All School Carnival Was A Great Success

A successful All-School Carnival was held in the School gymnasium on Saturday night, Jan. 25.

The games, ranging from a penny-pitch to cake walks, held the Cadets' attention and interest from 7 to 10 p. m.

The annual project was sponsored this year by the National Honor Society. Mrs. John Weckel and Capt. Larry Dwyer are the Society's advisers. The Cadet chairman for the event was Jimmy Lee Armstrong.

One of the busiest spots during the evening was the bingo stand. Profits from this venture are shared by all Clubs and organizations at the School. The prizes which included lamps, cameras, socks and gift certificates were donated by Salina merchants.

The other booths were sponsored by the individual clubs and organizations.

Lennon Ramsey was the winner of the clock radio in the Crack Platoon raffle.

F/Sgt. Benjamin Titus was crowned 'Mr. SJMS for 1969' following an election conducted by the Publications Staff. Sergeant Titus received his crown, a dunce cap, and a $5 gift certificate from a local men's store at noon mess, Monday, Jan. 27. Sgt. Michael Torpey and Lt. Robert Stevens were recognized as the runner-up winners.

In a pie throw, sponsored by the Radio Club, Sergeant Titus and Col. Keith G. Duckers were among the prize targets. The St. John's Superintendent earned $10 for the club as Cadets purchased the chance to toss a shaving cream pie.

Prizes remaining from the carnival were given as door prizes in Nichols Dining Hall during the week of Jan. 27-Feb. 2. Winners were Cadets whose names were drawn from a fish bowl.

Each Cadet was allowed to sign a voucher up to $5 from their incidental account which was converted into tickets. The games cost from a penny to 25 cents. Proceeds will be used for the various club projects.

Sandburg Life To Be Given In A Drama

"The World of Carl Sandburg" by Norman Corwin will be presented in the School gym on Thursday, Feb. 13, by the Alpha-Omega Players from North Hollywood, Calif.

This unique drama tells how Carl Sandburg looked at life through his full and rich 89 years from childhood to quiet repose in July 1967.

The Players present three new actors to the American scene, Clyde M. Phillips, Bob Masterson, and Mary Ann Stafford. They will present the raw honesty of Sandburg as he looks at his world of vivid people, challenging cities, and the wide panorama of rural America. Sandburg looks at the world critically but never cruelly. Corwin has made his selections for this play from a full library of the writings of Sandburg to tell a life story from birth to death.

Arrangements for the performance have been made by the Rev. Richard Feallock, School Chaplain.

SJ "Old Boy" Speaks To Salina J. C.'s

Sameul T. Ishmael, Class of 1949, was a recent visitor to St. John's Military School. Ishmael was in Salina to address the annual meeting of the Junior Chamber of Commerce. He had lunch with the 81st Corps of Cadets and spoke briefly about his Cadet days. He is now the general legal counsel for the U. S. Jaycees.

Ishmael said that in addition to the important academic training, boys living at a military school learn to live with others and learn leadership earlier than those attending public schools.

A former Wyoming city attorney, Ishmael has joined the Citizens for Justice with Order, a new group which hopes to involve millions of Americans in the war on crime. Ishmael will be a full-time aide to the citizen's group, which has received about 10,000 letters since comedian Bob Hope kicked off its campaign.

A Chili Supper and a Talent Contest for the Cadets in the 81st Corps were held Wednesday, Jan. 29, in the Spencer Cadet Center.

Discussion Conference Set for Youth Leaders

.. To Be March 2

A Discussion Conference with Youth Leaders is being planned for March 2-4 according to the Rev. Richard Feallock, School Chaplain. The conference is an extension of Pastors' Days held previously at the School.

Invitations have been sent to 800 members of the clergy, youth leaders from the Cadets' home communities and clergy groups from surrounding areas.

A core group of nine Cadets are helping with plans and preparations and will serve as leaders of the small discussion groups. The discussion groups will include Cadets, a member of the faculty or staff, five guests and a participant from the Salina community.

Fr. Feallock said the two purposes of the conferences will be to allow youth workers to encounter direct discussion with teenagers and then to learn ways of responding to them.

