SALINA'S MOST POPULAR ATHLETE

"GOPHER" FUHRMAN COPS LAURELS IN FORM OF STRAND-BANGS COLLEGIAN CUP

Just another feather in Harry Fuhrman's cap. The contest which included the athletes of all local schools showed that the fans down town think the same of "Gopher" as we do, which is a lot. Isaacson, known as Wesleyan's Formosa Flash, was honor mention and several Salina High men placed high. The whole school almost held their breath while the voting was going on. The final count which was to be held at the Strand Theatre for some reason or other was postponed for several days and some of us wondered if the count was ever going to be taken when one night "Gopher" came in with a sheepish smile on his face and a big silver loving cup under his arm. The trophy is really a beauty and is something we can all be proud to have a St. John's boy win. A little over a year ago The Skirmisher was the more or less happy sponsor of a school popularity contest. In this Harry led from the first and won with a huge majority. Most of all though we attribute his winning the cup to the splendid game he played with the Orange and Black team during the Wesleyan tournament. St. John's of course turned out in a body for their man, but it took the vote of all the schools to put him over so big.

This is Fuhrman's fourth year at St. John's. He has been a letter man in Football each year and was captain in 1925-6. This will make his third year on the first basket ball team and he is the present track captain. He has been clocked with in a small fraction of a second of the national interscholastic forty yard dash swimming record. In addition

CADETS TAKE EXAMINATIONS OFFERED BY TEACHERS COLLEGE OF EMPORIA

Classes Tuesday, March 15, were broken up into eight periods in order to furnish enough time to take several state exams. This is the second time this year St. Johns has been sent these kind of tests. The other time was immediately following Christmas vacations and incidently rather a poor time for us. Notwithstanding this drawback, the cadet corps showed up well. The tests were given to all English classes and several of the other courses. Mr. Barker was in charge and administered the "sour medicine." Before each test he had to read a multitude of rules, which told one how many pencils he was to have and so on. The tests were the false and true type and were really quite interesting.

Hover: (to Pistol Beak) "I never noticed that growth behind your nose before."

Jack Markley: "I have no growth behind my nose."

Hover: "Beg your pardon, beg your pardon, 'twas merely your face that I did not at first recognize."

to that Harry doesn't come out much for athletics! Some gentleman at the Alumni Luncheon wanted to know last year "why doesn't he play Tiddle-de-winks and Dominos?"

To Mr. Bangs and the Management of the Strand Theatre we owe the running of the contest and the presenting of the cup. The contest was run with the Collegians, a rollicking good football picture. The voting was done on individual ballots available at the Strand or the D. & M. Sporting Goods Co. The results were announced from the stage of the theatre.

CADETS ENTERTAIN WITH PRE-LENTEN DANCE

On Friday evening, February 25th, the Cadets entertained their ladies with a Dinner at the School and a dance afterwards at the Guild House.

The old dining room of St. John's, so seldom graced by pretty gowns and charming personalities, seemed to fairly bloom as promptly at six o'clock the Cadets and their guests entered and found their places. The great "double T" shaped table which filled the whole west side of the room was decorated with flag favors, patriotic place cards and potted flowers.

At the head of the table were seated Col. Ganssle and Mrs. Pierce, Mrs. Hiller and Bishop Mize, Mrs. Ganssle and Captain Barker, Miss Holiday and Captain McGrew.

The smoothness with which the dinner proceeded may be credited to Sergt. Hake and his volunteer waiters Sergt. Mitchell, Cadets Myers, Frisbie, Allan, Johnson and Thamer, who served the courses like a veteran organization.

A fruit cocktail was followed by Swiss steak, mashed potatoes and green peas. The dessert was pumpkin pie with whipped cream and coffee.

Col. Ganssle in a few brief words explained that the Cadets and their Guests would drive to the Guild House where the Hastonian Orchestra was awaiting dancers. Bishop Mize returned thanks and in fifteen minutes the party had moved two miles for the remainder of the evening.

The Hall was well decorated in flags and stacked rifles by Lieut. Edwards, Sergt. Mitchell, Corps. Thomson and Jeannin and Cadet Shields.

The music was better than usual. At ten o'clock a lunch of cakes and chocolate was served by Corp. Biggs and Lance-Corp. Smith, and after several more dances the strain of

HERE'S TO THE SECOND BASKET BALL TEAM

Although the second basket ball team has had but few games and small encouragement this season, yet under its enthusiastic captain, it has more than fulfilled its mission. Coached by Captain McGrew they have been no mean opponent for the first team in practice and have given up two of their players, Markley and Jeannin, to the first squad toward the end of the season.

Captain "Dog Catcher" Mitchell and Captain McGrew spent a great deal of time in shaping material that will be valuable next year.

