Bishop Davidson Consecrated In Ceremonies, Jan. 6

The Rt. Rev. William Davidson was consecrated as the sixth bishop of the Episcopal Missionary District of Western Kansas in ceremonies, Jan. 6 in Salina. The Consecration Service was held in the Fine Arts Auditorium at Marymount College with the Rt. Rev. John Hines, Presiding Bishop of Protestant Episcopal Church in America, officiating.

A luncheon was given in honor of Bishop Davidson and visiting dignitaries in the 4-H Building. The Installation and Enthronement of the new Bishop in Christ Episcopal Cathedral was held at 3:30 p.m. the same day.

A reception, hosted jointly by St. Francis Boys Homes and St. John's Military School, followed the ceremony in the Christ Cathedral Parish House.

As Bishop of the District, Bishop Davidson will serve as President Ex-Officio of the St. John's Board of Trustees.

The 46-year old clergyman was rector of Grace Church in Jamestown N. D. before accepting election as Bishop of the District.

Bishop Davidson succeeds the Rt. Rev. Arnold M. Lewis, who resigned the post to become Bishop for the Armed Forces in Europe. Bishop Lewis was in Salina to attend the ceremonies for the new Bishop.

Bishop and Mrs. Davidson live at 1004 Manor Road, Salina and are the parents of four children, Bob, 13; Carol, 21; George, 15 and Tom, 19.

CHAPLAIN ATTENDS MEETING

The Rev. Donald Overton, School Chaplain, attended the Kansas Council of Churches Consultation on College Ministry at the Wesley Foundation, Washburn University, Topeka, Jan. 14 and 15.

Music, Art To Be Features Of Lower School K.C. Trip

A cultural field trip to Kansas City, Mo., for a selected group of Lower School Cadets is being planned for Feb. 3 and 4.

Arrangements are being made by Mr. and Mrs. John M. Phillips, parents of eighth grade Cadet Daniel Phillips, and Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Shopen, parents of eighth grade Cadet Kenneth Shopen.

The Lower School Cadets will attend a special concert for young people presented by the Kansas City Philharmonic orchestra. They will visit the Nelson Art Gallery.

A tour of the Truman Library in Independence, Mo. is also scheduled. The Cadets will be greeted by former President of the United States Harry S. Truman if he is physically able.

The Cadets will stay in the homes of parishioners of St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Kansas City, Mo. Two special dinners are being planned while the group is in the city.

The group will leave early the morning of Thursday, Feb. 3 by chartered bus and will return late in the evening, Friday, Feb. 4.

The thirty Cadets, making the trip, will be selected by the Lower School faculty on the basis of merit and performance. Faculty officers will accompany the group.

11 New Boys Join Cadet Corps

Eleven new Cadets joined the Corps of Cadets at the beginning of the second semester, according to Capt. Scott Haviland, Director of Admissions.

Drum & Bugle Corps Set For Mardi Gras Parades

Plans for the St. John's Drum and Bugle Corps appearance in the Mardi Gras parades in New Orleans, Feb. 16-19 are being finalized. Appearing with the St. John's group will be members of the Salina Optimist Drum and Bugle Corps.

The two groups will leave Salina at 3 p.m. Tuesday, Feb. 15 aboard a chartered bus and will arrive in New Orleans at 4 p.m. on Feb. 16. The members will be staying at the Jung Hotel in New Orleans.

The Cadets and members of the Optimist group will take a bus tour of New Orleans on Feb. 17.

The Corps will appear in parades at 6 p.m., Friday, Feb. 18 and again at 11 a.m. on Saturday, Feb. 19.

The bus will leave for the return trip at 5:30 p.m. on Saturday, Feb. 19 and will arrive in Salina on Feb. 20.

Capt. Jim Bell, Drum Instructor, said it is hoped that arrangements can be made for the boys to hear Al Hurt and his band who will be appearing in New Orleans that week.

Making the trip for St. John's will be Rod Aden, Tim Cornelius, Franz Stangl, David Cowie, Lynn Pennington, Bill Bryant, Robert DeVal, Joe Miller, Pat Alward, Richard Holmes, John Reed, Ted Thompson, Kirk Weilepp, William Wilkins, Daryl Hampton, Tom Sadler, Bill Butler, Charles Peacock, Herschel Cook, John Stobbelaar, and Robert Wainwright.

Trustees To Be Honored At Dinner

Past members of the St. John's Military School Board of Trustees and their wives will be honored at a dinner in Nichols Dining Hall, Friday, Feb. 18. Hosting the annual event will be present Board members and their ladies.

The dinner will be held in connection with the usual February meeting of the St. John's Board.

Invited to speak at the dinner is the new President Ex-Officio of the Board, the Rt. Rev. William Davidson, Bishop of the Episcopal Missionary District of Western Kansas.

A buffet dinner will be prepared by the School's chef, Frank Moomau, Mrs. Moomau and the kitchen staff. The Corps of Cadets, faculty and staff members and their wives will also attend.

The dinner, honoring the work done by the Trustees over the years, was started several years ago. About 80 trustees, former trustees and their wives are expected to attend.

The Board will hold its meeting at 4 p.m. in the Conference Room preceding the dinner.

KWU Students To Observe SJMS Classes

Student teachers from Kansas Wesleyan University, Salina, will observe classes and do part-time practice teaching at St. John's Military School during the second semester.

Arrangements were made by LCDR. H. E. Nuss, Director of Studies, and Dr. Albert Nelson, KWU Professor of Education.

Three or four students will teach and observe in the departments of foreign language, science, mathematics and health and physical education.

Long-Range Development Plan Started

A long-range planning program for the Development of St. John's Military School is in the beginning stages according to Lt. Col. Keith G. Duckers, Assistant Superintendent.