Registration will begin during the late afternoon of Sunday, March 2. During the next two days the participants will attend classroom discussions, tour the School campus and community, and participate in small discussion groups. The visitors will eat meals with the Cadets in Nichols Dining Hall. The conference will end at 2 p. m., Tuesday, March 4. More details and the conference schedule will appear in the next issue of "The Skirmisher". Mr. Merle Raber, a specialist in group work, Newton, will assist the Cadets in the conference planning at a meeting Feb. 6.

Cadets To Be Tested

All Cadets in the 81st Corps will be taking standardized achievement tests during an All-Day program Feb. 18. The seniors will take the Kansas High School Comprehensive test. The juniors will take the qualifying tests for the National Merit Scholarship program. The Cadets in the seventh through tenth grades will take the National Educational Development tests.

Three New Cagers Join Ball Team

The Cadet cagers opened second semester play, Jan. 21, with three new players, but went down to the Durham quintet, 84-49.

Durham, the strongest team the Cadets will meet this year in regular play, were trailing by the end of the first quarter, 20-16, but a full court press turned the Cadets' fingers to ice in the second quarter. They could only score 12 points while Durham pumped in 30. From then on, it was Durham all the way.

Three Cadets could not play last semester because of ineligibility. Dwight Bruening opened his season's play against Longford on Jan. 17. But his 13 points along with Bill Harrington's 13 points could not pull the Cadets to victory. The rest of the team could only muster eight points.

In the Durham game, Joe Price and Tim Butterfield joined the Cadets as starters. Price led the scoring for the Cadets with 12 and Butterfield followed with 10 points.

In their first game following vacation, the Cadets seemed to do nothing right after only a day of practice. They fell to Ell-Saline, 31-66.

In their next outing, again on the home court, St. John's battled Wichita Collegiate, but finally succumbed, 80-54. The private school from Wichita showed the Cadets the best team work they had seen all year.

Junior Bill Harrington is still leading the Cadets in scoring, playing all season, with 114. Joe Price, with his one game total of 12 tallies is second.

Since vacation, however, the B-Team has been victorious twice on the home court. The first came at the expense of Wichita Collegiate, 50-42. Mike Seahill and Steve Arnaud led the Cadet assault with 17 and 15 points, respectively.

Then against Durham, the B-Team ended up winning a hard fought contest, 29-27.

Flu Epidemic Confines Boys

The Cadets of the 81st Corps were confined to the campus for the weekend of Feb. 1-2 upon the recommendations of the School's doctors.

A flu epidemic had hit Salina with absences running as high as 75 per cent in some local schools. Since no cases of flu were apparent among the Cadets, the physicians advised that the Cadets stay on campus to prevent exposure to the virus.

Flu shots were given to the Cadets by the doctors and Mrs. Lena Baldrige, School nurse, Saturday, Feb. 1.

The popular columnist was in Salina to address the annual meeting of the Salina Chamber of Commerce and her address to the teenagers the following morning was sponsored by The Salina Journal.

Military Asks For Inspection Date

Movies covering a variety of subjects, are being shown each Sunday evening in Armstrong Chapel as a part of the Chaplain's Program.

The movies were started following the holiday furlough and will continue until spring furlough. The Rev. Grapplers Drop 2 To Larger Teams

The SJMS grapplers lost two hard fought matches to larger opponents in January. The first loss was on Jan. 20 to Salina High's B-Team 20-29 while the second came to the strong Chapman Irish on Jan. 23, 36-16.

At 120 pounds, Tom Byers pinned his Salina High opponent in 3:57 and decisioned Richard Engle of Chapman, 8-3.

Galen Piercy, at 127 pounds, making his first showing since being injured in a Thanksgiving exhibition match, was pinned by Salina's Lon Hoffman, but bounced back to be the only Cadet to pin a Chapman man.

In each match, St. John's was handed one forfeit. Mike Gepner picked up five points at 95 pounds against Salina and Andy Davis had no opponent in the Irish tangle.

Dave Sebring, 145 pounds, was knocked out of action in the second period of the Salina High match with an eye injury.

In the only other win against Salina, Jim Massell turned back Garrison, 4-0, at 127 pounds. Tony Bell, at 165 pounds, battled his foe to a 6-6 deadlock.
