" during the Thanksgiving Military Ball, Nov. 27, in Memorial Hall. Cathie Cutsforth, 17, will have her picture featured in the 1974-75 issue of the St. John's yearbook, "The Sound-Off".

She is a senior at Boulder High school, Boulder, Colo., and was sponsored and escorted by her brother, Jamie Cutsforth, a freshman Cadet.

Her attendants were Tamera Waddell, 15, Grand Junction, Colo., sponsored and escorted by Slade Fiero, and Kathy Morgan, 16, Kansas City, Mo., sponsored by her brother, Tom Morgan.

The Cadet Battalion commander, Jim Wellman, presented the attendants with flowers and crowned the queen. Acting as pages for the ceremony were five Lower School Cadets — Tyrone Wilson, Willie Morgan, Chris Beno, Lantz Hastings and Mike Clift, detail commander.

Other candidates and their escorts and sponsors were Nancy Albright, 14, Oshgosh, Wis., escorted by Rich Estabrook and sponsored by Mark Huber; Debbie Dawdy, 15, Breckenridge, Colo., escorted by Terry Dawdy and Kay Urban, 16, Wichita, escorted by Jeff Lortz.

The Queen and her court were selected following a dinner at the Cavalier Club. Each contestant was asked the same two questions — "What person most influenced your life? and Why?" and "What is Beauty?"

Judges were Lt. Dale Mellon and Lt. Dale Pierson, SJMS teachers; and Cadets Gary Cavey, John Donati and George McElroy.

David Clothier was the master of ceremonies at the pageant.

Journalism students assisting with plans and decorations were Benson Chapman, Cavey, Grant LaMora, Clothier, Todd Boerngen, Donati, McElroy, Estabrook and Doug Hutchinson.

Vocal Music Cadets Presented "Joseph"

"Joseph and His Amazing Technicolor Dream Coat" was presented by members of the vocal music class during the Thanksgiving coffee in Nichols Dining Hall, Nov. 27.

Tom Albrecht sang and played the lead role of Joseph. Scott Wilson sang the part of Pharaoh. Other actors were Terry Dawdy and Beau Lockett.

Bruce Patterson played the drums; David Clothier played the guitar and Mrs. Ann Zurfluh was the accompanist.

The sound system was run by Jeff Wallick. Mrs. Nedra Hough, music teacher, was the director.

Christmas Is Coming!

Christmas furlough will begin following the last scheduled event Friday, Dec. 20. A chartered bus will leave for Denver and points west at 4 p.m.

But before furlough begins many activities celebrating the holiday season are scheduled.

Each Company will hold a party during the week of Dec. 15.

The Traditional Festival of Lessons and Carols service will be at 5:30 p.m. Thursday, Dec. 19. Conducting the service will be the Chapel layreaders, Chapel Council and the Rev. Loyd Holifield jr., Chaplain.

Christmas dinner will begin at 6:30 p.m. in Nichols Dining Hall featuring fried chicken and cake and ice cream.

The annual Company "Carol Singing" competition will follow dinner. Capt. Paul Sommers, Guidance counselor, and Mrs. Sommers will sing and provide entertainment for the Corps.

Furlough will end at 7 p.m. Jan. 5.

Cadet Band To Mardi Gras

The St. John's Military School Cadet Band will march in Mardi Gras parades in New Orleans Feb. 5-9. The Cadets have marched in the parades for several years.

The Band will leave Salina Feb. 5 aboard a Continental chartered bus and will spend the night at Barksdale Air Force Base, Louisiana.

The Krewe of Jupiter parade will be the first appearance at 6 p.m. Feb. 6. Other parades will be the Krewe of Hermes at 5:30 p.m., Feb. 7 and the Krewe of Endymion at 5 p.m. Feb. 8.

The Cadets will leave New Orleans Feb. 9 to return directly to St. John's.

Lt. Col. Paul H. Kellogg, Commandant, said that it is hoped that the Cadet bandmen can be housed at the Naval Air Station during their New Orleans stay.

Staff sponsors will be Maj. and Mrs. Richard Stamm, the Rev. Loyd Holifield jr. and Sgt/FC Ted Hanmer jr.

January Jubilee

The annual January Jubilee will be held beginning at 5 p.m. Sunday, Jan. 26 in the Cadet gym. Co-chairmen of the annual fund raising fun event are Capt. Paul Sommers, Guidance Counselor, and Maj. Kenneth Faerber, Director of Studies/Admissions.

Lt. Dale Pierson, math teacher, will be in charge of selling script in Salina. Persons buying script to use at the carnival are eligible to win a color television set.

Capt. Harold Fraizer, Lower School teacher, and members of the Junior National Honor Society will run the bingo stand.

Various clubs, organizations and companies run concessions stands including a putting contest, free-throw toss, cake walk, penny pitch and a country store.

