TEAM DEFEATS SOLOMON HIGH

Score is 14 to 0 in Hard Fought Game Played on Home Field

On Thanksgiving morning the cadets met the Solomon eleven on Perkins field. Last year Solomon defeated St. John's on the same day which made quite a bit of rivalry spring up. The soldiers were bound and determined to bring in a victory this year.

St. John's received the first kick off and took the ball into Solomon territory with out delay. They lost the ball on the two yard line. Solomon kicked out of danger and the soldiers started for the goal line again. The Irish were strong and held them on downs. This time the Solomon quarterback took to passing. Two were completed but the third intercepted. This time Bill Pickenpugh took the nugget across the goal. A successful drop kick by Shakespeare gave the cadets a 7 to 0 lead for the first half.

St. John's opened the second half by kicking. The Solomon bunch threatened to score but met with bad luck and lost the ball on a fumble. This spelled their doom and the St. John's eleven worked the ball all the way up the field for another touchdown.

The cadets did the majority of offensive playing the fourth quarter and were on Solomon's six inch line when the final gun ended the game. The final score was 14 to 0 for St. John's.

Nine of the St. John's squad played their last game for the school. Captain Deppen has something to remember when he thinks about leading such a hard fighting team. Cadets Ward, Shakespeare, Blair, Falch, White, Davis, Wise, and Pickenpugh are the remaining eight who will leave the squad.

The St. John's line up was:

L. E.—Tincher
L. T.—Hamilton
L. G.—Waldo
C.—Wise
R. E.—Deppen
R. T.—Baker
R. G.—Davis
Q. B.—Shakespeare
R. H.—Naylor
L. H.—Gerding
F. B.—Pickenpugh

INDOOR TARGET PRACTICE TO START IN JANUARY

Indoor target practice will start early in January. Capt. Evans, who will have charge of this activity, has been spending some time in getting things in shape. The basement range which was rebuilt last year is now ready for use, and the rifles have been looked over and cleaned. A good supply of ammunition is on hand. It is probable that some matches will be fired with other schools.

The cadets first will be given instructions in the use of sighting bars. Drill periods as well as afternoons after school will be devoted to this study. Captain Evans will take the boys two at a time and they will be required to do a certain amount of firing from the prone, kneeling, and sitting positions.

Merry Christmas A Happy New Year

CHRISTMAS HOLIDAYS TO BEGIN LATE TONIGHT

Hurrah for home and Christmas! The day of days has arrived, and this evening the cadets will be free to start out.

There will be a special dinner tonight followed by a party. There will be a Christmas tree and an interesting program to bring cheer into the hearts of the boys. Then goodby to St. John's until retreat on the evening of January 3, the time of the opening of school after the holidays. Goodby and Merry Christmas to everybody!

CAPT. BROWN GIVES TALK AT TEACHERS' MEETING

During the Kansas State Teachers' meeting held in Salina on November 4 and 5 Capt. Brown was one of the speakers on the program of the English Round Table session. Mrs. Fern McCarty of Kansas Wesleyan University, chairman, had asked him to speak, and he chose as his subject "Capturing the Attention of the Boy in English." In his talk Capt. Brown said that he made his English classes very informal and that he approved of a teacher's talking to his boys from the heart to make them responsive. He even advocated playing with and humoring boys occasionally to keep them interested and attentive. He was inclined to attach minor importance to class projects. His goal in teaching was to enable his boys to obtain a knowledge of the best literature, to be able to appreciate it, and to learn to write and speak English well. Captain Brown advocated much practice in writing, both in themes and on the blackboard during class period.

THANKSGIVING DANCE IS HELD IN GYMNASIUM

The second dance of the school year was given in the gymnasium on Thanksgiving night. It started at 9 P. M., and Weaver's six piece orchestra furnished the music. At this dance were a great number of out of town guests as well as some of the former cadets who had come back on a visit.

The gymnasium was decorated along a modernistic plan with many colored streamers forming a dome overhead through which the delicately shaded electric lights shone.

