TACKY DANCE HELD IN GYM HUGE SUCCESS

COSTUMES FUNNY. GIRLS IN OLD FASHIONED DRESSES

The dance held in the school gymnasium on the evening of February 14 was a novel affair. Evening gowns and full dress uniforms were taboo; everyone was supposed to appear in as "tacky" a garb as he or she could skirmish up. And some of the costumes were too funny for words! Many of the young ladies gave the impressions that they had just arrived from Rubeville; others that they had hunted through the attic and found old dresses belonging to their great grandmothers.

Most of the cadets were attired in overalls with an occasional bandana handkerchief twisted around the neck. Col. Perkins with his tall stovepipe hat, monocle, large watch chain, and striped trousers was a regular "tin horn" sport. Capt. McLean and Capt. Poggeman were typical country boys, and Capt. Simpson, a hobo of some class.

Promptly at nine o'clock the orchestra played the first number. Occasionally in order to liven things up Colonel Perkins who was master of ceremonies called out a circle dance or permitted the unattached gentlemen to tag. At midnight came the closing number.

INTERESTING PROGRAM GIVEN BY STAPLES DUO

With the proverbial "eyes as big as saucers" the cadet corps watched the entertainment put on by the Staples Duo in the gymnasium one evening last month. Mr. Staples himself was a master at the art of entertaining for his program was of threefold variety—magic, ventriloquism, and sketch drawing. The other member of his company garbed in oriental costume merely assisted in the demonstrations.

The stunts in magic were of the usual type—producing geese from borrowed hats, extracting coins from noses and ears, joining separate pieces of cloth and making flags, etc. A number of persons from the audience were coaxed upon the stage to help out the magician.

Mr. Staples' demonstration of ventriloquism was by far the best part of the program. He was able to throw his voice at a considerable distance, at one time simulating a man crying from under the stage. Part of the ventriloquism act consisted in the usual conversation with a dummy.

The entertainment concluded with a sketching of pictures on plain white paper. Probably the most appreciated pictures were those of persons in the audience which, though far from true to life, were easily recognizable.

The Staples' Duo brought along its own curtain and stage setting. The whole performance was of a high class type.

A few weeks ago all the cadets were invited to attend a dance in the Masonic Temple given by the De Molays. Unfortunately they were unable to accept because a basketball game was being played the same night.

RICHARD MITCHELL, JR.

GETS APPOINTMENT TO WEST POINT

Word was received the other day of the appointment to the United States Military Academy of Richard Mitchell, Jr., '29 of Monte Vista, Colorado. "Grump," as Mitchell was known to his friends, was for six years a student at St. John's, at the time of his graduation being Cadet-Major. He is now a Sophomore at Colorado University. He received his appointment the last week in January from Congressman Guy U. Hardy of Colorado.

Many of the St. John's old boys remember "Grump" most pleasantly. Still more remember his brothers Ben and Jim, who were here last year.

OLD BOYS ENTERTAINED BY CAPT. SHIDELER

That Capt. Shideler, a member of last year's faculty and now in the employment of the Salina Public Utilities Co., has not lost his love for St. John's School and the cadets is shown by the way he royally entertained at his home the other night about twenty of the old boys with whom he had formerly been associated.

Parlor games were played for a while and then came an interesting contest for which prizes were given. Placards depicting various advertisements were hung about the room and the boys who gave the best answers as to what they represented received prizes.

Late in the evening delicious refreshments of sandwiches, fruit salads, and cake were served. After this the boys sang several songs led by Capt. Shideler, the closing number being "St. John's Forever."

Upon departing the boys expressed their most heartfelt appreciation to Capt. and Mrs. Shideler for giving them such an enjoyable evening.

The boys attending were Bagnall, Bivens, Boatright, Bolte I, Cater, Coyle I and II, Altman, Blair, David I, Deppen, Elmore, Firstenberger, Green, Leaf, Marshall, Phillips, Poindexter, Scott, Snair, Shakespeare, and White.

CADETS TAKE PART IN MARYMOUNT OPERETTA

The operetta "The Crystal Queen" presented in the Marymount Auditorium the evening of February 16 was of particular interest to the cadets as their own crack squad had a part on the program.

