Christmas Furlough Draws Near

16 - Day Furlough Begins December 17

St. John's Military School Cadets will scatter in many directions as Christmas furlough begins at 10:30 a.m., Friday, Dec. 17. The 205 Cadets will leave Salina via many modes of transportation as they leave for a two-week holiday with parents and friends.

Again this year a special bus will be provided for Cadets living west of Salina. A special Continental Trailways bus, or buses, will leave Salina at 11 a.m. for Cadets going to Denver, Colorado Springs, Pueblo and intermediate points on the route the bus will take. From Salina the bus will go to Stockton and Phillipsburg and will follow U.S. 36 to Denver. The estimated time of arrival in Denver will be 6 p.m.

The bus will leave Denver for Salina at 10 a.m., Sunday, Jan. 2 for the return trip. One-way or round-trip tickets on the special bus must be purchased through the school.

Maj. Jack McCandless, Commandant, will accompany the Cadets to and from Denver.

Col. R. L. Clem, Rector and Superintendent, said Cadets may leave any time their parents request, but they will be given a zero for each class missed prior to the official start of furlough. An exception is made for Cadets taking buses to Albuquerque.

Cadets are not permitted to remain at the school after midnight on Friday, Dec. 17, nor to return before Sunday, Jan. 2.

Furlough passes are to be returned by Dec. 13. Cadets must have these passes to sign out for furlough.

Denver Beauties Reign At Thanksgiving Dance

Cindy Chadwick of Denver, Colo., was crowned "Miss Sound-off" at the intermission of the Thanksgiving Military Ball. The 17-year old beauty was escorted by Mike Sala.

Debbie Harris of Denver was crowned "Miss Junior Sound-Off." She was escorted by Ed Polumbo. Her attendants were Toni Brezinski, Manhattan, Ks., escorted by Gloyd Johnson; Tana Loewenstern, Amarillo, Texas, escorted by Phil Coblenz and Suzi Downey, Denver.

SJMS Landmark To Soon Be Gone

Demolition of the old junior school building at St. John's Military School began Monday, Nov. 15.

Busboom and Rauh holds the razing contract for a bid of $4200. The firm built the new Lower School building, Mize Hall, which was occupied Oct. 21.

Built in 1909, the old building was opened in October, 1910, as the Episcopal St. Barnabas Hospital.

In 1921, it was transferred to the military school for use as barracks.

Salvageable materials will remain the property of the school.

Bids for the razing were opened Nov. 10 by the Salina members of the Board of Trustees. The building was a brick and stone structure.

Attendants to "Miss Sound-Off" were Patricia Deerman, Deming, N.M., escorted by Brad King, and Cindy Turner, Wichita, escorted by Skip Kendrick.

Other contestants were Jill Carr, Salina, escorted by Mike Mullen; Susan Engwall, Salina, escorted by Chris Houghton; Claudia Chambers, Salina, escorted by Bill Butler; Dyan Hensley, Salina escorted by Bob Whiston; Judy Abbott, Salina, escorted by Bob Hurt; Pat Hurt Denver, escorted by Ted Holman; Glenna Long, Salina, escorted by Woody Crandall; Sara Donahue, Denver, escorted by Tom Clark; Sheila Harris, Ellsworth, escorted by Franz Stangl and Roberta Armstrong, Wichita, escorted by Terry Trent.

Fair Wins Speech Contest

Bill Fair was the winner of the Voice of Democracy contest, sponsored by the Veterans of Foreign Wars, at St. John's Military School. He was entered in the district contest.

The speech topic is "What Democracy Means to Me." The contest was a special project of the speech class.

Others participating were David Mutrux, John Jensen, Bob Sprinkle, John Wyatt, Bill Bertholf, Don Hummel, Mike Heard, Paul Illman, Woody Crandall, Kenneth Matlock, Mark Strange, Ted Holman, John Stobbelaar and Nick Dorrell.

Consecration of Bishop Set For Jan. 6

The Consecration of the Rev. William Davidson as Bishop of the Missionary District of Western Kansas is now set for Jan. 6 in the Fine Art Auditorium at Marymount College. Fr. Davidson will serve as the president ex-officio of the St. John's Military School Board of Trustees following his consecration.