In one corner of the room two of the smaller boys served grape punch to the thirsty dancers. During the intermission the Cracksquad put on their drill. At twelve o'clock came the strains of "Home Sweet Home" which meant the end of the delightful affair.

Old boys attending the Thanksgiving game were Carl and Bruce Johnson of Salina, Paul Whitmore of Salina, Clarence E. Wineberg of Dodge City, and Hal Heaton of Salina.

WHERE THE FACULTY WILL SPEND THE HOLIDAYS

Coach Bishop plans to spend the holidays at his home in Oklahoma City, Okla.

Capt. Simpson will spend part of the holidays visiting his sister in Hoisington.

Capt. and Mrs. Evans expect to divide the time visiting relatives in Rockford, Illinois, and Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

Capt. Brown will visit friends in Wichita for part of the vacation.

Major Fritsche and family, Miss Yeomans, Miss Mize, Mr. Barker, Capt. Parks, and Chaplain Mize expect to be in Salina during the entire holidays.

CRACKSQUAD PUTS ON DRILL BETWEEN HALVES

Between halves of the Baker-Wesleyan football game played on the Wesleyan field on the night of Armistice Day, the St. John's Cracksquad made its first public appearance of the year. Preceding the actual drill there was a short parade when the 130th Field Artillery Color Guard, the American Legion Color Guard, the St. John's Color Guard, the Abilene Drum and Bugle Corps, and the Cracksquad marched upon the field.

Despite the fact that it was the first time a number of the members of the Cracksquad had appeared in public, the boys put on good drill with plenty of snap and precision. The boys executed the movement against odds as the night was very cold with an icy wind blowing and during their drill twenty one cannon salutes were fired.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE IS HOST TO CITY TEAMS

Hilarity and good fellowship reigned supreme on the evening of December 8 at which time the Salina Chamber of Commerce gave a banquet in honor of the football teams of Kansas Wesleyan, Salina High School, and St. John's Military School. The affair took place in the basement of the Presbyterian Church.

During the serving of the meal the teams gave cheers and sang songs. After the tables were cleared Mr. George Robb, toastmaster, introduced the coaches of the three teams. Each of these gentlemen after making a few witty remarks introduced in turn the members of his team.

Then came the speaker of the evening, the Rev. R. V. Kearns. He showed that he was a most enthusiastic football fan. Among other things he compared the battle on the football field to the battle of life. A man who hit the line hard in football would tend to hit the line hard in life.

A number of prominent Salina gentlemen attended the banquet. Among these were Mayor Stevenson, Dean King of Kansas Wesleyan University, and L. N. Hudgens, president of the athletic association of the Salina Chamber of Commerce.

THE REV. ROBT. H. MIZE, JR.

REV. ROBT. H. MIZE, JR. ORDAINED TO PRIESTHOOD

St. Michael's Church, Hays, was the scene of a most impressive service on the morning of St. Andrew's Day, November 30, at which time Bishop R. H. Mize ordained his son Robert H. Mize, Jr. to the priesthood. The Bishop was assisted by a number of visiting clergymen, a part of whom came from outside the state. The Rev. Edward M. Mize presented the candidate for Holy Orders to the Bishop, the Very Rev. Donnon E. Strong of Salina preached the sermon and the Rev. Francis V. Moore of Dodge City read the Litany. All the clergy participated in that portion of the service requiring the imposition of hands as the candidate knelt to be ordained.

In the evening the Ichthus Club, an organization of Church students at the Kansas State Teachers College of Hays, gave a reception for the visiting clergy.

The Rev. Robert H. Mize, Jr.'s early school days were spent at St. John's School and Salina High. Then came four years at Kansas University where he specialized in Journalism. After his graduation he became connected with the United Press and was Night Bureau Manager at Dallas, Texas. But he felt the call of the ministry and started the three year's course at the General Theological Seminary in New York.

On Sunday, May 1, at St. Peter's Church, New York City Bishop R. H. Mize ordained his son to the Diaconate. During the summer the Rev. R. H. Mize, Jr. travelled in the interests of St. John's School. This was the third summer he had done this and in this way became well known to most of the St. John's cadets. On September 1 he took charge of St. Michael's Church, Hays, as well as two or three missions in the vicinity.