This operetta put on by the Marymount girls assisted by the boys from St. John's School and Sacred Heart Academy was a most delightful entertainment. The costumes and stage setting were colorful, and the musical strain was most attractive. The Marymount girls had exceptionally fine voices and were well trained in their parts.

Three scenes made up the operetta—the first on the village green, the second in the fairy bower, and the third on the market place. In the second scene Sergt. Richard Bagnall, the Prince of Slumberland, appeared, and did some very fine singing—a solo first and then duets with both the Crystal Queen and Cassie Rosebud, the mortal maiden who had been taken away by the fairies. In the second scene the Crack Squad also appeared, offering a vocal number and a drill. Owing to the smallness of the stage only eight of the members were able to participate.

Between the acts while the scenery was being changed two Marymount girls gave interesting readings.

CHAPLAIN WILL START CONFIRMATION CLASSES

Within the next few days Chaplain Mize plans to start Confirmation instruction. No cadet is solicited to enter this class, but must come into it of his own accord. It is not the policy of St. John's School to proselyte into the Episcopal church boys from families of other faiths. Every boy who wishes to become a candidate for Confirmation must first have permission from home.

Chaplain Mize expects to give instruction twice weekly, probably directly after the dinner hour if that is found to be the most convenient time.

Bishop Mize will administer the rite of confirmation at Christ Cathedral on Palm Sunday evening, the Sunday before Easter. There is a possibility that the St. John's cadets will be confirmed in their own chapel rather than with the members of the Cathedral class.

COMPETITION KEEN IN NEATEST CADET CONTEST

A full day pass! This is the award to be made at the close of each month to the cadet who wins the most often in the neatness of appearance competition at retreat. And the way those boys are working! Shoes and puttees are given so much elbow grease in the shining that they almost reflect like a mirror. Uniforms are so carefully pressed and face and hands so spotlessly clean that it almost looks as though an old maid aunt had supervised the job.

Every evening at retreat Col. Perkins in company with his officers scans each cadet with a critical eye. Presently there is a consultation; then an announcement which makes one boyish heart beat a little more joyously than usual. It won't be long now before some boy will be getting a mighty fine privilege which will make his friends greeneyed.

CADETS DEFEAT CULVER HIGH BY SCORE 31-16

BEST SCORING DONE IN LAST HALF; SECOND TEAM
LOSES 19-12

The St. John's cadets had little trouble in defeating Culver Wednesday night, February 11. Bob Holton by his seven field goals was the game's highest scorer, and Ken Van Dervelde aided also with three goals.

The cadets were off to an early lead of 6-0 before the invaders were able to score. In the middle of the second quarter the cadets were leading 12-3, but here they fell into a slump and Culver pulled up within one point as the first half ended.

In the last half the cadets rolled up eighteen points while Culver scored only four. In this half the cadets held a very tight defense which Culver was unable to break. The final score was 31-16.

Scott and David starting their first games at guard and Shakespeare his first as forward fitted well to the scheme of things which benched three regulars, Bivens, Green, and Lloyd.

The cadet seconds lost a rough and tumble game 19-12 which was not close until the final minutes when White made three long goals in succession.

CHAPLAIN MIZE TALKS ABOUT ASH WEDNESDAY

"So many boys have been asking me just what is the significance of Ash Wednesday that I am going to tell you about it now." Thus spoke Chaplain Mize during the chapel service on Ash Wednesday morning. And then he proceeded to tell them something about this first day of Lent, that season the church was just entering. In ancient times people as an act of contrition and penitence used to garb themselves in sackcloth and put ashes on their heads. In the early days this old custom survived among the Christians in the making of the sign of the cross on their foreheads on the first day of Lent.

Lent is a season which Christians approach with penitent hearts—a season during which they try to refresh their souls by means of abstinence and devotions—a season when they make special efforts to rid themselves of all sin. Lent is a preparation for the greatest and most glorious of feasts—Easter.

Chaplain Mize urged that every cadet keep Lent at least in the chapel service. Let him be a little more attentive and ponder a little more deeply during the saying of the prayers.

