New Food Service Begins Operation

The American Food Service, Marshall, Mo., started providing the meals in Nichols Dining Hall at the beginning of the second semester.

The food service replaces Mrs. Neal Winchell who resigned Jan. 15. Mr. Winchell also resigned his position as a Lower School tactical officer. He has been replaced by Sergeant Major Housley who has previously worked for St. John's.

American food provides food for Kansas Wesleyan in Salina and comes highly recommended by Dr. Dan Bratton, President of KW and SJMS trustee.

Among the features of the food service are Sunday noon buffets and an ice cream sundae buffet on Sunday evening.

Steven A. Downing is the SJMS manager for the food service company. He joined the food service after serving as manager of the Coach Inn, Carrollton, Mo.

A graduate of North Kansas City High school and Penn Valley Community College, he has a background in the food service business including Denny's, the Kroger grocery company, Sizzler Steakhouse in Kansas City and assistant manager of Putsch Cafeterias, Kansas City.

He and his wife, have two children, Patrick, 4 and Jennifer, 10 months.

J. L. Wyatt

Sergeant Joins Staff

Sgt./FC Jimmy L. Wyatt has joined the staff of the Junior ROTC Department replacing Sgt./FC David Shono who was re-assigned to other Army duty.

Sgt. Wyatt reported for duty Feb. 2 and will teach military classes and will coach the Rifle team.

A native of Arkansas, he attended Northwestern State University, Natchitoches, La. before entering the Army in 1964. He has served in Hawaii, Vietnam, Ft. Sill, Okla.; Germany and Ft. Polk, La.

He and his wife, Oleta, and children, Chris, 8 and Justin, eight months, live in Mize Hall, SJMS campus.

Order of Blue Beret To Honor Top Cadets

The three Upper School Cadets and three Lower School Cadets leading the academic honor roll each grading period will be honored by the Order of the Blue Beret.

The Blue Beret with gold insignia was presented to the first honored Cadets during noon mess, Feb. 8. Upper School Cadets were Douglas Meier, Malcolm Gillespie and Jeff Turner. Lower School Cadets honored were Allan Smith, Richard Fawcett and Robert Olin.

The Blue Beret may be worn at any time with any uniform.

Special privileges will accompany the Beret honor. Those students will not be required to attend study halls and will have special seating in the mess hall. Two theater tickets will be awarded each recipient.

They will also serve as aide's to the president and will be called upon to assist with special occasions.

Any Cadet earning the Blue Beret for all six grading periods will automatically be eligible for a grant-in-aid of $250 for the following School year.

A special note of Blue Beret status will be included in the permanent record.

Wayland Dean To Visit SJ

The chairman of the Independent Schools evaluation team, David Fierke, will visit the SJMS campus Tuesday, March 21. The preliminary visit is being made to set procedures for the Independent Schools and North Central evaluation to be held the first week of April.

Mr. Fierke is the Academic Dean of Wayland Academy, Beaver Dam, Wis.

The schedule for the day has been announced by Maj. Paul Sommers, Guidance counselor and Evaluation chairman.

Mr. Fierke will meet with SJMS administrators at 10 a.m. and then will view a film about life at St. John's and tour the campus.

Following lunch, he will meet the faculty and staff, study reports, and visit classes.

Jr. ROTC Inspection Scheduled

The annual formal inspection of the Junior Reserve Officers Training Corps program and the 90th Corps of Cadets has been set for Thursday, March 30, according to Lt. Col. James Rose, Commandant and Senior Army Instructor.

This inspection is designed to determine the state of training of the 90th Corps according to Col. Rose. He said, "Last year St. John's received an award of Honor School with Distinction. This is the highest honor presented by the Army department. It is the goal of the 90th Corps to again receive the award."

The inspection has been changed from a morning format to one in the afternoon. The inspection team will arrive on campus at 2:10 p.m. to be welcomed by an Honor Guard. After a brief visit with the President, Col. Keith G. Duckers; the Cadet officers will conduct a briefing for the visiting military men.

Inspection in the ranks is set for 3 p.m. Inspection of supply training and administration will begin at 4 p.m. to be followed at 4:45 p.m. by a Crack Squad Drill.

The pass-in-review parade is set for 5:30 p.m. Viewing the parade will be various special guests of the School.

The chief inspecting officer will be Lt. Col. Peter P. McKenzie, Professor of Military Science from Portales, N.M.

The other inspecting officer will be Capt. Rocco DeRobertis, Liaison Officer, Junior Division, Third ROTC Region, Ft. Riley.

Titles Change; Jobs The Same

The titles of various school officials have been changed. Col Keith G. Duckers, President, explained the changes were made to conform with changes in the corporate bylaws of SJMS.

