Former CMS Superintendent
Will Contact Prospective Cadets

Lt. Col. A. Y. Hardy, former superintendent of Colorado Military School, Denver, has joined the staff of St. John's Military School, Col. R. L. Clem, Rector, announced this week.

Colonel Hardy, a reservist in the Field Artillery resigned his post with the Denver school after serving there for the past ten years to accept the position with St. John's.

Colonel Clem said that Hardy's primary duties with the school will be to contact patrons and prospective patrons of St. John's. He will also assist Capt. R. Niles Moffat, senior master, in the counseling program, and Maj. R. L. Guernsey, commandant, in the military department.

In commenting on the hiring of Hardy, Colonel Clem said that St. John's is fortunate in securing Colonel Hardy's services. He is a man whom boys instinctively trust because he has a real interest in their welfare. He has enthusiasm backed by mature judgment."

In a press conference late Saturday, Colonel Hardy made the following statement:

"I have accepted my position with St. John's School after a careful survey of the possibilities for its growth and development. I feel that my experience and talents can be used here to both the School's and my advantage.

"I like the city of Salina and the friendliness of the people I have met. With the exceptionally fine staff that I have to work with at St. John's, I feel that there is a real future for me in Salina."

A resident of Denver for the past twenty years, Colonel Hardy is married and has one daughter.

He returned to Denver Sunday and, after winding up personal affairs there, will return here in about a week to assume his duties.

Mrs. Hardy, presently employed in the Denver public school system, will join the Colonel here at the close of the current school term.

Seventeen Cadets Attend Great Bend SARCAP Mission

Entire Kansas Wing
Of CAP Took Part
In Search And Rescue

A contingent of 17 cadets from St. John's, along with Major Guernsey and Mr. Duckers, went to Great Bend, Kans., Saturday and Sunday, November 10th and 11th, to take part in a Civil Air Patrol search and rescue mission.

The SARCAP mission, designed to test coordination among the various air groups in the Kansas Wing of CAP, was directed by a United States Air Force rescue group from Hamilton Air Force base in California.

St. John's sent a radio mobile unit, six walkie-talkie radios, and two planes to the SARCAP. Lt. Gary Hanna and Sgt. Bill Gillespie piloted the planes. Lieutenant Hanna flew his Cessna 140 while Sergeant Gillespie flew his Tailorcraft.

The entire Kansas Wing of Civil Air Patrol took part in the program at Great Bend.

The St. John's group arrived at the Municipal Airport in Great Bend about noon Saturday. Saturday afternoon was spent in orientation classes and getting set for the search which was to be held Sunday.

Saturday night those cadets which were not assigned to communications were on guard duty. High CAP officers from Wichita later told Major Guernsey that cadets from St. John's were the only cadets on guard duty that could be counted on to efficiently man their posts.

Mock plane wreckage was set out Saturday at three locations. The search was to start at 0600 Sunday, however, bad weather moving in slowed the start. By morning most of the planes were in the air, but before the mission could be completed, the weather forced them to return to the base.

St. John's cadets on hand for the event were Sgt. Bill Gillespie, Tulsa; Sgt. Bill Retallack, Denver; Pvt. Tom Jones, Kansas City, Mo.; Bill Salmon, Pueblo, Colo.; Connie Young, Wichita, Joe Fowler, Lamar, Colo.; Orin Seybert, Bristol Bay, Alaska; Allen Soukup, Ellsworth.

DANCE BAND MAY BE ORGANIZED HERE

There have been rumors floating around old Vail Hall concerning a dance band made up of the cadets here at school. The rumors may contain some merit.

The talented ones who would be considered for the band are: Gary Hanna, saxophone, Chuck Bates, saxophone, Bill Salmon, piano, and Connie Young, trumpet and drums. The fellows are all talented in the use of their instruments and if Captain Moffat, music instructor, can find the time he will lead them.

A quartet will be allowed to join the band. These members are Bob Balzerick, Dave Collins, Mike Quinlan, and Don Cofield. These talented youngsters will provide the vocals for the band, if we get one ? ? ?

The Holiday Message

The Rector and faculty of St. John's School feel that their Holiday Message to you can be expressed in no better way than the following hymn taken from the Episcopal Hymnal.