KEEPING BUSY

There seems to be little need for anyone to be told to keep busy in St. John's School, where life seems to be just one job after another, but there are times when idleness breeds mischief. Sunday afternoons, for instance, and week-day afternoons as well, when the "students" congregate, the idle hours cause more discontent than the hardest work we have to do. There's no better way to get an attack of homesickness than to sit around and think about home.

It's easy enough to avoid idleness. Get out on the athletic field. If you don't want to do that, stay inside and read a good book. There are plenty of them in the library. Or put in a little extra time on your school work and bring up that "D" you got last quarter. If you don't need that, write a letter home, shine your shoes, clean up your room, or try to write something for the Skirmisher. The great thing is to do something of a little benefit to yourself. Don't sit around and talk to somebody about what a rotten place this is.

You can get out of anything just exactly what you put into it. If you fill your daily life with tasks to be done, you will find that the day is more enjoyable.

LOST

Lost! five minutes! What are you going to do about it? Turn over, yawn, and lose another five minutes, most likely.

If you were the owner of a fine, hundred dollar diamond ring, and were to lose it, what would you do? You would become worried; you would advertise in the newspapers and make every possible effort to find it. And this, of course, would be the proper thing to do.

But every week that passes by, some of us lose several study periods, or perhaps an entire day of school. Do we become worried? Do we make any effort to regain the lost time by extra study? I am sorry to say that the majority of us do not. Why? Because we do not realize the value of an education or of the pearl-string of moments called time.

Let us hope that each of us will from day to day realize more the value of an education, and resolve in our minds and hearts to put forth every effort to attain one. Not only should we do this for the benefit of ourselves, but also for the benefit of those who, through their confidence in us, have made it possible for us to be here.

We have learned that our friend "ABE" deBeque is doing very good work at the Debeque High School. He sends his best regards to all of his friends here at school.

Rev. Frank Van R. Moore, brother-in-law of Bishop Mize, visited here for about two weeks. He has now returned to his parish in Dodge City, Kansas.

Mrs. C. C. Van Cleve, of Wichita, Kansas, was here to visit her son "Tiny."

Dorothy Perkins, the daughter of Col. and Mrs. Perkins, who is attending Christian College, Columbia, Mo., has been ill with the flu. However, the sickness did not overtake her until she had passed her first semester's examinations.

Gifford Jamison '26 of Denver and Miss Catherine Law of the same city were married on February 11. They will make their home in Navajo, Ariz.

Not many weeks ago upon visiting his downtown residence Bishop Mize found that waterpipes had burst and the entire house flooded. The damage done was considerable. When he closed his house last fall, the Bishop supposed that the water had been turned off but such was not the case.

Lloyd: "Well, what's the matter? Didn't I do all right in the parade?"

Green (sweetly): "Sure you did all right. You won it by a half yard."

Jones K.: "Lamb's lettuce, won't you sit in my lap?"

The Girl: "I can't."

Jones K.: "Why not, Honeybunch?"

The Girl: "Because you haven't any lap."

First Roman (at a massacre): "We've got a capacity crowd, but still we're losing money. The upkeep of the lions is pretty heavy."

Second Roman: "Yes, sir; those lions sure do eat up the prophets."

Coach McLean (to friend): "I want you to help me. I promised to meet my wife at one o'clock for luncheon, and I can't remember where. Would you mind ringing her up at our house and asking her where I am likely to be about that time?"

Coyle L.: "What's your objection to Scott's singing?"

Coyle J.: "He doesn't practice what he screeches."

Diggledy-dig, diggledy-dig
I know a boy with ears bigger than big.
I know a boy with nose longer than long
Have I not made up a cute little song?

Who sent the cadets those comic valentines? It is still a deep and dark mystery.

Capt. Parks: "Lynch, make a sentence containing the word 'indisposition'."

Lynch (assuming an aggressive attitude): "When you want to fight, you stand in disposition."

Capt. Simpson: "Jones tells me that the mortgage company is going to put him on his feet."

Mr. Abbott: "Yes, they are going to foreclose on his car, and he will have to walk."

Chaplain Mize (at jeweler's): "I just bought this ring at the Cut Rate Store across the street. How do you pronounce the name of the stone? It is 'turquoise' or 'turkwoise'?"

Jeweler (after inspecting stone): "The correct pronunciation, sir, is 'glass'."