Twelve-Passenger Van

12-Passenger Vans To Be Given by Foundation

The St. John's Military School Foundation voted to underwrite the cost of purchasing two vans for transportation of Cadets at its annual meeting held following breakfast Thanksgiving morning.

The 12-passenger vans have been ordered and will cost approximately $12,000 for both. The vans will be used in transporting athletic teams, music groups, Crack Squad and will provide transportation for field trips. Delivery is expected in about 150 days. More than $14,000 was pledged or given at the Thanksgiving dinner.

George Leavitt, Arvada, Colo., was re-elected President of the Foundation, and Grant LaMora, Colorado Springs, Colo., was re-elected Vice President.

John G. Klockseim, Casper, Wyo., was appointed to fill a board vacancy created by the resignation of Mrs. Robert Furedy, Sedona, Ariz.

New members elected to the Board were Dr. H. C. Krueger, Great Bend; F. F. "Mike" Lynch, Wichita; Mrs. Roland Rasmussen, Blair, Neb.; Mrs. Pauline Korup, St. Edward, Neb.; Basonia Smith, Colorado Springs; Dr. A. G. Dietrich, San Angelo, Tex., and Dick Barbour, Mt. Vernon, Ind., Lt. Col. R. L. Guernsey, SJMS science department chairman, was re-elected to the board.

Col. Keith G. Duckers, Superintendent, in his report to the Foundation, said that it was found that the cost of building a track was more than the estimate given at Commencement. Mrs. John Galen Spencer, Denver, donated $5,000 toward its construction.

The 600 black and orange folding chairs, purchased by the Foundation, were displayed at the meeting. Col. Duckers added that washers and dryers have not been installed because of the difficulties encountered in purchasing the commercial equipment. The Foundation voted at its spring meeting to underwrite the cost of two stained glass windows for the chapel. Col. Duckers reported that a family, that wishes to remain anonymous, had provided funds for one of the windows.

A plaque for the senior scholarship fund was displayed. Parents of last year's seniors gave money to provide a scholarship in memory of Lt. Col. Roy Knight Jr., MIA father of last year's Battalion commander, Roy Knight III.

The Foundation officers were in charge of a bazaar Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 27 in Nichols Hall. Several items were auctioned following the Turkey dinner on Thanksgiving.

MAKING ROCKET FUEL

As a result of the science "rocket project", Cadets are trying to make their own fuel. John Livingston is acting as head chemist assisted by Randy Krueger, Tony Wilson, Gary Cavey and Todd Boerngen.

T. Wilson Heads Second Honor List

Tony Wilson headed the second grading period honor roll ending Nov. 22. Others named to the list were John Livingston, William Cozart, Jim Wellman, Michael Page, Stephen Gray, Robert Johnson, Chris Cotter, Bruce Patterson, David Clothier, Carlos Chocano, Ernesto Anaya, Greg Paul, Richard Barbour, David Russell, Robert Boerngen, Bill Hanna and Terry Dawdy.

Kirk Hutchinson and John Louisot were named to the Lower School honor roll. Earning honorable mention were Kenneth Clark, Ian Snider, Paul Schliffke, Eric Pederson, Charles Maxie, Slade Fiero, George Miklos and John Weatherman.

Cadets Visit UFO Site

The Science classes taught by Mrs. Fred Trump visited a reported landing site of an Unidentified Flying Object. Cadets observed the reported landing site on a farm near Delphos, Kans., which has received much newspaper coverage.

Mrs. Trump said that some Cadets were convinced of the authenticity of UFO's but others remained doubtful.

Visiting were Robert Johnson, Ken Averill, Todd Boerngen, Terry Maul, Tony Wilson and Dan Barbour.

ROTC Group Tries New Study Program

St. John's Military School is one of seven schools selected to try a proposed revision of the Junior ROTC Program of Instruction during the current school year. St. John's was selected from 206 schools in the region at a Program of Instruction conference held at Ft. Riley last August.

During the conference, the participants were given statistical data resulting from the POI survey taken in May and June, 1974. They were asked to analyze the results, seek solutions and make recommendations to improve the instructional program.

As a result, a new program was presented to Brig. Gen. Robert Arter, Third ROTC Commander, to be tried by the seven schools this year.

Exhibits, Demonstrations Prepared For Visitors

Science exhibits and demonstrations prepared by the Cadets were viewed by many parents during the Thanksgiving Festival, Nov. 27-28.

Exhibits displayed were varieties of crystals prepared by Dan Barbour; crystalline growth on coal and rock prepared by Tim Cook; an apparatus to generate hydrogen gas demonstrated by Marc Siewert; and Steve Gray showed a procedure for the extraction of chlorophyll from leaves.

John Livingston, Gary Cavey, and Randy Krueger filled a large part of the lab with equipment for the extraction of oil from Colorado oil shale. The extracted oil was then broken down into various fractions which were displayed.