"Now thank we all our God, with heart, and hands, and voices, Who wondrous things hath done, in whom His world rejoices; Who from our mother's arms hath blessed us on our way with countless gifts of love, and still is ours today.

"Oh may this bounteous God Thro, all our life be near us! With every joyful hearts And blessed peace to cheer us; And keep us in his grace, And guide us when perplexed, And free us from all ills, In this world and the next."

OLD STORY COMES UP WITH NEW TWIST

Once upon a time there were two bears. Their names were King and Todd and they tried to teach school, but, sometimes they had doubts, especially first thing in the morning when they would hear the boys after they just got up.

First King would rush out thinking there was a dog in the barracks. Come to find out though it was just Bogart trying to bark like a Bernard. Next you hear the loudest noise on earth. Don't get excited it's only Owens arguing with Mc Bean over which is the nicest town Wichita or Dodge OOPS pardon me I mean Garden City. Personally there's a place in Colorado Lanam prefers but Hixon and C. Johnson finally convince him Kansas is better only guess who gets the black eye, Webber because he has been trying to tell Sweigart a Hudson is better car than a Kaiser.

Next in the washroom we hear Tindle, McMaster, Humbert, and Schroeder having a free for all to try and convince each other who will use the Shaver first. Jackson decides he is taller than Ricks so they get Bugerhoff to measure them but he isn't big enough. All is forgotten when they hear Hiatt getting after Castleberry who was sleep walking and stumbled over Fifield who didn't make it to bed. This commotion wakes up D. Johnson and Jackie Todd so now we take off in high gear to go to breakfast. By now Mrs. Todd is on the warpath and we all want to be gone when she explodes. It's really an exciting life because here it is, not even seven o'clock and the bears are pulling their hair. That is, what's left of it. No hard feelings fellows!!!

Green And King Are New Members Of St. John's Staff

Junior School Assistant And Chaplain Employed

New faculty members at St. John's this year are Lt. Richard King and Chaplain Stephen W. Green.

Lieutenant King is the new assistant to the Junior School Director. He replaces Lt. John Todd of the Junior School, who was this year advanced to the directorship of the school when former director Capt. J. A. Cleavinger, resigned to take a position in the Salina public school system.

Lieutenant King, a star basketball player at Kansas Wesleyan University for four years, plus being a letter winner in football and baseball, came to St. John's with the highest recommendations from university officials.

He is married to the former Dorothy Henning of Glasco.

King is a corporal in the Salina National Guard unit and received a commission as a second lieutenant in the Civil Air Patrol upon assuming his duties at St. John's.

The Rev. Stephen W. Green, an ordained clergyman of the Protestant Episcopal Church, joined the staff at St. John's this year as Chaplain.

Chaplain Green's experience in the field of education consists of overseas high school principal for eleven years, president of International Relief society in China for five years, principal of a high school in the U. S. for two years, and business manager of a mission station in China for thirteen years.

He served in the Marines during both wars, attaining the rank of Major. His wife is a trained nurse.

The King's live in the second floor quarters in the Junior School building while the Green's occupy the apartment in the Chapel. (See Picture Inside)

Skirmisher Cub Tells Behind Scenes Story

By Fred Robison

The idea of reporting for the Skirmisher was known to me last year when I put up the most profound arguments I could think of to get myself out of the job. I talked and vowed that I wouldn't be found on the staff, but my efforts proved futile and I am now writing the story behind the life of a reporter on the Skirmisher staff.

A reporter leads one of the most confused lives of any man on earth. He has more things to do in a month than the average man has to do in a year. He has to write when his hands are so tired he can hardly hold the pencil.

He has to understand the advertisement part of the paper as well as use his imagination to the utmost in writing a story. His mind is in a constant turmoil for new story material and his head aches from the effort of trying to write his story quotas for the month.

He may walk into the staff room with the knowledge that he has just at long last caught up on his story writing only to be met by the editor, Captain Moffat, who quickly reorganizes him with a new batch of stories to get out by the next day.

At the beginning of his short lived career he knows nothing about the work and has no will to learn.