Colonel Duckers' title has been changed to president from superintendent. Mrs. John H. Fonck's new title is administrative assistant to president.

Lt. Col. Kenneth C. Faerber will be known as the academic dean instead of director of studies.

The previous title and job change for Lt. Col. Paul H. Kellogg was announced earlier. He is vice-president for development.

Lt. Col. James is the commandant of Cadets.

Capt. Larry Lysell has the title of admissions officer.

Mrs. Helen Loy is the secretary to the president.

REAGAN RECEIVES KEY

Former California Governor and presidential candidate, Ronald Reagan, receives the Key to Salina from Col. Keith G. Duckers, SJMS President and mayor of Salina.

You Are What You Think

You are what you eat.

Probably true.

But you are what you think, too.

Probably more true.

For those who think — that is, believe, they can succeed, succeed. And those who think they will fail, fail.

Believing is the key . . . And this old take is quite to the point:

A mother hen found an eagle's egg and placed it with her own.

When the eggs hatched, all the chicks, including the eagle, cackled for their mother hen, scratched the dirt for seed, and flew — but barely — just a bit off the ground.

Well, chicks they were; chicks they acted. And since the eagle believed he was a chick, a chick he acted.

One day, that "chick" saw an eagle soaring high in the sky, and he turned to his mother hen and pecked, "What kind of fantastic bird is that?"

"An eagle," said the hen, "one of the strongest birds around. But don't let that bother you. Fowl you were born; fowl you will remain."

And the little eagle remained a chicken all the days of his life, for that's what he thought he was.

Think . . . fowl or eagle?

Two Alumni Reunions Set

"Old Boys" of SJMS have the choice of attending one of two alumni reunions or both in May of this year according to Col. Keith G. Duckers, President.

He said that "old boys" will be welcome to attend activities on Commencement Weekend, May 20-21. But due to circumstances beyond anyone's control, the Bill Meidell inspired "Bash" for former Cadets attending in the mid-50's and any others has been changed to Memorial Day Weekend, May 27-28.

Meidell and others of that era are planning a skit for the entertainment of those attending.

Among those making early reservations is Gene Ely, with Ingersoll-Rand, Singapore, Malaysia.

Alumni headquarters will be the Hilton Inn, Salina. Mrs. R. L. Guernsey wife of long-time member Colonel Guernsey, is the resident manager.

Anyone confused about the above schedule or wanting to participate in the skit is asked to contact Bill Meidell, R.R. No. 3, Box 107, Holts Summit, Mo. 65043.

Cadets Assist Winter Olympics

Members of the Key and Octagon clubs helped keep bowling scores at the Winter Olympics for handicapped children and teenagers, Saturday, Feb. 4 at the Holiday Bowl, Salina.

Cadets Assist Drive

Posters for an anti-crime project were given Salina merchants by members of the SJMS Key Club and the Salina Kiwanis Club. The poster points out that shoplifting is "very dumb".

Old Boys Corner

Class of 1922 — Jefferson Schlesinger, 1500 Pawnee, St., Enid, Okla., wrote the School commending Ian Snider for his fine oration, "Responsibility to America" that was printed in the December issue of "The Skirmisher".

Class of 1965 — Dennis Johnson is a district manager with Mutual of Omaha in Colorado. His address is 7924 W. Quarto Place, Littleton, Colo. 80123

Class of 1972 — Steve Cussen is working for the Director of Estimates, Brigadier General Williams, on information relating to the national security. He is no longer attached to a military unit. He wrote: "I am no longer with the Presidential Honor Guard and have not been to the White House for the last month. I have successfully completed three years of duty at the White House and have moved on to bigger and better things." He hopes to attend Commencement activities in May.

Cadets to Attend First Forensics Tournament

The Forensics Team, coached by Mrs. Carolyn Scofield, participated in the Invitational Forensics Tournament at Manhattan High School, Saturday, Feb. 11.

Semi-final rounds were held in the morning with final events in the afternoon.

Participating for SJMS were Gary Santillanes, Rick Stitt, Ian Snider and Scott Ratcliff, duet acting; I. Snider and Scott White, original oration; Billy Joe Tarter, informative speaking; Steve Denniston, poetry; Howard Foster, prose; Doug Meier, dramatic interpretation; George Miklos, humorous interpretation; Stitt, Jamie Cutsforth, Jerry Mischel and Kenny Decker, improvised duet acting.

Cadets Attend Forensics Clinic

A Forensics Clinic was attended by the members of the St. John's class Jan. 28 at Minneapolis High School, Minneapolis, Ks. A SJMS Cadet, Ian Snider, gave the demonstration for informative speaking.