Working on the future plans for the school with Colonel Duckers, are Mrs. John Fonck, Director of Development, and one or two members of the School's Board of Trustees.

In connection with the planning, Mrs. Fonck and Colonel Duckers will attend a Long-Range Planning Seminary sponsored by the Independent School's Association of the Central States at Cranbrook School Detroit, Mich., March 31 and April 1 and 2.

Trustees' Request Given UR Agency

The Salina Urban Renewal Agency has received a request from the St. John's Military School Board of Trustees to consider the area adjacent to the school as a possible Urban Renewal project.

The area, which could be used for expansion, is being considered in connection with the long range program planning of the school.

NHS SPONSORS MOVIES

The National Honor Society is sponsoring Sunday afternoon movies again this year. The movies are shown at 2 p.m. in Armstrong Chapel. Shown thus far have been "Bye Bye Birdie" and "Anatomy of a Murder." The movies will be continued during the second semester.

Parsons' Day A New Event For Cadets

The Clergyman from each Cadet's hometown church has been invited to the first Parsons' Day at St. John's Military School. The visit will be made Wednesday, Feb. 8.

An invitation to the day's activities has been mailed from the School. Cadets have also written inviting the clergymen to attend. Approximately 250 invitations have been issued including invitations to members of the Salina Ministerial Association.

The day will begin with a reception and coffee in the Rectory at 8 a.m. The ministers will visit classes during the second class period.

A tour of the campus and observation of the School's routine will follow. A pastor-faculty panel discussion has been scheduled after the tour.

The clergy will eat lunch in Nichols Dining Hall and will then visit rooms in Griswold, Mize, and Sage Halls, the School's barracks.

An All-Faiths Service will be at 1:40 p.m. in Armstrong Memorial Chapel.

A critique has been set for the pastors and faculty at 2:40 p.m.

Each Cadet will have an opportunity for a short personal chat with his clergyman during the day.

Guest passes will be issued at 4 p.m., allowing Cadets to leave the territory with their pastors if they wish.

The days was instituted so that Cadets will not lose their spiritual ties with their home churches; and so that the churches will not lose touch with the Cadets while they are gone from their home parishes.

Bill Fair Wins District Event

William C. Fair, St. John's Military School Junior Cadet, was the winner in the district contest in the Voice of Democracy Contest sponsored by the Veterans of Foreign Wars. The three participants in the Salina city contest were all sent to the district meet because of the superiority of all the presentations.

The speech topic is "Democracy—What It Means To Me."

Fair is now eligible for the state contest.

A Boy's "Bill of Rights"

1. Like everybody else, a boy has a right to the pursuit of happiness.
2. He has a right to play so that he may stretch his imagination to prove his prowess and skill.
3. He has a right to the constructive joys of adventure and the thrills that are a part of an open life.
4. He has a right to affection and friendship.
5. He has a right to the sense of security in belonging to some group.
6. He has a right to health protections that will make him an inch taller than his dad.
7. He has a right to the education and training that will amplify his own natural bents and fit him into a job.
8. And I would add another right—the right to accept the obligations of citizenship in a democracy—perhaps the greatest right a boy, or anyone else, can have.

Library Books Given Honoring Gene Roberson

A group of 16 biographies have been given the Clem Library by the St. John's Military School Foundation in the name of Gene V. Roberson, Class of '65.

The Foundation gives $50 toward the purchase of library books in the name of the senior, excluding commissioned officers, who has the best combined ratings for characteristics other than academic during the school year. All the books purchased have been biographies.

Former Cadets honored are Elias Majdalani, '62; Charles Thomas Jr., '63; Timothy Tauzer, '64 and Roberson, '65.

Biographies of Hans Christian Andersen, Sir Winston Churchill, Sir Francis Drake, Albert Einstein, Henry Ford, Gandhi, Lawrence of Arabia, David Livingston, Napoleon, Lord Nelson Cecil Rhodes, Albert Schweitzer, Captain Scott and Queen Victoria were added to the shelves in Roberson's honor.

Woodall Receives Scout Award

Jeff Woodall was presented with the Boy Scouts' God and Country Award during the Service of Holy Communion on the Feast of the Epiphany, Jan. 6, in Armstrong Memorial Chapel.

The award is given for knowledge of church work and service to the church over a period of one year. The requirement schedule is set up in three stages each of which has the following parts—study, worship, fellowship and service.

Class Reunions Scheduled For Commencement

Plans are already being made for the Class reunions during Commencement activities at St. John's Military School, May 20-22, according to Mrs. John H. Fonck, Director of Development.

Honor classes will be the "old boys" graduating in the years of 1961, 1956, 1946, 1936, 1926, 1916, 1906 or prior to 1900. Mrs. Fonck is urging former Cadets to write their buddies and make plans to meet at the school for the activities. Addresses are available from the alumni office.

Mrs. Fonck said, "Last year was the beginning our traditional alumni scheduled activities and we hope that each year we can count on more of the 'old boys' returning."

Special events planned for the alums are a dinner and the final retreat parade given in honor of and reviewed by the visiting alumni.

Cadets' B-Ball Record For Season, 2-3

The Notre Dame Crusaders, of Concordia, outgunned St. John's to win a 73-44 victory at Concordia, Jan. 11. It was the Cadets first game following the Christmas recess.

The Cadets, who out-rebounded the Notre Dame club 36-24, had trouble with the full-court press and lost the ball numerous times on turnovers.

For the game, Notre Dame hit 32 of 78 shots for 41 percent while the Cadets poked in 16 of 53 for 30 percent.

The Notre Dame coach said, "The Cadets were the best rebounding team — for three-quarters of the game — we've faced this year."

Frank Reynolds, 6-2 junior, dropped in 12 points to pace the Cadets. Franz Stangl scored 10 for St. John's.