Both games played by the second string resulted in victory. Lincoln Second Team was defeated five to nothing, and Sacred Heart's second team lost to the Dog Catchers by a score of 20 to 8.

Those on the team were Markley, Jeannin, Prather D., Hookey, Jones R., Shields, Smith, Ripley E., Woulfe, Thomson and Scott.

CADETS DEFEAT ELLSWORTH

Profiting by the Salina game, beating Ellsworth was only a matter of course. Shortt, a little unsteady in the first of the game, soon located the hoop, and sank six, almost immediately. The outstanding player of both games was "Gopher" Fuhrman. Only five baskets were credited to him, yet he was easily the fastest player on the floor and it was his long, accurate passes to Shortt that won the game.

The score was St. John's 27, Ellsworth 23.

MOFFAT AND HORTON ENTERTAIN WITH ANTEDULUV- IAN MUSIC

The Cadet Corps was entertained a few Sundays ago in the dining room by Cadets Niles Moffat and "Sam" Horton, who offered a new but very acceptable type of music.

The combination of Banjo and Harmonica succeeded in pleasing the musical sense of the lovers of jazz and at the same time in kindling the emotions of those who still cling to the barnyard lays.

After an appropriate introduction by Colonel Ganssle, Moffat announced that the program would be divided into two cantos, the first of which included "Bye, Bye, Blackbird," "Five-Foot-Two," and "Me, Too," brought out the tone and rhythm that Moffat is able to coax from a banjo; the selections of the second canto gave scope necessary for bringing out the finer points of Mr. Horton's instrument.

There is no doubt in the minds of the Cadets that "Sam" hails from Alabama, by the technique which he uses in swallowing his instrument and then retrieving with a fresh burst of melody.

Following this musical rendered by our two talented Cadets, Cadet Bartle, "St. John's Harry Snodgrass," played a few popular numbers on the piano.

SKIRMISHES

By Herbert W. Hake

Score one or maybe two for Mr. Barker. Recently when Captain John and Captain Shideler sang in Chapel, he was led to believe the Cadets were trying out a new hymn. How perfectly appropriate!

Of course every one went down to see Clara Bow in "It." What was "It?" We don't know yet, and for heaven's sake don't ask us.

Does Captain John know how to pronounce metaphorical? More or less—yes!

The rooting at the basket ball games is growing more hilarious at each encounter. The dear Cadets have indeed lusty voices.

'Twas silent in the barracks (except for the crashing of a few stray transoms). Not even a mouse stirred, no not a one. The barracks for once were quiet. Then spoiling it all, just like any other author does, a stealthy step is brought into the story. A step so stealthy that it might be that of a nymph. It was very obvious that the owner of said stealthy footsteps was desirous of preserving peace at any cost. We now introduce the heroes of our story. The janitors were closing the windows.

Dear Rabbit Foot: Please make us lucky, so that when we go to heaven, we won't be assigned to that section where the three things that lead to murder most easily are: A bugler late on calls, a bugler late on calls, and a bugler late on calls. As far as we are concerned we fervently hope that all persons concerned in this article will take heed and if they do not that they will drop three mirrors a day for ten years. Da da da the bugle will blare out and then zipp we're all late. Please dear rabbit foot make us lucky so that when we die we won't be sent to that part of heaven where the harp corps clock is continually late.

SCHOOL BRIEFS

Lieut. Philip Shortt spent several enjoyable days recently "getting back to nature" on his dad's farm, near Wamego.

Cadet Bouchard has been playing the host to his mother and friend Miss Catherine Jean Fiebert, both of Kansas City, Mo.

Lieut. Edwards accompanied Capt. John to Manhattan a short time ago. The story is that they went to buy nursery stock, well maybe so; maybe so.

Sergeant "Herbie" Hake and Corporal "Gimmie" R. Jones have some new ideas as to how biscuits should be baked. They received these pointers while visiting our dear English Instructor's folks out on the ranch.

Cadet Marvin of Denver and Cadet Nesmith of Salina have joined the roll of students in the last week.

Bill Gordon proved himself the real optimist the other day when he was heard to remark that detentions were "really beneficial."

Special delivery letters out here at school are always for one of three people: Moffat, Cadet Moffat or Dearest Niles Moffat.

SKELLEY RITES

Funeral rites of an impressive nature were held in Salina for Raymond Skelley, whose death occurred in Arizona after an illness of several years. Services were held at the Catholic Church and were attended by a large number of friends. The flag draped casket was carried to Mt. Calvary cemetery on a caisson accompanied by a guard of honor under the command of Lieutenant D. J. McGrew, while members of the American Legion acted as pall bearers. Cadets Lieut. Crooks, Sergt. Caldwell and Corp. Jones R. sounded taps at the cemetery after three rounds of ammunition had been fired in a final salute.