Old boys visiting St. John's within the past few weeks were: Roy F. Fitzpatrick, '05; Edward E. Peckham, '02; Thomas G. Gardner, '02; A. H. Martin, '08; and Otis Jeannin, '30.

The football squad attended a number of the night games at Kansas-Wesleyan during the season.

MERRY CHRISTMAS

Christmas Anno Domini 1932. Home and friends and loved ones, holly and mistletoe, Christmas tree and candles, stars and tinsel, shaded lights and mysterious whispers, music and laughter, packages square, round and oblong. Cozy corners and your best girl. Turkey and fixin'. The morning after the family doctor! Oh well, it only comes once a year you say, and youth must be served.

Another Christmas, more than nineteen hundred years ago. Shepherds and their flocks, a song at mid-night. Three travelers and a star. A stable, a manger and a little child. Gift-gold frankincense and myrrh. The greatest gift of all: God's gift to the world. So while we are all together, let us not forget those who have never had a real Christmas. Fellows, let us give a thought to waifs of the great city, those boys who sleep in coal cellars and under stairways, to the children of the crowded tenements and to the orphans who have never known a mother's love or a father's care. Let us each one try to bring real happiness to someone else. Why not make a contribution to the community chest of your home town or to some other organization like it. That's one way in which we can all help to put the Christ in Christmas. It was the Master himself who said: "In-as-much as ye did it unto the least of these ye did it unto me."

THE SPIRIT OF ST. JOHN'S

The Spirit of St. John's Military School which is as old as the institution itself, is the force that makes the school a living factor in the community. We, the students, reflect this spirit in our loyalty to everything that pertains to the school, in our enthusiastic participation in all its activities, and in our zealous interest in upholding its high ideals.

The moral standards of St. John's School are above reproach. Our entire training is such that it creates in us a desire to rise to the highest and best attainments possible. In gaining a clearer sense of what is right it becomes our duty to conduct ourselves according to the standards so set up.

The faculty of St. John's emphasizes scholarship as a test of efficiency. Upon the basis of scholarship rests many opportunities for participation in other school activities. Any student willing to apply himself has unlimited opportunities to fit himself for useful life.

In athletics only the most sportsman-like methods are employed. We believe not only in a team that plays a fair and clean game but also in a student who supports his team winning or losing, to the end.

Our watchword is Americanism. This underlies and inspires all that we do. We are being fitted here to take our place as future citizens. We point with satisfaction to our record in support of civic activities and we welcome opportunities to aid in all worthy movements.

St. John's Military School with all it stands for, contributes in a large measure to the best and dearest associations of our lives, and its influence will continue as an inspiration in the years to come.

Ward, '32.

THE FOOTBALL SEASON

The football season at St. John's of 1932 ended with much enthusiasm. The prospects were much better this year than last and much more was expected of the team. But things did not get going until late in the season for we lost the first three consecutive games by large scores. This was due to the lack of the knowledge of fundamentals of football and the unwillingness of the squad to work together. Coach Bishop spent much time on teaching fundamentals and on building up the spirit among the squad. As soon as it was seen what could be done when everyone played together and fought hard three victories came St. John's way. Every game showed much improvement until the team was playing regular old time football. In the last game the cadets played a team considered to be twice their strength but it did not turn out so. St. John's completely outplayed their opponents and ended the season looking like a championship team.

Much new material was developed. The squad at first lacked a ball carrying backfield. Henry Gerding was seen playing around with a football and was told to come out for official practice. In a short time he proved himself to be speedy and later became a ball runner for the team. He will be back next year and will probably do much to make a winning team for St. John's.

The team also lacked a line plunger. Bill Pickenpaugh was noticed to have lots of drive and was tried out. He turned out to be capable of the position needed. By his powerful plunges he acquired the name of the St. John's "ramrod."

Judging from the improvement shown this year and the material coming back, St. John's should have a successful season next year.