The service will be at 10 a.m. to be followed by a lunch in the 4-H Building. The installation, or enthronement, of the new Bishop will be at Christ Episcopal Cathedral that afternoon, probably at 3:30 or 4 p.m.

Turkey Dinners Eaten by 750

Turkey dinners were served to approximately 750 people at the traditional dinner in the 4-H building on Thanksgiving Day. The dinner was prepared and served by the St. John's Chef Frank Moomau, and his staff.

The dinner followed the Service of Thanksgiving in Christ Episcopal Cathedral. Preaching at the service was the Rev. Dr. Clarence J. Forsberg, St. Paul's Methodist Church, Lincoln, Neb. He preached on the theme that the strong must help bear the burdens of the weak.

Lay participants in the service were Lt. Col. Keith G. Duckers, Lt. Col. Russell L. Guernsey and Lt. Richard Edington.

Flag bearers were Tim Soule, John A. Reed jr., and Chris Houghton. Jeff Woodall and Stephen Work were the acolytes.

MINISTERS TO VISIT

The Salina Ministerial Association will be guests of St. John's Military School at breakfast on Jan. 10. The association will hold its monthly meeting following breakfast in the Clem Library.

The program will be presented by Col. R. L. Clem, Rector and Superintendent.

TO SING IN MESSIAH

Mike Stone will sing with the Salina Oratorio Society when it presents Handel's "Messiah" during the Christmas season Dec. 12.

MIZE HALL . . new home of the Lower School Cadets and faculty

Mize Hall Dedicated; 293 Attend Open House

"O Lord, protect this house," prayed the officiating bishop at the dedication of Mize Hall at St. John's Military School, Nov. 24.

A group of 293 persons had signed the guest register during the open house at the new Lower School barracks during the afternoon.

Many remained to line the sidewalks and hall corridors for the dedication ceremony.

The Rt. Rev. Edward C. Turner, Bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Kansas, presided as acting president of the St. John's Board of Trustees.

He is the interim overseer of the Episcopal Missionary District of Western Kansas, which includes the Salina area.

Bishop Turner and the audience participated in a traveling ceremony that stopped at the cornerstone, entrance hall and a representative Cadet's room and faculty quarters.

The Bishop's prayers were that the 88-Cadet dormitory "further Christ's work," that the Cadets "be led into the ways of Thy law and . . . knowledge of Thy wisdom," and that the faculty "serve the children . . . with constant zeal and Christian love."

Assisting the Bishop were Col. R. L. Clem, St. John's Rector and Superintendent, and the Rev. Donald E. Overton, School Chaplain.

Cadets participating in the ceremony were Jeffrey Woodall, crucifer; Kenneth Miller and John Sowers, torch bearers, the color guard, and class representatives - Gary Fryar, grade 5; David Reed, 6; David Loewenstern, 7; Lawrence Jordan, 8, and Henry Polumbo, 9.

Immediately after the ceremony ended, workmen returned to demolition of the old junior school building just behind the new $250,000 structure.

Mize Hall was begun with a groundbreaking ceremony during the 1964 Thanksgiving activities. It was occupied Oct. 21.

Parents of St. John's Cadets and other relatives and friends were here for the open house and for other events during the two-day Thanksgiving observance.

Cadets Guests In Salina Homes

Salina homes were opened to St. John's Cadets on Sunday, Dec. 5. About 100 boys were guests in homes for Sunday dinner and an afternoon visit.

Arrangements were made through the Salina churches. Churches participating were the Methodist, Presbyterian, Christian, Episcopal, and Baptist Churches, St. John's and Trinity Lutheran Churches and the Roman Catholic Church.

The program was started last year and it is hoped it will be continued in future years.

Kemper School Admissions Man Visits SJMS

Capt. John Gould, Director of Admissions at Kemper Military School, Boonville, Mo., and Mrs. Gould were visitors to the campus Dec. 1 and 2.

Capt. Gould met with the seniors to explain the Junior College program at the Missouri Military School, following a chicken dinner at the Brookville Hotel.