A handsome young boy called Ramona
Went to bath one night clad in a kimona.
In the dark he did grope
But he slipped on some soap,
And then he let out a loud groana.

Firstenberger: "I'm groping for words."

Virginia Lee: "Well, you don't expect to find them around my neck, do you?"

There are surely a lot of boys trying for the Poindexter cup. A few days ago we heard Gerding and Tallchief I are going to start a miniature golf tournament. Now we learn that Boatright is hanging around stables so that he may find horse-shoes with which to start a horse shoe throwing contest.

JUNIOR SCHOOL NOTES

The Junior School is hoping to have a new library room soon. Some of the boys have been busy removing paper from the walls of the new room and it is hoped that it will soon be painted and equipped.

It is rumored that Kesselring is organizing a tumbling team.

Capt. Parks has been reading a most enjoyable book, "The Club House Mystery," to the boys after school hours.

The playground has taken on the appearance of a miniature flying field lately. Most of the boys have small model planes, and now kites are making an appearance.

Jimmy Stafford received the highest average for the month in Miss Yeomans' room. His average was 89.6. Harry Gregg and Fred Moore ranked second with an average of 87.4.

Nicky Robison spent February 15 in Abilene.

BOY SCOUT NOTES

During the week of February 8-14 the Boy Scouts of America celebrated their twenty-first anniversary. On February 10 seventeen members of the St. John's Troop No. 83 attended with Capt. Brown, their Scoutmaster the banquet held in Maynard's Tea Room located in the Masonic Temple. Each troop helped in some way on the program. Cadet Smith of the St. John's troop acted as Bugler. An interesting program followed the meal, part of which consisted in the awarding of badges. Cadets Tincher, Galloway, and De Wolfe received the Second Class Badge. Cadets Boatright, Patterson, Gray, McCarty, Parker, and Tallchief I, II and III received the Tenderfoot Badge.

On January 31 the troop had a picnic supper in the woods, and a number of the boys passed fire building and cooking tests. Following supper, a Council Ring was held around the fire.

Realizing that dramatics is an activity at St. John's which sorely needs to be developed, the troop is planning to give a minstrel show sometime in April. All expenses will be paid from the fund accumulated by the boys' dues.

On a Sunday not long ago Hartley, Austin, Tincher, and Poindexter hiked out to the school camp site and back. Capt. Brown rode as far as Marymount carrying the lunch, and hiked with the boys the rest of the way. All greatly enjoyed their outing and the meal cooked in the open.

During anniversary week all the Scout troops in town participated in a window display in a vacant store on South Santa Fe. Col. Perkins kindly loaned the St. John's troop some silk flags of foreign countries so that it might be represented.

Last month the Kansas Wesleyan Athletic Association invited every scout in Salina to be its guest at the Baker-Wesleyan game. Unfortunately the St. John's troop could not accept as there was a game of their own being played in the gymnasium.

Bill Hart, the school chef, is indeed a good friend of the Scouts. He has been a Scoutmaster himself and now is Assistant Scoutmaster of a colored troop. It is never too much trouble for him to fix up lunches for the boys to take on their hikes. And he prepares good ones too!

COLONIAL DAUGHTERS
OFFER ESSAY CONTEST

St. John's School has again been invited to participate in the contest in patriotic essay writing sponsored by the National Society of Colonial Daughters. A letter recently received by Bishop Mize from Mrs. Harley C. Gage, President, encloses a list of approved subjects and rules governing the contest. Essays may be written on any subject involving patriotism and high civic ideals but the five topics given below are particularly recommended.

1. The George Washington Bicentennial Celebration.
2. Forests and their Relation to Floods.
3. Summer Military Training Camps.
4. Our Immigration Problem.
5. The Monroe Doctrine and Its Author.

Anyone interested in entering this contest may either read the rules posted on the bulletin board or confer with Capt. Brown.

Wife: "Dear, why are some women called Amazons?"

Husband: "You remember the Amazon river has the largest mouth—"

But she went out and slammed the door before he could say any more.

GLEE CLUB TAKES PART IN ROTARY BANQUET

At a recent luncheon given by the Salina Rotary Club St. John's School was well represented, Colonel Perkins, Chaplain Mize, and eight members of the Glee Club being present. Colonel Perkins was one of the speakers, and the cadets assisted with the music, singing two special numbers.