The cadets receiving first team awards were: Kenneth Deppen, Kenneth White, Wilbur Ward, Charles Shakespeare, Laurence Blair, Richard Wise, Ted Davis, Elmer Baker, Jerry Tincher, John Ehram, Mack Kennedy, Bill Pickenpaugh, Henry Gerding, James Fritsche, Leonard Maker, Jewell Naylor, Robert Hamilton, and Ralph Waldo. Three cadets received provisional letters which means if they win a first team award next year they can have two stripes on their sweater. They are cadet William Norcross, Max Moberly, and Jack Prohs.

BASKETBALL PROSPECTS

The prospects for having a good basketball season look very favorable. A large number of boys reported to the gym at Coach Bishop's official call, many of them being experienced players.

White, Deppen, and Shakespeare are letter men of last year and also have the advantage of having played together four years. Several others are coming out with experience from last year's intramural games. A few of the new boys look very promising, some of them having played on other teams last year.

The Orange and Black will first see action ten days after returning from Christmas holidays. Twelve games are scheduled including Russell, Tescott, Enterprise, Solomon, and Sacred Heart. Two games will be played with each, one on the opponent's court and one on our home floor.

HUMOR

Capt. Parks: "Gus, why do you persist in talking to Jesse. I changed your seat in hope that I could silence you."

Gus: "You surely have made a mistake, Captain Parks. Where I was sitting first, I could at least talk to him in a whisper, and now you have put me where it requires a shout."

Coach (in Industrial Geography class)

"Where is granite found in Nebraska?"

Elmer: "In the graveyard at Stratton."

Hortense Magee is hard to stop;
She lit a match—the tank went "pop"! A smile lit up her angel face
She's autoing on through starry space.
—Exchange.

Someone said he was going to give the chef for Christmas a book on concrete rules for cooking. We hope he does not try it out when he makes biscuits.

Capt. Evans: "I am afraid we can't go home this Christmas. Think of the bills we owe."

Mrs. Evans: "But can't we think of them just as well there?"

Mrs. Fritsche: "Wouldn't you be surprised if I gave you a check for Christmas?"

Major Fritsche: "I certainly would."
Mrs. Fritsche: "Well, here it is already made out, ready for you to sign."

Shakespeare was recently asked to give a talk on how it feels when one's girl gets married. Miss Virginia Lee Salhouse his partner of last year recently changed her name.

In commenting upon the hornet's nest outside of Tincher's window, White said that when hornets sting you, they die. Tincher said he wished they would choose a better method of committing suicide.

LOCAL NEWS

Among the out of town dinner guests at St. John's on Thanksgiving were: Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Tincher and daughter Coreine of Hutchinson; Mrs. H. D. Stevens of Denver; Mr. J. M. Naylor of Topeka; Mr. and Mrs. Ross Maker and two children of Hominy, Okla.; Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Stackelback of Denver; Mayor and Mrs. G. D. Bigole of Denver; Mrs. W. D. Reynolds of Denver; Mrs. Henry Bolte and daughter Lois of Des Moines, Iowa; Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Ainsworth and son of Lyons, Kansas. Three of last year's graduating class were here: Allison McClure, Jack Bolte, and Bob Lindley.

Among the Salina guests were: Mrs. Roy Perkins and daughter Dorothy; Prof. Ralph W. Reitz; Deaconess Gilliland; Bishop R. H. Mize; Mrs. Strong, Dean Donnon E. Strong, and Miss Elizabeth Strong.

Sergt. Nelson Richards spent Thanksgiving with his grandparents in Chester, Illinois.

Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Stackelback and Mayor and Mrs. G. D. Bigole entertained the following boys at dinner at the Lamer Hotel on the Friday following Thanksgiving: Stackelback, Waldo, Kennedy, Kesselring, McCarty, Hamilton, Fritsche, and Prohs.

The many friends of Lieut. Wilbur Ward were glad to see him back at school about November 1.

Ripley in "Believe It Or Not" says a man once sneezed 645 times without stopping. Attention, teachers!

"Present arms" said the doctor as he prepared to vaccinate the cadets.

Norcross: "You see that girl over there. She has been walking up and down the street for an hour."

Bolte II: "How do you know?"

Norcross: "I've been following her of course."