ATTEND PLAY

Three members of the National Honor Society and Mrs. A. Y. Hardy, Society sponsor, attended the Salina Community Theater's production of the play "Mary, Mary" by Jean Kerr, Nov. 9.

The Chaplain's Message

One of the sentences I hear most from the lips of people of all ages is "no one appreciates me." This cry for recognition means many people are hungry for some understanding or attention; but most of the time it means simply that they would like a warm appreciative response to kindness—Gratitude!

The mere fact that a person's work requires him to be of service, does not mean that we can forget that he is a person first and a worker, second. People in public services are generally more kind and helpful than most realize. This kindness is shown to us by their attitudes. Yes—we sometimes get the "stinker or crank". But usually someone down the line before us has forgotten to give an appropriate response to the service rendered. And the way we receive service is many times based on the way we request it.

At home, in school, and around the barracks our lives are inter-connected. None of us are totally givers of service or totally takers of service. The staff, faculty and support personnel exist to be of service to the students. Yet without the generous appreciation of our efforts that was expressed by so many parents in Thanksgiving conferences, no amount of money could purchase the interest; the deep concern that we all share for our young men.

Truly South's words, "Look over the whole creation and you shall see that the bond or cement that holds together all the parts of this great and glorious fabric is gratitude," is so appropriate to this season of the year.

How gracious God has been to us. Our best response to Him for sending His Son into the world is that true sense of thankfulness. If we are thankful to God for His great and many mercies, I believe that we can be thankful for the work, gifts, and services that are rendered to us by all of God's creatures.

At St. John's our staff, faculty and support personnel relationships can be tied closer together by the common daily courtesies. We all need to be reminded that "Please" and "Thank you" are still the two nicest words. They are like oil. They make the tasks easier started and faster finished. Cadets need to be reminded that they form the two essential words in human relations. The best way for us to teach is to do!

Please and thank you!

... The Rev. Donald Overton
School Chaplain

Hampton Again Heads Honor Roll

Daryl Hampton again headed the Rector's Honor Roll at the end of the second grading period. Others named to the roll were James Bostwick, Stephen Work, Franz Stangl, Ronald Ford, Kenneth Matlock, Douglas Harwood and Kirk Weillepp.

Receiving honorable mention were Michael Sala, Theodore Holman, Charles Briggs, John Reed, Ronald Robacker, Paul Illman, Lynn Pennington, Tommy Bunnell, Robert Hurt, Michael Marr, Robin Blake, and Tim Soule.

Receiving honorable mention in the Lower School were Jimmy Armstrong, Richard Barclay, Gary Fryar, John Sowers, Dan Phillips, Drew Adams, David Loewenstern, Kenneth Miller, Gloyd Johnson, Michael Moore and John Pugh.

Topeka Man Heads SJMS Foundation

C. Ed Weillepp, Topeka, was elected president of the St. John's Military School Foundation at its fall meeting, Nov. 25. The meeting followed a breakfast attended by 150 parents and friends at the Ramada Inn.

Mr. Weillepp succeeds Dr. J. R. Spencer, Denver, as president.

Other officers are Frank Tallman, Pueblo, Colo., vice president, and Mrs. John Fonck, Salina, secretary-treasurer.

Newly-elected directors are Dr. J. G. Ballentine, Chillicothe, Mo.; P. T. Pull and Dr. T. O. Clark, Denver; W. E. Coblenz, Aurora, Neb.; P. E. Illman jr., Prairie Village, Kans.; K. L. Jenkins, Mullen, Neb.; Mrs. Robert Armstrong and Mrs. Perry Petterson, Wichita. Dr. Clarence J. Forsberg, Lincoln, Neb., was appointed to the board to fill a vacancy.

Dr. Spencer announced that the Foundation had paid its second $15,000 pledge to the Mize Hall building fund. The Foundation has donated $30,000 to the fund drive.

The board was instructed to look into the cost of air conditioning Nichols Dining Hall. The board at an executive session voted to purchase card tables and chairs for the three Day Rooms in Griswold Hall.

The parents were welcomed to Salina by Robert M. Stark, Mayor of Salina. Also expressing a word of welcome was W. W. Yost, Vice President of the Salina Chamber of Commerce. Carnations were presented to the mothers by the Salina Chamber.