FIRE PUTS AN END TO SYLVAN RETREAT OF JUNIOR SCHOOL

On Saturday, 19th, a most tragic event occurred, not that it meant the loss of anyone's life or caused any untold expense, but only the loss of De Monbrun's much valued rendezvous. It is very hard to say just what purpose or how many dark plots have been hatched among certain members of the Junior School in that spacious hut of brush and various odds and ends of trees. However, all activities were suspended once and for all when on Saturday afternoon about three-thirty the hut, or more truly speaking, brush pile, was discovered in flames. The truth of the whole matter was that De Monbrun had been burning shoe polish for some unknown reason and it had got away from him and before he knew what was happening the whole space was afire. The news spread throughout the premises and soon a good sized crowd of cadets and also several instructors were present. It was too late to quench the flames by the time the larger cadets had arrived. Attempts were made to prevent the fire from spreading to other property.

The hut was fifteen feet long by ten feet wide and varied in height, and its destruction ended the hopes of the Junior School Robin Hoods who had already planned many a foray from their retreat.

Capt. John: "Abie, spell avoid."

Abie Morrow: "Foist give me a woid."

THE SNOWBALL FIGHT

Following lunch one day, not so long ago, Major Heller announced that during the drill period, that day, we would carry out an old custom of West Point.

He instructed the cadets to be dressed in their oldest clothes, at the drill period in case they might get "all wet." The idea was to take up extended order drill. One doesn't mind rolling around in the snow just for the fun of it, but when one is made to do it, then it doesn't go so well. This was the case here, as the boys didn't know what was going to take place, and you could certainly tell it by the long faces that were worn by some.

"B" Company was marched to the north end of the drill field and "A" Company to the south end. Each Company was given "as Skirmishers," and came to a halt when on line. When notified that a snowball fight was going to take place, everyone grew quite enthusiastic and collected as many snowballs as they could carry, conveniently, and impatiently awaited the zero hour. Charge was blown and the companies advanced upon one another like the gallant six hundred, resulting in many dirty faces, before the conflict was brought to an end.

Capt. John: "Why so?"

SCARLET FEVER OVER

On January 25th, two cadets, Wilcox and Heagy, became ill with Scarlet Fever. Of course the whole cadet corps was placed under quarantine. The two cadets who took ill were Junior school lads. When they became ill they were separated from the Senior school. One week was the term of the quarantine imposed on the cadets, but on the last day of the term, Cadet Kintz of the upper school took the sickness. The well cadets had already turned their permits in to go to town, but as the sad news came around they knew it was useless to dream of passes. They at last got their permits signed but the three sick boys remained in their quarantine for five weeks.

CRACK SQUAD EXTENDS INVITATIONS

Immediately following retreat, Tuesday, March 15th, Lieut. Holmes issued the invitations to the Crack Squad. The men were told to "fall out" of ranks and report to the Battalion Commander, which they did and at the same time they were fortunate enough to receive these invitations.

To the Crack Squad goes the best wishes of the cadet corps that they will have a prosperous year, although they are getting a rather late start.

Following are the cadets that received invitations to the crack squad, and are now active members:

Lieutenant Kreipke.

Sergeant Wallace.

Sergeant Caldwell.

Corporal Jeannin.

Corporal Thomson.

Cadet Gordon I.

Cadet Hookey.

Cadet Thamer.

Cadet Prather D.

THE CRACK SQUAD

A short time ago the few remaining members of the Crack Squad met and elected Lieutenant Holmes as their Captain; Lieutenant Crooks as 1st Lieutenant; and 1st Sergeant Woulfe as 1st Sergeant.

There are about sixteen men out for the squad and all of them will be utilized as they will be able to start things rolling next year.

The members are having a rather hard time finding time for their drill, as basketball now claims most of the extra time. It makes it doubly hard

DANCING CLASS STARTS

Miss Mary Munsell has again started her dancing classes for the cadets at St. John's.

The lessons are beginning late this year on account of the quarantine for Scarlet Fever, however, nothing has been lost as all the lessons will be made up before the end of the year (term.)

The class is divided into two groups; the beginners who take their lessons at 7:30 on Thursday evenings are, Hays II, Brach II, Horton, Underhill and Bagnall. The advanced group who take their lesson on Thursday evening at 8:15 are, Johnson, King, Shields, Prather H., Kreipke, Smith, Mitchell, Scott, Caldwell, Kintz and Bridgman.

Mitchell says: "I've only been kissed twice—once on my cheek and once on my Sunday School picnic."

In true justice to the new boys,
Tender things of greenish hue,
We must say that they are ready
To do the things we want them to.

For example take the seedling,
Just inside the campus gate;
All the new ones, all the green ones
Really think it's quite sedate.

Every night and every morning,
If they chance to leave the grounds,
They must first bow to this seedling;
Just a part of new boy rounds.