Naylor (in the Q. M.): "Haven't you any lavender colored school writing paper. It would match so nicely the new three cent stamps?"

FAMOUS SAYINGS

(Submitted by Deppen)

Shakespeare: Is Eloise home?
Ward: That's no fair, guy!
Blair: O. K. Will.
Pickenpaugh: Got anything.
Baker: Let's go out, Bill.
Norcross: That's my sore arm.
Coach: N-O-R-C-R-O-S-S.
Capt. Evans: Where's Patsy?
Major Fritsche: Got the bug licked to a standstill.

Capt. Brown: Now you boys have got to get this.

Capt. Simpson: Have a quiz tomorrow.
Mr. Barker: Hurry up in there.
Wise: I'll muss my hair up.
Gerding: It ought to be this way.
Prohs: Lend me a nickel.
Naylor: Boy my foot hurts.
Waldo: I've sure got a charley-horse.

Mr. Barker (to Charlie who was getting ready to sweep the library): "I suppose you must clean up a bit but don't touch anything."

Prohs: "Do you think I am a perfect idiot?"

Hardy: "No, nobody is perfect."

Many of the boys have been enjoying swims in the Salina Y. M. C. A. after school.

Mrs. Jones of Salina took dinner at school one evening recently.

Recently the 8th grade made posters showing the progress of different industries. Bolte had the best poster.

The boys of the Junior School have enjoyed two delightful parties within the past few weeks. One night Capt. Parks entertained in his room. The boys played Hearts, and then served refreshments of popcorn and candy.

About a week later the boys got up a party and made Capt. Parks the honor guest. The boys played games and told stories. They prepared and served their own refreshments which consisted of sandwiches, cider, and candy.

Capt. Parks has been reading "The Traitor" by Thomas Dixon, Jr. to the 8th grade.

The Junior School has a number of cave diggers in its midst. Under the direction of Capt. Parks several boys have dug a deep cave in the side of the steep embankment of the stream running through the park. They have also constructed at the entrance a shack made of limbs and bark from trees. The boys plan to use this as a club house and their headquarters for skating activities when the stream freezes over. The boys in on this project are Galloway, Stackelback, McCarty, Kesselring, Booras, and Willard.

FISH AND GAME GIVEN TO SCHOOL BY FRIENDS

"The way to a man's heart is through his stomach" goes the old adage. This has been proved true recently here at St. John's for in this manner Mr. H. G. Frantz of Salida, Colorado, and Mr. J. A. Reed of Cheyenne, Wyoming, have gained the everlasting good will of the St. John's cadets. From the former came a gift of some rainbow trout; from the latter a gift of a quarter of an elk.

Early in November Mr. Frantz who owns the largest commercial trout farm in America sent to Cadet Stackelback a large shipment of rainbow trout so that he might give his friends a good treat. And they were a treat! The chef fried them to perfection. The meat was tender and delicious, and there were enough for everybody to have two fish.

Early in December Mr. J. A. Reed, the father of two of the cadets sent a quarter of an elk. Mr. Reed had not been able to shoot this elk himself as business kept him away from Wyoming until the season was over. But he procured a portion of one from a friend and sent it by express to Salina. When the meat was served, all the boys considered it delicious if the way they ate it was any proof. Many of the boys had never tasted elk meat before.

Mr. Frantz and Mr. Reed have the thanks of the entire school.

STUDENTS PASS A MOST PLEASANT THANKSGIVING

Thanksgiving was a wonderful day with the sun shining bright. Reveille sounded a little later than usual, and the customary setting up exercises were omitted. Soon after breakfast Major Fritsche conducted a service in the chapel. The hymns were appropriate to the occasion, and the Major made a few remarks. He reminded the boys how much they had to be thankful for at this time when so many people were in want and urged them to show their gratitude by taking the best advantage of their many opportunities.

At one o'clock an excellent turkey dinner was served. To accommodate the many guests most of whom were the parents of the cadets, three extra tables had been set up. Each table had a turkey, and some of the boys ate as many as four helpings. More than one belt had to be loosened before the meal was over. Between courses the Glee Club rendered several selections. In addition Cadet Naylor played on the trumpet and Corporal Norcross sang a vocal solo. Mayor J. D. Bigole of Denver, the father of one of the cadets, was called upon to make a few remarks.

