Former U.S. President Greets Junior Cadets

.... On K. C. Trip

Meeting a former President of the United States was one of the high points of the two day cultural sight-seeing trip to Kansas City for 30 Lower School Cadets.

Harry S. Truman was on hand to greet the Cadets as they arrived at the Truman Library in Independence, Mo., on Feb. 4. The Cadets had their pictures taken with the former chief executive.

Upon their arrival in Kansas City on Feb. 3, the Cadets toured the Nelson Art Gallery and then attended a special children's concert presented by the Kansas City Philharmonic at the Music Hall.

The Cadets attracted quite a lot of attention as this was the longest distance, 250 miles, that a group of students had come to attend a Philharmonic Children's Concert.

An unscheduled attraction was a visit to the Boat Show in the Municipal Auditorium. The Cadets were guests at a special dinner on the evening of Feb. 3.

The Cadets, in groups of twos and fours, spent the night in the homes of leading Kansas Citizens.

Those housing Cadets were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Dick, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Nichols Jr., Mrs. Victor Schutte, Judge and Mrs. Keith P. Bondurant Dr. and Mrs. Clifford E. Barry Nobes, Dr. and Mrs. Blaine Z. Hibbard, Mrs. Russell Stover, Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Shopen, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Sprinkle Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. John M. Phillips.

Arrangements for the trip and concert were made by Mr. and Mrs. Phillips and Mr. and Mrs. Shopen. Mr. Phillips, father of eighth grade Cadet Dan Phillips, is president of the Philharmonic Association.

After the tour of the Truman Library, the Cadets boarded the bus for the return trip to Salina.

Cadets making the trip were selected on the basis of merit and performance. Attending were Drew Adams, Roby Anderson, Bob Barth, Steve Bird, Peter Blaney, Glen Bouse, Neil Brescia, Marc Cartier, Grady Coker, Gary Fryar, Mike Gilmore, John Hargrove, Larry Jordan, Ernest Lowe, Duncan MacIvor, Andy McClure, Bill McKelvy, Britt Miller, Ken Miller, Mike Moore, Elmer Pearce, Dan Phillips, David Reed, Scott Seckman, Ken Shopen, Sam Templin, Bill Walz, Gary Woodside, Rick Wright, Steve Yost and Jim Bostwick, Upper School counselor in the Lower School.

Lt. Col. Paul H. Kellogg

Accompanying the group were Capt. Scott Haviland, Director of Admissions; Capt. Bruce Cummings, Lower School Director, and Mrs. Cummings.

Lt. Col. Paul H. Kellogg Is New Commandant

Lt. Col. Paul H. Kellogg, a social science instructor at St. John's Military School for two years, will become Commandant beginning next September according to Col. R. L. Clem, Rector and Superintendent.

He will replace Maj. Jack McCandless, who took the position two years ago when the school suddenly found itself without a commandant. Major McCandless will continue working at the school in another capacity, Colonel Clem said.

Colonel Kellogg was graduated from Bloomsburg State College in 1960 with a B.S. degree in education. He retired in June of 1964 after 23 years continuous active service as a commissioned officer in the U.S. Marine Corps. A major part of his professional military career was devoted to the instruction, training and guidance of young men.

Colonel Kellogg and his wife, Mary, live at 231 Seitz Dr. in Salina and are the parents of three sons — Paul Jr., a senior at Alabama College, Montevallo, Ala.; Peter, a senior at Florida State College, Tallahassee, Fla., and Philip, a freshman at North Junior High School in Salina.

Colonel Kellogg was commissioned a second lieutenant in the USMC in 1942 after finishing Naval Aviation Cadet training. He served as a dive bomber pilot in the Guadalcanal campaign where he was wounded during World War II.

During his long Marine career, Colonel Kellogg has served as a flight instructor, executive officer of a training squadron, and commanding officer of a Naval Aviation Cadet Battalion. He served in the Korean conflict as a pilot in a Fighter Bomber aircraft. He holds numerous citations.

His last duty station before coming to St. John's School was at Cherry Point, N. C., where he was the executive officer of the Marine Base there.

In accepting the position, Colonel Kellogg said that he hoped he would be able to improve on an already excellent barracks and military program.

Honor Rating the Goal ....

NDCC Inspection Scheduled for April 1

The date for the annual formal inspection under the National Defense Cadet Corps program has been set for Friday, April 1. St. John's Military School has earned an "honor school" rating as a result of the inspection every year it has been in the program.

Lt. Col. Tim Soule, Cadet Commanding Officer, and his staff are again shooting for that top honor.

The inspector general will be Maj. H. Dubois, Professor of Military Science in the Omaha, Neb., high schools. He was also last year's inspector.

The five stages to be covered are general data; military detachment; training; Cadet Corps and activities, and institutional support.

Facilities will be inspected. Records will be checked. To be checked will be the maintenance of stored equipment, general appearance of the armory and the care of weapons and other equipment.

A more complete schedule of the day's activities will be announced later.

No classes are held during inspection day.

Clergymen Visit SJMS On Parsons' Day

Clergymen came from three states Feb. 9 to visit Cadets from their churches who are attending St. John's Military School.

It was "Parson's Day", a program planned as an annual series. Co-chairmen of the event were Capt. Scott Haviland, Director of Admissions, and the Rev. Donald Overton, Chaplain.

Fifteen ministers attended classes, visited in the barracks, toured the campus, conferred with faculty and participated in an "All-Faiths" service.

Chaplain Overton said the school appreciated the pastor's interests and hoped that more will be able to come in other years. Weather and crowded schedules were given as reasons for the small attendance.

Several denominations were represented. The ministers came from Denver, Colo.; Kansas City, Mo.; Wichita, Ottawa, Cheney and Eureka, plus Salina.

Cadet Cagers End Season With Five Wins, Seven Lost

St. Teresa of Hutchinson ended the regular season for the St. John's Military School Cadets on a sour note as they handed them a 67-58 defeat on Feb. 11. The Cadets ended the season with a five-won, seven-lost record.

The Cadet Cagers will rest for a few weeks until the Class A regional tournament in Abilene in March.

St. John's—58 St. Teresa—67
The Cadets trailed at every third period with a 14 point scoring spurt to cut the Celtic rest stop but came back in the lead to one.

Ben Poxson and Jack Conrad, both seniors, closed out their senior years at St. John's, with impressive offensive showings. Poxson tallied 16 and Conrad came up with 15.

The game continued at a fast clip in the third stanza with the Cadets outscoring the Cards 21-18 and holding a 57-39 advantage.

St. John's got double-figure scoring from four players. Ben Poxson got 20 with Jack Conrad following with 17. Jim Finnell scored 14 and Franz Stangel, 10.