He is completely ignorant of the uses of the typewriter without which he would be swamped with excess work. He tries to get a good grade but if anyone were to ask him what he had just written he would be startled beyond words.

The idea that news is being formed all the time around him has little bearing on whether he knows it or not. This idea is constantly being forced on his weak little mind and he, in turn, is forcing it right back.

I won't say that the life of a reporter is not uneventful, but what I would like to know is when will some of that excitement reach me.

Sunday Inspections Are Sometimes Rough ??

As the sun broke over the layer of clouds in the east on a recent Sunday morning, it found almost every cadet who was up, busy cleaning his room for the dreaded white glove inspection of Capt. Moffat which he gives every Sunday that he is O.D.

This Sunday was even worse than usual in that a visiting Marine who was a cadet last year gave some useful pointers on Marine inspections.

Some of the things which seemed to give most of the U's (unsatisfactory) on the rooms were, dirt on the bottom of shoes, dust on toothpaste containers, toothpaste in toothbrush, and improperly made square corners on beds.

Following the inspection there was screaming up and down the halls. Most of the cadets received U's on their rooms and weren't very happy about it, since they had prepared for the inspection since the early hours of dawn.

Junior School News

By Dot and Flo
(Mr. King and Mrs. Todd)

Duane Johnson had a weeks stay at St. John's Hospital, but is up and "atom" again, a least he's in as much trouble as usual.

Oh well boys will be boys. The recent promotions in the Junior School are Tommy Sweigart, and Carrol Hiatt as Sgt. first class; Max Owen and Dick McBean as Sgt.; Al Tindle and Louis Humbert as Cpl.; and Kent Shaver as Pfc. Congratulations boys!

One of our boys really had the right idea the other day after Sam Chocano had been made Cadet Captain. He said "Sammy was just so happy he could hardly read the rest of the orders". Anyway, the Junior School wants to congratulate you, Captain Sammy.

Rockie Bernard and Charles Hixon had their room redecorated — sure looks nice.

Three Junior School boys received merit awards this week. The boys were Al Tindle, Tom Sweigart, and Carrol Hiatt. Nice going boys.

We have been having extra spelling lessons lately, even the faculty! How about it Lt. King, have you learned to spell Wichita yet?

I thought the Junior School boys really had a good time at the Halloween Dance — especially Bernard and Hixon who had a couple of cute girls to dance with.

Happy to mention the fact that we have a new boy in the Junior School. James McMasters is his name — only he would rather be called Gus. He hails from Denver and is an 8th grader.

If you see Jackie Todd going around pinching her nose and saying honk, honk, we want you to know it wasn't original with her — but rather some of Kirby Burgerhoff's teaching. WE HOPE she outgrows it SOON.

It seems Lt. Todd and Lt. King are getting ready to graduate a new tobacco chewing class. Maybe you fellows will learn someday — Do you reckon?

The Junior School basketball team is in full practice now and hopes run high for a good team.

Three or four Junior School boys who got a chance to see K-State and Oklahoma play just couldn't take it. They sat the last half out in the car. Cold was it boys?

The Junior School is gifted with several Valentino's this year; namely Tindle and Sweigart who daily receive two letters from sweet ones who reside on Front and Ash streets in the city of Salina.

The only sworn bachelor among our ranks this year seems to be Bogart, who has already come up with the years most quotable statement "What good are girls anyway"? Could be jealousy, no?

Several of the little generals have wondered why St. John's Cadets don't organize a cheering squad to aid our school at athletic events. To me this seems a grand idea. Our school spirit isn't lacking on the football field or on the basketball court but it is lacking on the sidelines. How about it upper school? We sure are willing.

Our selection for the "boy of the month" is Johnny Fifield. He's a great competitor, a good sport, energetic student, his courtesy and manners are high examples of St. John's training. An orchid to you John.

1903 CADET MAKES SHORT VISIT HERE

David M. Botsford, a cadet of 1903, returned recently to see what the school looked like after 49 years. The present barracks were built in 1914 so he had never seen them before.

Mr. Botsford was only 13 years old when he was here. His nephew graduated in the class of 1920.

Mr. Botsford is presently living in San Francisco and stopped in to see the school while on a business trip which carried him through Salina. He is in the advertising business in California.