After dinner the boys were given passes for the rest of the day. No regular supper formation was held; at six o'clock fruit and sandwiches were served in the dining room to all who wished them. At nine o'clock came the big military ball in the gymnasium.

BOYS ENJOY OUTING AND PICNIC IN THE WOODS

On Saturday, November 6, Capt. Brown and Capt. Parks took a group of boys on an all day outing. Soon after breakfast the party left in the school truck for the old camp site of St. John's School on Bob White's place about four miles southeast of town. The boys had a great time tramping through the woods, playing on the banks of one of the arms of the Little Smoky River, visiting two old abandoned oil wells, and jumping from hay stacks.

About two o'clock the boys ate dinner Capt. Parks cooked over an old stove which had been left out there by St. John's School years ago. The principal articles on the menu were ham and eggs and fried potatoes.

ARMY AND NAVY CLUBS HOLD FALL ELECTIONS

Cadet Major Shakespeare is now the captain of the Navy club and Cadet Depen is captain of the Army club. Early last month the boys of both organizations met and made these selections. Then the new captains took turns in choosing the new boys as members.

All the intra-mural competitive games at St. John's are carried on by the Army and Navy clubs. The rivalry is usually very keen. The clubs are divided into several classes, and every victory adds a certain number of points to the winning club's score. At Commencement the school awards a loving cup to the captain whose team has gained the greatest number of points. The losing captain makes the presentation.

CADETS BEAT TESCOTT BY A LARGE MARGIN

With a much improved team St. John's met Tescott on Perkins field on November 3. The Tescott eleven was not as heavy as the St. John's bunch and did not put up the opposition other teams had.

The cadets went into scoring distance at once and crossed the goal with five plays. The Tescott bears proved to be the easiest opponents for the cadets and several touchdowns were made. Naylor crossed the goal three times which gave him the credit of making the most points for the cadet squad. Ehram, Gerding, and Shakespeare all brought in tallies which made the score 38 to 0 in St. John's favor.

The St. John's line-up was:

L. E.—Pickenpaugh
L. T.—Hamilton
L. G.—Waldo
C.—Wise
R. E.—Deppen
R. T.—Baker
R. G.—Davis
Q. B.—Shakespeare
L. H.—Naylor
R. H.—Gerding
F. B.—Ehram

LITTLE RIVER LOSES TO SAINT JOHN'S TEAM

On November 17, the Orange and Black met the Little River team on the home field. The game was hard fought and was St. John's second victory.

In the first quarter neither team scored. The red and white bunch under the leadership of Captain Flores made ground on reverse plays. After bringing the ball to mid field they lost the ball on downs. The St. John's quarterback, Shakespeare, at first sent Naylor and Gerding around the ends but because of poor interference they failed to gain. He then changed to line and spinner plays which proved more successful.

In the second quarter Little River continued their reverse plays and with some beautiful broken field running by Capt. Flores crossed the goal line. A place kick was blocked leaving the score 6 to 0 for Little River. St. John's was not to be outdone and upon receiving the ball began a steady march up the field only to lose the ball by a fumble inside the ten yard line. The punter of the red and white team attempted to kick out of danger but was unsuccessful, the ball going out of bounds on their own twenty five yard line. The soldiers lost the ball on the twenty yard line on downs but through a lucky break recovered a fumble. An end run by Gerding put the ball on the six yard line where Bill Pickenpaugh plunged through the line to tie the score. The extra point was made by a short pass from Naylor to Pickenpaugh. The half ended 6 to 7 in St. John's favor.

Early in the third period Capt. Flores of Little River was taken out of the game on account of a bad ankle. The rest of the team seemed to give up and consequently the soldiers were able to march up the field for another score, Gerding and Naylor carrying the pig skin around the ends. The extra point was gained by a plunge through the center of the line by Ehram.

