Named "old boys" with the rank of PFC were Roger Tempin and Greg Paul.

Jim Ensley and Emerick Petruska passed the "old boy" test and were added to the ranks of the "old boys".

Joining the "old boy" ranks early in October were Wesley Adkins, Larry Eberhart and Kevin Tobin.

By a special order on Nov. 9, eleven Cadets were authorized to wear the "old boy" shields. They are Walter Cobb, Mark Coates, Jim Coudayre, Greg Giavich, Hoyt Harris, Steven Kirkland, Larry Macy, Mike Mitchell, Steve Ulibarri, Randolph Vincent and William Young.

To Visit AF Academy

Three senior Cadets will visit the Air Force Academy at Colorado Springs Nov. 19-20. They are Roy Knight, Kirk Hutchinson and Gordon Crumby. The Cadets are interested in nominations for appointments to the school. Arrangements have been made by Maj. Richard Stamm, Senior Army Instructor, who will accompany the boys.

Retired AF General To Visit St. John's

Brig. Gen. William L. "Jerry" Lee, (USAF-retired), will be a special guest on campus Dec. 7. He will arrive at 10:30 a. m. to be greeted by a Cadet Honor Guard. He will review the 85th Corps of Cadets on Perkins Field at 10:45 a. m.

General Lee will address the members of the Corps and faculty and staff at 11 a. m. in Armstrong Chapel following which he will be the guest of the Corps in Nichols Hall at 12 noon.

General Lee was boss of the 13th Air Force in the Far East during World War II. He was once busted in rank for slapping a presidential representative of President Harry S. Truman in Italy. The representative at a later date ended up in a penitentiary. His rank was later restored when Dwight D. Eisenhower became President of the United States.

A Saturday Evening Post article of 1955 said, "Among other things, Lee plays fast and loose with the English language. His command of the written word, nourished through extensive personal correspondence, is excellent. But in speeches and correspondence he slays his audience by mixing a witches' brew of slang and epigrams—all ingredients just come naturally."

After being busted from Brigadier General to Colonel, General Lee found himself relegated to serve a tour of duty in Salina at Smoky Hill Air Force Base. He said philosophically: "Well if I can't be a tree, I'll be a good bush."

His fitness reports for the next six years depict a model officer—"loyal, cheerful, hard-working, rather blunt and fair in all his dealings with his subordinates". All that he needed to regain his star was for the

Go Trick-or-Treating

The Lower School Cadets in the third through sixth grades attended a "spook show" on Oct. 28 and went "trick-or-treating" on Halloween night. Providing transportation were faculty wives. The Upper School Cadets were provided with "treats" following study hall, Nov. 3, in the Spencer Cadet Center.

electorate to bring about a change in the White House Staff. So when Eisenhower was elected, (General Lee had taught him to fly a plane,) he got his star back.

Belonging to a local organization, General Lee makes frequent visits to Salina from his home in Amarillo, Tex.

Goddard Girl Crowned Homecoming Queen

Kim Jamison, a sophomore from Goddard, Kansas, was crowned the 1972 St. John's Military School Homecoming Queen during the half of the SJMS-ELL-Saline game, Oct. 27. She is the sister of Cadet freshman Mark Jamison.

Her attendants were Kathy Kennedy, 413 E. Cloud, and Cristi Vineyard, 2027 Raymond, both of Salina.

The three girls were special guests at dinner preceding the game. The entire Corps of Cadets voted for the queen. Making the presentation at halftime were football players, Bob Spreier, Duane Robison and Ken Harper. She received a crown, bouquet of yellow mums and a football autographed by the 1972 SJMS team.

Kirk Hutchinson was the master of ceremonies for the dinner and for the halftime ceremonies.

Following the game, a homecoming dance was held in the gym with "The Hard Rock Kid" group from Wichita providing the music.

Mrs. Lynn Krebs was in charge of decorations and Mrs. Mark Ramsey was the homecoming chairman.