Dr. O. D. Wallace, President of the Rotary Club, had charge of the program. A number of speeches were given, the first of which was by Mr. F. S. Abel who told something about the early history of St. John's School. Mr. Fred Walker of the class of 1904 spoke of his school days at St. John's when Bishop Mize prior to his elevation to the Episcopacy, headed the institution.

A number of other alumni were present among whom were Mr. Charles W. Seitz and Mr. Theodore Seitz, members of the first graduating class, and Mr. Carl Prescott of the class of 1910.

Col. Perkins in his talk spoke of the aims and policies of the school at the present time. He stressed the value of military training in moulding and fashioning boys' lives.

CLERGY PRESENT FRUIT
PLATE TO BISHOP MIZE

As an expression of their love, the clergy of the diocese of Salina during their recent convocation presented Bishop Mize with a silver fruit plate. On January 19 last Bishop Mize completed his tenth year as Bishop of this diocese, and this remembrance was an anniversary present.

Following the Sunday evening service Bishop Mize was asked by the clergy to come over to the Deanery for a few moments as they had something of importance to say to him. Presently the Bishop was the center of all eyes in the parlor at which time the Rev. W. A. Munday of Goodland, Senior Priest of the District, on behalf of the clergy presented him with the lovely piece of silver plate. The Bishop made a short acceptance speech in which he referred to the loyalty of his clergy and the good work they were doing in their parishes.

SACRED HEART DEFEATS CADETS BY SCORE 25-19

St. John's lost to Sacred Heart in the last three minutes of play to the tune of 25-19, on February 3.

For the first time in four years has Sacred Heart defeated Coach McLean's team. The score was tied several times during the game, and the contest on the floor was outstanding for the evening.

Bob Holton for the cadets and Pat Riordon for their opponents tied for high point man with ten points each.

St. John's started off leading by a score of 6-3 at the end of the first period. Then failure to make the short set ups in the first half cost them the game. Time and time again the Sacred Heart team swarmed down through the cadets for easy shots. In the second half both teams played on even terms Sacred Heart having the necessary points to win out. The game ended 25-19 in favor of Sacred Heart.

KIPP WINS VICTORY OVER TEAM JANUARY 27

Kipp Hi staged a long battle to nose a victory over the cadets on Tuesday, January 27. They trailed the soldiers up to the final quarter at which time. Miller, lanky Kipp center, broke away and made eight more points to add to his other five which defeated the cadets.

For a quarter the cadets lead by a 7-2 lead which might have grown larger if the cadets had been able to make several set ups.

In the second quarter both teams produced fast and interesting basket-ball. The half ended with the cadets having a 13-9 lead.

The third quarter was still faster and harder fought than ever; Green and Weatly, both guards were the only ones to score long ones from the floor.

The final quarter came with Miller's rushing through the cadets defense for three field goals and a pair of free throws. During the same period the cadets could cage only four free shots. Kipp won 23-20.

Bob Bivens and Red Lloyd played the best ball for the losers.

LINCOLN DOWNS CADETS IN HARD FOUGHT BATTLE

The Lincoln Leopards defeated the cadets in both first and second team games on Friday, February 13. The Leopard firsts won 29-6 and the seconds won 22-10.

The first half was rather close. Lincoln took a lead of 6-0, which was reduced to 6-4 by goals from Bivens and Holton, but at the end of the first half the score stood eleven to four. In the next half Sweazy, Lincoln forward, started things rolling by dropping in the basket four fast ones as the third quarter ended.

In the last period the cadets went scoreless while Lincoln rolled up six points before the subs entered the game. The old proverbial superstition of Friday 13 was lucky to prove true on the cadets. No one on the team was able to score, although all had perfect opportunities for easy set ups.

The second team game was rather cautiously played, neither team ever pushing things along to make the going hard. The first ended 10-7 for Lincoln with each one of the teams rolling in one goal apiece. The second quarter was scoreless and the half ended 10-7.

In the third quarter both teams scored two points. St. John's off Deppen's goal and Lincoln from two free throws by A. Foreman who was high point man of the game. The lineup was as follows:

Lincoln—29	Pts.	St. John's—6	Pts.