Others attending were Gary Santillanes, Jami Cutsforth, Doug Meier, Howard Foster, Scott Ratcliff, Jerry Graham, Scott White, Steve Denniston, Max Montgomery and Billy Joe Tarter.

Mrs. Carolyn Scofield and English teacher, said that the clinic was very motivational and informative.

Junior Honor Group Initiates

Five new members were initiated into the Junior National Honor Society Feb. 9. They are Gary Cline, Robert Olin, Richard Fawcett, Willson Pechar and Allan Smith.

A dinner followed at the Red Coach Inn.

They joined current members Max Montgomery, Gordon Snider and Craig Staley.

The sponsors are Capt. Gerald Wood and Major Harold Fraizer, Lower School Director and Teacher, respectively.

S-Club Plans Ski Trip

The S-Club, athletic lettermen's group, is planning a ski trip to Colorado the last weekend of February according to club sponsor Lt. Larry Mattison.

The group of 30 boys and four sponsors will leave after classes, Feb. 24 and return on Tuesday, Feb. 28.

Profits from the concession stand at the Winter Carnival will be used to help pay expenses.

King Tut reproductions and literature have been available for viewing in the display case in the Clem Library, according to Mrs. Martha Lohmann, Librarian. The material was provided by Mrs. Nedra Hough, Music teacher.

A. Smith Heads Lower School's Honor Roll

Allan Smith headed the Lower School's Honor roll at the end of the third grading period. Others named to the list were Richard Fawcett, Robert Olin, Giley McConnell, Dion Lewis and Dan Martin.

Earning honorable mention were Shaun Leavers, Marshall Wilson, Gary Cline, Charles Madden, Willson Pechar, Randy Cramer, Lance Allen, Everett deardorff, Vincent Raetz, Eric Erickson, Tracy Motley, Matthew Minson, and Patrick Duffy.

TAKE THE Army CHALLENGE

We'll train you for a challenging job with a future. But we want you to graduate from high school first, because high school is an important experience — a good foundation for the hundreds of skilled jobs the Army has to offer.

Today's Army wants people who are ready for the challenge of intense physical and mental training. People who look forward to the adventure of learning new and different job skills, traveling to new places, meeting new people, and continuing their education (with the Army paying up to 75% of tuition costs).

If this sounds like it might be your bag, reserve your job now through the Army's Delayed Entry Program, and have up to 365 days before going on active duty.

Accept the challenge. Graduate. Then graduate into the world of the Army.

STATE AWARD WINNER

Lt. Col. Paul Kellogg (right), SJMS, received the Kansas VFW award of commendation for community service from R.D. Tresner, state VFW commander. (Photo, courtesy of The Salina Journal).

Paul Kellogg Cited By Kansas Veterans

Lt. Col. Paul H. Kellogg, Vice President for Development at SJMS, was presented with the Kansas Department of Veterans of Foreign Wars award of Commendation at a recent meeting in Salina.

The presentation was made by R.D. Tresner, Arkansas City, commander of the Kansas VFW during the mid-winter conference of the state VFW at the Heart of American Inn.

Kellogg was honored for over 20 years of service in the U.S. Marine Corps; his efforts for Armistice Day observance and his "outstanding and dedicated service in many areas of the community".

Col. Kellogg joined the service as a Naval cadet in 1941, was commissioned in the Marine Corps in 1942 and shot down over Guadalcanal soon after his commissioning. Following a year in the hospital, he returned to active duty. He served in the Korean and Vietnam Wars in addition to World War II.

He was decorated with the Distinguished Flying Cross and the Purple Heart for his service.

Approximately 350 persons attended the conference which was welcomed by Col. Keith G. Duckers, St. John's Superintendent and mayor of Salina.

Rooms Re-Done As Funds Given

The response from alumni, patrons and friends for funds to renovate rooms in Sage and Griswold Hall has been good according to Col. Keith G. Duckers, President. More than $30,000 in cash and pledges has been received toward the $75,000 goal.

Contributors of $500 and $1,000 will have a bronze plaque on the door recognizing the donor or donors. Smaller amounts are also welcome according to Colonel Duckers.

Cadet Dies During Furlough

The School was saddened by the unexpected death of Senior Cadet Jeffery Kent Peacher, El Reno, Okla., during the Holiday furlough. He died of a sudden illness according to reports received at the School.

Cadets Jeff Turner and Scott Furlong, and Capt. Larry Lysell, Admissions Officer, attended the funeral and served as honorary pall bearers.

A Memorial Service in his honor was attended by faculty and Cadets in the Chapel following the Holiday furlough.

Trip Deadline Is Feb. 24

Applications for the educational tour to Washington D.C. and New York City must be returned to Capt. Larry M. Lysell, Admissions Officer, by Feb. 24.