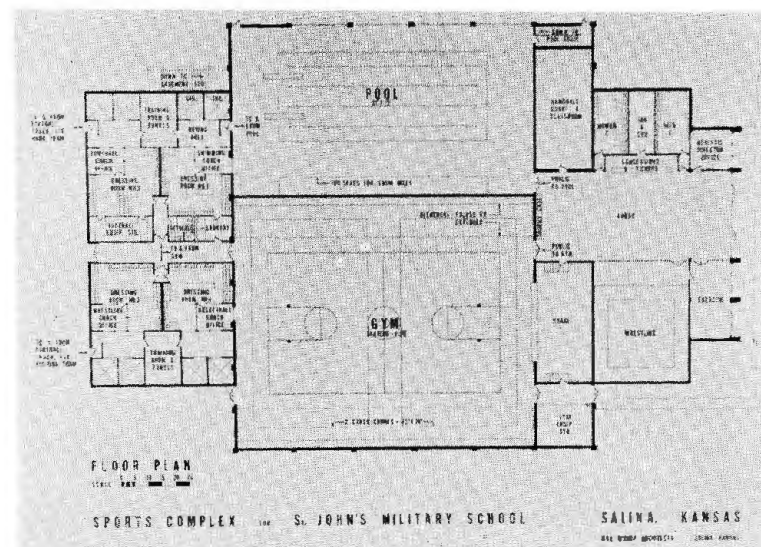

Kim Jamison

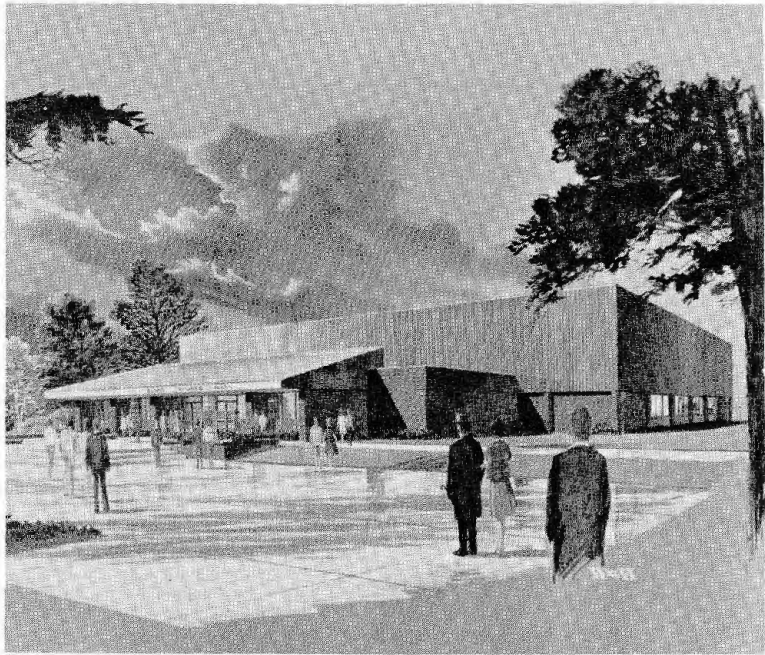

Money to finance the first homecoming to be held in many years was raised through the sale of light bulbs in Salina Oct. 12.

Salina Rotary Club Meets at SJMS

The Salina Rotary Club held its weekly meeting at St. John's Military School Monday, Oct. 23. Presenting the program were the football coaches, Bob Long, Billy Martin and Tom Michael. Lt. Col. Paul H. Kellogg, Commandant, is a member of the club and acted as master of ceremonies.

Clare Miller, McPherson, is the co-chairman. Heading the alumni division will be D. Dale Browning, vice president of Colorado National Bank, Denver, Class of '55, and the Rev. R. L. Clem, Denver, former Superintendent of St. John's.

Cadets Win Final Game of Season

The Cadets ended the football season as they began it—with a win! In the final game of the season on a wet and slippery Perkins Field, the Cadet Muleskinners defeated Tescott 8 to 7.

Jim Bunting, quarterback, used an improvised play to edge the Cadets over Tescott in a Western Division game of the Eisenhower league Nov. 2.

Trailing 7-0 late in the first half, Bunting capped a 34-yard, eight-play drive by punching the ball in from the one-yard line with 48 seconds before the half.

St. John's elected to try for a two-point conversion following the touchdown.

Taking the snap from center, Bunting found the ball still in his possession in a mixup in the back field and sprinted behind the line, angling over the goal line with two Tescott defenders unable to stop his forward progress and the Cadets led 8-7.

Both St. John's and Tescott scored touchdowns in the second half. But penalties nullified both scores, with the Cadets hanging on for the victory.

St. John's was 1-3 in league play while Tescott was 0-4 in the league.

Tescott's early score, in a well-played game on the soggy field, came on a controversial play. Time ran out at the end of the first quarter as Tescott snapped the ball from the St. John's 24-yard line.

Craig Stirn, fullback for the Trojans, carried the ball through the middle of the unprepared St. John's line for a touchdown. St. John's claimed the gun had sounded before the play began, but the officials allowed the score to stand and Stirn kicked the extra point for a 7-0 lead.

At the end of the third period, and for the first few plays of the final quarter, the Trojans moved to St. John's 15 before losing the ball on downs.

St. John's put the ball in motion at the 15 and made its best drive of the game with Jim Wellman, a sophomore end, coming around on a reverse and streaking 38 yards to score. This was called back by a clipping penalty that left the Cadets with a first down at the Tescott 33.

Four plays later a St. John's pass was intercepted and returned to the Cadet's 25-yard line.

Stirn again scored an apparent touchdown from the nine at the 1:45 mark, but a holding penalty brought the ball back to the 24-yard line. Tescott lost the ball on downs three plays later at the 20-yard line.

The Ell-Saline Cardinals shook off a rash of mistakes to defeat the Cadets 22-0 in the SJMS Homecoming football game Oct. 27.

The game was marred by many penalties but both schools also played good defense at times.

St. John's got its first break of the game when Ell-Saline's defense was called for roughing the kicker on a punt attempt. It was the first of three roughing calls against the Cardinals.

The Miltonvale Pirates scored a pair of first-quarter touchdowns to take a 14-0 win from the SJMS Cadets in a cold and rainy football contest Oct. 20.

The Pirates wasted little time putting points on the board. With 3:44 left in the first quarter, Pirate quarterback Randy Lange pushed the ball over from one yard away. The Pirates point after attempt failed. Lange came right back with 21 seconds left in the first period when he tossed a 15-yard touchdown pass to Kenny Richard. The drive began when the Pirates fell on a Cadet fumble. The conversion attempt was successful this time as Lange threw to score two points.

After the initial period, neither team managed to get the ball across the goal line although both sides threatened several times. Although St. John's failed to score, it did get close late in the second quarter as it moved to the Miltonvale 10.

The Cadets were able to move the ball in the final quarter mostly on the passing combination of Steve Miller, sophomore quarterback and Duane Robison, a senior end. Miller and Robison teamed up for 40 passing yards in the final period alone.