AVIATION NOTES

The aviation club met on November 7, for the first weekly meeting of the month.

Topic discussed was stability of the aircraft and plans for the future. Plans for money making propositions.

The new aviation students are well on their way to becoming licensed pilots, altho the weather has been unsuitable for flying for the last week or so.

Lt. Gary Hanna and Sgt. Bill Glespie flew in 40 to 45 MPH wind returning from the Great Bend SARCAP. Visibility was one mile and it was difficult for the boys to make the cross country hop but it was a success, and the mission was completed in safety.

The second meeting was held November 13. Reports were given on the SARCAP trip. There was some discussion of getting a radio unit for the chart room to have for both radio experience and communications between other CAP wing units.

Thanksgiving Now- Or What Might Be

(An Editorial)

In a chapel service held November 18, a special theme was given on the privileges for which we should be more thankful this Thanksgiving time because of the political situation throughout the world at the present day.

"How many people realize the benefits we have in our country and its constitutional basis? This Thanksgiving should be more meaningful than any other time in the history of this nation. Our rights, which we treasure and which are desired by more people outside the nation than any other way of life, are still intact even though they could very well be lost if we allow ourselves to relax and take little interest in natural obligations. To us our most enjoyed freedoms are those of religion and the right to chose public officials.

There is little realization how easily these could be lost and what changes this would effect in our lives who have known only freedom and no restraint other than those civil and criminal laws which make our country peaceable and safe.

General freedom of social and home life are important factors in our lives also, for without social activities life grows dull and unimportant.

"For instance, suppose when you made that casual visit to church you were turned away from the door by an armed guard with the terse advice that for you there would be no more church.

Or suppose when you reported for school you were picked up by a uniformed representative of the government and ordered at the point of a gun to a stockade where you would be trained in some form of "ism" and strict military preparations, being deprived from that point on of any normal home life or family relations.

Or again when you went to the grocery store to do the customary shopping, you were ordered away by an armed guard and told to report to a commissar official who would tell you what you could buy and give you a permit for just those items, and you could only purchase the poorer grade merchandise since the best quality of food and clothing was reserved for official use.

Or suppose that when you reached the voting age and made your first trip to the polls to exercise the right and privilege of voting of which you had heard your father talk, how different you found this procedure in which an officer stood at your side and not only advised you how to vote but told you the candidates for whom you were to vote.

This is impossible, you say. Why this is a democracy—this is the United States, and nothing can deprive us of our rights. That is exactly what Poland, Hungary, Czechoslovakia, and the Balkan countries have all felt in times past, but when people become pleasure crazy and indifferent to obligations and ideals then only ruin, decay, appression, and exploitation can follow.

More than ever this year may we be truly thankful not only for a bounty of food and pleasure but also for a heritage wherein the individual rights, religious tolerance, and the pursuit of happiness are still first in the social creed of all mankind throughout this land of ours."

Cadets Fall
Before Powerful
Solomon Team

Solomon cashed in on four long runs, a line buck and a recovered fumble in the end zone to sweep past the St. John's Cadets 38-0 in a football game here Friday afternoon, November 9.

Although both clubs belong to the Saline County league in basketball, it was a non league football contest as only three SCL teams have football and one, Brookville, is six-man.

The Gorillas of Coach Loren Blazer countered four times on runs of 83, 53, 21 and 60 yards.

Solomon scored in the opening period when Jerry Higgins bucked over from four yards out. Then Jim Wickersham rambled 53 yards to give Solomon a 12-0 first period advantage. In the second frame Wickersham galloped 83 yards and Higgins skirted right end for the extra point to give the Solomon club a 19-0 halftime lead.

In the third frame Higgins broke loose for 21 yards and a touchdown and the visitors were in front 25-0 at the end of three frames. In the fourth frame Mike Johnson heaved a 10 yard aerial to Morris Rasher. When trapped Rasher tossed back to Dick Harrington and he scampered 50 more yards for a fifth Solomon tally. The final came minutes later when Jack Lightner recovered a Cadet fumble in the end zone. Wayne Lamer added the extra point.

The game closed St. John's home schedule this season.