Jeff Wieland and Clint Lee demonstrated explosives they had made.

Scientists Enjoy Lab Animals

The animals in the Science Department are attracting many Lower School Cadets to the classrooms in Ferris Hall according to Lt. Col. R.L. Guernsey, Science Department chairman.

He said, "In addition to the opportunities of using a high school laboratory, the young Cadets enjoy playing with Charlie the rabbit; feeding a praying mantis; and feeding Fat Annie, the guinea pig. They are delighted with the antics of six gerbils who like to scamper into the sleeves of the Cadet uniforms. The Cadets have closely observed the arrival and growth of another litter of gerbils."

Col. Guernsey said that the newest attractions in the science department are five types of carnivorous plants which the Cadets have just planted in terrariums.

Two State Champ Fencers Return

St. John's has two returning Kansas State champions as it begins its fencing season under the coaching of the Rev. Loyd Holifield Jr., Chaplain.

Mark Huber and David Dunn are the defending champions in foil and epee, respectively. Other returning award winners are David Lefler, Jeff Santillanes and Ken Averill. Charles Peaslee is the manager. Others returning are Grant LaMora and David Clothier.

New members of the fencing squad are Robert Johnson, Kevin Moyer, Tom Albrecht, Lonnie Dietz, Dennis Mitich and Richard Barbour.

Two Fencers Win

The SJMS Fencers took a third and fourth place in the Kansas Open Tournament held in Kansas City Dec. 8. St. John's was the only high school competing against college teams and adults.

Mark Huber placed fourth losing to a former Olympic fencer. David Dunn placed third losing to a former University of Kansas fencing coach.

Other attending were Grant LaMora, Lonnie Dietz, Dennis Mitich and David Lefler. Also attending was manager Charles Peaslee. The Rev. Loyd Holifield Jr., coach, said it is hoped two more away meets and two here can be scheduled.

Wrestling Season Starts

The SJMS wrestlers got an early start this year and have already competed in four matches.

Returning "A" team lettermen for Coach Larry Lysell are Ken Adkerson, 138 lbs.; Robin Clary, 105 lbs.; Scott Metzler, 145 lbs.; Kevin Rasmussen, heavyweight; David Wasson, 132 lbs.; and Jim Wellman, 145 lbs.

Returning lettermen from last year's "B" squad are Dan Barbour, Mike Beckley, Benson Chapman and Brian Pratt.

Drop First Match

Belleville ruined the debut of the wrestling team Nov. 26 with a 55-12 decision at Belleville. J. Wellman, a 145-pounder, scored a pin for St. John's only competition win. Hutchinson at 167 pounds scored the other six points on a forfeit.

St. John's had to forfeit in the 98-pound class. Losing by decisions were Clary and Metzler. Losing by pins were T. Morgan, R. Smith, Olson, Rager, Adkerson, Wilson and Rasmussen.

Win At Home

St. John's opened its home wrestling season in style Dec. 2 with a 56-11 victory over Marquette. The Cadets gave up only a decision, a pin and one draw in 12 matches while picking up five forfeits.

Winning by forfeit were Morgan, J. Chocano, Page, Wilson and Rasmussen.

Winning by pins were R. Smith, Rager, Adkerson and J. Wellman. Hutchinson wrestled to a draw.

Metzler was pinned and Wasson lost by decision.

Narrow Loss

Southeast of Saline scored a come-from-behind 30-27 victory over the Cadet grapplers Dec. 5.

Wilson and Rasmussen were pinned in the final two weight classes to nail the win for Southeast. D. Lynch was also pinned.

Winning by pins were Clary, J. Wellman and Adkerson.

Winning by decisions were M. Page, 17-13; and Hutchinson, 14-3.

Losing by decisions were Morgan, Siburg and Wasson. Rager battled to a 2-2 draw with his opponent.

Downs Press Stops Cadets

Downs rattled St. John's Military School with its pressing defense and took a 72-41 victory in the Cadet gym Dec. 6 in an Eisenhower league basketball game. It was the season opener.

The loss came after the Cadets' "B" team rallied from a big deficit to beat Downs, 44-41 and give the School a victory.

In the "A" team game, the Cadets moved ahead to a 6-2 lead early but Downs came back to tie the game 6-6 and slapped on a full-court press. The two teams were tied at 8-8, 10-10 and 12-12 before Jim Brummer got a field goal to put Downs ahead 14-12 as the first quarter ended.

Downs used the free throw line to move ahead by four points several times early in the second quarter than a six point scoring burst gave the Dragons a 30-19 lead late in the period and Downs finished ahead 30-20 at halftime.

Hub Cozart was the only Cadet in double figures with 12 points, although Greg Paul added 8 and Abel Anaya 7.

Chris Davison scored 16 points and Ricky Anderson 14 to lead the Cadets big rally in the "B" game. The Cadets scored 22 points in the final period, the same amount they scored in the first three periods.