And what does this signify,
Dominance on the old boy's part?
Subjection to his mighty seedling
Wins a soft place in his heart.

Every morning, every evening,
They must go around and 'round;
What a treasure, what a treasure
That the old cadets have found.

TRUTH AND POETRY

She's an angel in truth, a demon in fiction.

A woman's the greatest of all contradictions.

She's afraid of a cockroach, she'll scream at a mouse,

But she'll tackle a husband as big as a house.

She'll take him for better, she'll take him for worse,

She'll split his head open and then be his nurse.

And when he is well, and gets out of bed,

She'll pick up a teapot to throw at his head.

She's faithful, deceitful, keensighted and blind;

She's crafty, she's simple, she's cruel, she's kind.

She'll lift a man up, she'll cast a man down,

She'll tell him he's wise, but she'll make him her clown.

You fancy she's this, but you find she is that,

For she'll play like a kitten and bite like a cat.

In the morning she will, in the evening she won't,

And you're always expecting she does, but she don't.

ORANGE AND BLACK TEAM ELIMINATED IN THIRD ROUND OF KANSAS WESLEYAN TOURNAMENT

Running far behind their usual form, the Cadet team went down to defeat in the third round of the tournament in which they had been picked to win. If it hadn't been for the able work of Fuhrman, at forward position, we hate to think just what the actual outcome would have been. As usual "Gopher" was on the job from one whistle to the other and no blame for the elimination can be laid to the game played by him. As for the rest of the team we can't say. Something was wrong and either the strain of so much continual playing or could it be that the team was just a little top heavy after the double victory—something just sunk our ship as far as real basket ball was concerned. Kipp beat us and we believe that they are still more surprised than we are.

The tournament started for the Soldiers at about ten-thirty the morning of Friday, the eleventh. The game which had been scheduled for nine-thirty had to be postponed an hour because the aggregation from Beverly were stuck in the mud somewhere along the route and had to be fished out. Played in King gymnasium, things were easy for the cadets, and they copped off a 45-17 score with no real hard work. Fuhrman, because of a weak ankle, was allowed to play only a few minutes and then changed places with Markley on the bench. Phil Shortt showed up well at right forward and furnished eight of the baskets for high point player. The score of forty-five was incidentally the highest score run up the first day.

The second game, like the one with Beverly, ended in an Orange and Black victory. The Cadets easily took Wilsey's number and eliminated them at the tune of 39 to 20. Shortt again was high point man, tying his record of the same morning. "Gopher," back in the swim, was unusually fast and hooped the "pill" several times. As had been hoped the team had no other game Friday and Coach Small sent them to rest up for the game with Kipp at eight-thirty Saturday morning.

Alas, such basket ball, or rather lack of basket ball, we have never seen. We won't discuss the last game because we might alibi just a little.

Salina will send one team to the state tournament at Hays. Sacred Heart, we have to bow down to them, are the lucky chaps. In the "A" class McPherson barely defeated Abilene for stellar honors. On the night of the finals, Lieut. Fuhrman was presented with a medal for the best individual playing of the tournament.

SAFETY FIRST

On Friday, February 25th, St. John's boys had the extreme good fortune of hearing an excellent talk on Safety First delivered by Mr. Hobbie, a representative of the Santa Fe railroad Company.

The Cadets were especially interested in Mr. Hobbie, in as much as he is a brother of Dr. Dillingham of Salina. Moreover the mere fact that he is connected with so great a railroad system, is enough to assure one that what he has to say is of greatest interest and importance.

Mr. Hobbie discussed facts concerning the actual number of railroad casualties as compared to those which occur otherwise and he made it quite clear, that the individual was, in most cases, the cause of these accidents, either through carelessness or physical unfitness. Before closing Mr. Hobbie explained fully wherein we could and should be more careful, thus protecting our lives as well as those of others.

Mr. Hobbie has lived the greatest part of his life in Kansas, although at the present time he is living in Chicago. His home is in Dodge City, Kansas, formerly an old shipping point for cattle and in all probability, it was there that his work in connection with the railroad began.

We extend a hearty thanks to Mr. Hobbie, and sincerely hope that in the near future we may be fortunate enough to hear him again.

St. John's Military School was established in 1887 by the citizens of Salina, under the auspices of the Episcopal Church. It is a preparatory school for boys from 8 to 18 years of age. The capacity is one hundred and twenty boys, who are instructed and sponsored by a faculty of ten men. The course of study and text books are those adopted by the State Board of Education. About fifty percent. of the boys are from Kansas, the rest live in Colorado, Oklahoma, Wyoming, Montana, Missouri and Nebraska.

A modified military system is used as a means of developing neatness, obedience and self-reliance in the cadets. Athletics are offered for all of the boys. Time devoted to studies and recreations is supervised by competent instructors. The aim of St. John's is to develop well rounded men of character.