Varied Activities Planned For Vacation

A tonsillectomy, skiing, eating and lots of sleeping are being planned by the St. John's Cadets as they head home for the two-week Christmas furlough.

In informal interviews the following Cadets made these comments:

Chris Houghton, Dugway, Utah, . . . "I'm going home to see friends, go to basketball games and dances. I'll have to get the car first."

Oscar Olivo, Caracas, Venezuela . . . "My brother, Carlos, and I are going to Venezuela. I'll probably go to the beach, attend some parties and loaf."

Stevie Stevens, Murfreesboro, Ark., . . . "I'm going to spend a lot of time in the woods." (Hunting we presume.)

David Mutrux, St. Louis Mo. . . . "I'm going to work in the family's restaurant, The Three Fountains. We've been remodeling the kitchen."

Randy Schuyler, Aberdeen, S.D. . . . "just bum around."

Gary Casey, Mission, Kans. . . . "Most of the time, I think I'll sleep. I'm kind of tired. I'll open packages and talk to my family."

Bill Wilkins, New Madrid, Mo. . . . "I don't know what I'll do. We may go to St. Louis."

Bob Taylor, Albuquerque N. M. "I'll get some flying time in. . . . Probably go skiing at Sandia Peak."

Rod Horton, Denver . . . "We're going skiing at Aspen."

Bill Hamerman, Detroit, Mich. . . . "I'm going to Detroit to visit my father. I'll probably work some for him and just lay around."

Steve Brown, Tripoli, Libya My brother, Barry, is going to visit a girl friend in Ohio and I'll visit my sister in Eureka, Kan."

Tom Dickson Denver "Nothing."

Robin Blake, Boulder, Colo. . . . "We'll go skiing probably at Vail or Aspen. I'll have to earn money to go."

Bill Fair, Bartlesville Okla. . . . "I'd hate to say. I just want to relax and goof around."

Bill Goddard, Omaha, Neb. . . "Get in the car and go."

Jack Conrad, Denver "I'll go skiing, probably at winter Park and Aspen. I'll play in a combo in Denver and make some money."

John Shelman, Stanley, Kan. . . . "Un-lax. I'm going to fly quite a bit and eat, drink and be merry."

Grover Verity, Oklahoma City, Okla. . . "I'll do the same thing I usually do . . . nothing."

Don Hummel, Northville, Mich. . . . "I'm having my tonsils removed."

Mark Strange, Denver Colo. . . . "Going to have fun."

Cadets Edged 45-42 In Season Opener

The Brookville Cardinals outlasted a late attack by the St. John's Cadets and went on to win a 45-52 opener at Brookville Dec. 3.

The Cardinals held a 12-point lead after three quarters, 40-28, but the Cadets came back to outpoint the home team in the final stanza, 14-5.

Coach Dean Kindlesparger's Cadets moved to within one point, 43-42, with five seconds left when a foul sent a Brookville man to the charity line. He pumped in both free throws to give Brookville a 3-point lead with four seconds left.

A final Cadet shot at the ring missed.

Champlin sparked the Cardinals with 18 points, eight of them from the free-throw line.

Frank Reynolds, Cadet forward, led St. John's with 15 points. Franz Stangl followed with 11 and Jim Finnell with 9.

St. John's fell behind in the second quarter after managing to gain a one-point advantage at the end of the first period. The Cadets led 11-10 but the Cardinals moved out front 19-13.

St. John's came back with eight points but Brookville took a 29-19 lead to the dressing room at halftime.

St. John's defense pressed the Cardinals over the full court in the first half but let up in the second half with the Cadets employing a switching defense.

The second half started slowly as St. John's narrowed the score to 32-25 with five minutes remaining in the third frame.

The Cardinals' 12-point lead at the end of the third period was narrowed to a 4-point advantage with 3:09 remaining in the game as the Cadets rebounded at one point with 10 straight tallies.

Fouls presented a problem for both teams in the late stages. The Cadets lost starting center John Conrad.

In the preliminary, the young Redbirds outpointed the Cadets 39-20.

The Cadets opened their home season Tuesday when they met the Kanapolis Bulldogs at 8:30 p.m. B-teams played at 7 p.m.