Qualified juniors and seniors may make the trip April 22-26.

Cadets Defeat Glasco 52-51 In Overtime

Jim Severson, playing on an injured ankle, scored the final two points for the Cadets and pulled down two key rebounds at Glasco, Friday, Feb. 3, to give the Cadets a 52-51 overtime victory over Glasco in an Eisenhower League West basketball game.

The win broke a seven-game losing streak for Larry Mattison's club and gave the Cadets a 2-9 mark in the Ike West.

Glasco led 12-8 at the end of a quarter, their biggest margin of the night, and 30-28 halftime. The Cadets had a six-point lead at one time in the third quarter but the score was tied 38-38 at the end of the quarter.

And regulation play ended a 48-48 deadlock.

In the overtime, Mark Chardi, who had a game-high 14 points and hit better than 50 percent of his shots, put the Cadets ahead 50-48. Glasco tied the score before Severson, who had eight points scored on a layup.

The Bulldogs, who stalled much of the extra period, got one free throw but Severson rebounded the miss on the second charity with four seconds left. The 6-5 center than threw the ball away. Glasco had one more shot but missed and Severson rebounded again.

The Cadets had a balanced attack as Dave Schaaf finished with 11 points and Richard Stitt tallied 10.

"We won because we didn't get into foul trouble and they did, which forced them to pull some of their big men out," Mattison said. The Cadets were whistled just 10 times while Glasco picked up 17 fouls.

In the "B" team, Glasco took a 54-53 decision.

Bennington Wins, 79-64 In Fourth Quarter

St. John's Military School fought the Bennington Bulldogs on almost even terms for three quarters before they pulled away in the final period for a 79-64 victory in an Eisenhower West division game at Bennington, Jan. 13.

Bennington held a 16-14 first period lead and held on to the two-points margin for a 36-34 halftime lead. The Bulldogs continued to lead by a pair after three periods, 52-50. The Bennington Bulldogs out-scored the Cadet 27-14 in the final period to ice the victory.

Bennington won at the free throw line as both teams hit an even 26 field goals. The Bulldogs made 27-33 free throw attempts while the Cadets hit on only 12-26.

Jim Severson hit for 21 points while Mark Chardi added 12 and Dave Schaaf connected for 10.

The Cadets won the B-team contest, 39-35

Fencers To Jr. Olympics

Several SJMS Fencers will participate in the U.S. Fencing Junior Olympics, Feb. 18-20 in Houston, Texas.

Making the trip will be Malcolm Gillespie, Chuck Maxie, Mike Davis, Ken Strickland, Steve Lauber and Rick Anderson.

The Rev. Loyd Holifield is the coach.

"B" B'ball Team Tied For Third

The SJMS "B" basketball team presently stands at 6-5 in Eisenhower West League standings and is tied for third place.

Head coach Larry Mattison said that the team, coached by Kelly Rudolph, has played steady ball since the first two games of the season.

In the Ike League B-team tournament, the team lost the first round play-off game to Downs and now must face Ell-Saline of Brookville.

Tescott Trips Cadets

The Tescott Trojans defeated the Cadets 67-51 in an Eisenhower West game at Tescott Jan. 20 to avenge an earlier 59-48 loss to the Cadets in Salina.

The Cadets got balanced scoring from four players. Damon Bird led the attack with 16 points, Mark Chardi hit 14, Jim Griesbach added 12 and Rick Heiser had nine.

Griesbach returned to the lineup after missing the previous game with Ell-Saline with a sore throat. St. John's had to play without regular starters Jim Severson and Dave Schaaf, who still were sidelined with injuries.

The B-team defeated Tescott by a 49-46 score.

Cardinals Defeat Injured Cadets

SJMS Basketball coach Larry Mattison was forced to open his Eisenhower West game with Ell-Saline, Jan. 17, in the Cadet gym with three starters out of the lineup.

Ell-Saline's Cardinals took full advantage of the situation and used a zone defense to get another Cadet starter in trouble as they scored a 73-32 victory.

The Cadets started the game without Jim Severson and David Schaaf, two regular starters, and Jim Griesbach, a part-time starter.

Severson had 15 stitches in his hand Tuesday night after he ran his hand through a window. Schaaf was out after suffering a head injury in a Monday night practice. He received a bump to the head which closed one eye and chipped a tooth. Griesbach was out with a sore throat.

"It kind of takes the wind of your sails to lose three starters," said Mattison before the game started.

Ell-Saline added to the Cadets woes when its zone forced Rick Stitt, the Cadets' remaining big man, into foul trouble early in the game.

Damon Bird led the St. John's scoring with 13 points while teammate Rick Heiser added 12.

The SJMS B-team won a 50-41 victory.