In the final quarter the soldiers gained possession of the ball early and started another touchdown drive. This time Pickenpaugh acted like a ram rod shooting through the holes like a bullet bringing the ball up to the twenty yard line. Shakespeare on a beautiful spinner stepped off the remaining thirty yards for a third touchdown. The try for extra point failed. After St. John's kicked the two teams fought back and forth in mid field. The game ended with a score of 20 to 6 for St. John's.

The starting lineup for St. John's was:
L. E.—Tinch
L. T.—Hamilton
L. G.—Waldo
C.—Wise
R. E.—Deppen
R. T.—Baker
R. G.—Davis
Q. B.—Shakespeare
R. H.—Gerding

ARMY AND NAVY PLAY FIRST GAME OF SEASON

Some real football was shown in the game between the Army and Navy club teams on November 26.

The Navy got off a long low kick which the Army returned to their own 30 yard line. They lined up in a double wing back formation and attempted to gain ground. The Navy line held much better than had been expected and the Army had to kick. Again the line of the Navy did well by opening many holes. The Navy backfield made one or two blunders and lost the ball on a fumble. This time the Army made more head way and carried the ball for 3 first downs before they were forced to kick. The first quarter ended with the ball in possession of the Navy.

A great advantage was held by the Navy for they had all of the speedy men. On getting the ball they started hitting the Army ends and gained many yards. Naylor took the ball on a long left end run and scored for the Navy. The drop kick was unsuccessful and the score stood 6 to 0 for Navy. The first half soon ended with the ball being held in mid field by the Army.

The second half began with the Navy receiving the ball. Their attempt to gain failed and they had to kick on a fourth down. The Army started a terrible drive that could not be controlled. The hard drives of Deppen, Pickenpaugh, and Ward soon put the ball in scoring distance. Bill Pickenpaugh finally went three yards for a touchdown. It was the only time the Navy goal was threatened during the game.

After receiving the Army kick off the Navy gained ground around the ends. They advanced the ball to the 3 yard line and pretty nearly lost it. On the fourth down Shakespeare just got across the line. They failed to make the extra point. The score was now 13 to 6 for the Navy.

Early in the fourth quarter the Navy took the ball into Army territory. A few yards were gained by line plays and then Shakespeare slipped through left tackle for 30 yards to make the third touchdown for the Navy. This time a drop kick by the Navy quarter made the touchdown count 7 points. The Navy team was working nicely and had the ball again in Army territory when the final whistle blew. The final score was 19 to 6 in the Navy's favor.

DAVIS HAS GIVEN NEW SONG TO SAINT JOHN'S

St. John's has a composer in its midst. Cadet Ted Davis has written a song which has been officially adopted as the school's victory song. When the new bell recently installed in the tower rings out to celebrate some victory or occasion for great rejoicing, then is the time for this song to be sung.

Ted got his inspiration from a song written by a friend of his entitled "Sweethearts of Yesterday." It never had been published, but the tune kept ringing in his head and he kept wishing that others might enjoy it as he did. Then came the opportunity for him to write his own words and give it to St. John's. The song is of the modern type and has a sparkling swing and rhythm. Here are Ted's words:

The old boys yell, the new boys shout,
The bell of St. John's will ring out
For St. John's has won this game.
One by one we chalk them on the score board,
One by one they go on St. John's score board.
The old boys yell, the new boys shout,
The bell of St. John's will ring out
For St. John's has won this game.

BISHOP MIZE PREACHES TO CADETS IN CHAPEL

Using as a text the passage from the Bible in which the Lord refers to Himself as "I AM THAT I AM," Bishop Mize preached a sermon recently in the school chapel upon being true to one's self. This famous saying written entirely in capitals the Bishop said he believed implied that God was genuine, that He was reliable, that He did what He said He was going to do.

The Bishop urged the boys to be honest in everything they did—to act and to think truly, to try to think according to God's thoughts, and to act according to His will. Probably one of the most embarrassing moments of a person's life is to tell a lie and then get caught. One is not always honest about getting his lessons. He is not true to himself.

Jesus was always genuine and true. He said "I am the truth." The Bishop begged the boys to follow Jesus's example and to be true to themselves.
