No. 7.

PLUCK THIS DAISY

CADETS ARE GOING FROM BAD TO VERSE

St. John's School has its Daisy Ashfords,—although these Ashfords are Tom, Dick and Harry. Some of them are of Ashford age. Others will never see eleven again, except in the calendar or upon the smiling faces of the "spotted ponies."

THE SKIRMISHER doesn't know whether the author of the following has ever heard of the English Daisy, or whether it's just in the air. And paper is so high, too. It is inferred that the author did not intend the publication of his work. In fact, it was handed in by a Cadet who lives on the same floor with him. Said Cadet asserted he had found it, and gleefully turned it over to THE SKIRMISHER.

Over in , Kansas, a little town
not far away,
Stands the church and the school house

Just as they used to be.

When I think of this town and village,
It makes the tears come to my eyes,
For there is a beautiful maiden,
That lives on a country hill-side,
Not very far from my home.
Some day while I am roaming,
I will come back to her at last,
And steal a kiss in the gloaming.

* * * Name of town supplied upon request. Must send self-addressed and stamped envelope.

New Ones Wear Stripes

C. Lydon Lippincott, sergeant in the Cadet Corps, has been appointed first-sergeant of Company A. Cadet-Corporal Paul Gardner has been made sergeant, and Lance-Corporal Linville has been made Corporal. The first two are assigned to Company A and Linville to Company B. Lippincott is from Colorado, Linville from Wyoming, and Gardner from Kansas.

Cadet Richard Ready spent Sunday at home recently.

HAVE POST-LENTEN DANCE

A Real "Jazz" Orchestra Proves Feature of Evening

The first St. John's dance since Lent was given in the school gymnasium Friday night, April 16th. A large number of guests from town attended. Dancing began at 9 o'clock and lasted until midnight. More cadets than usual danced, perhaps because a number of them had taken lessons during Lent. However, even the cadets who did not dance came out to the gymnasium and remained—until after refreshments were served at 10:30.

A feature of the dance was the "jazz" orchestra from Salina, composed of four men and one young woman, the latter playing violin.

Credit for the success of this dance goes largely to the dance committee, Cadets Howard Hayden, Frank Blaney and Robert Kirkpatrick. Lieutenant Blaney deserves special mention because of his work in decorating the gymnasium.

Are Using Sub-Calibre Rifles

It had begun to look as if the weather man was determined to prevent the gallery practice of the Cadets. It had first been planned to have the gallery practice inside, but this was given up to use the time for "triangulation" and "push and pull", the necessary preliminaries to all shooting.

The outdoor gallery practice ordinarily would have begun about two weeks ago, but the untimely blizzard, a rain and a hail or two made this impossible. However, Major Wier has started and intends pushing this work through. Every cadet will fire the sub-calibre course before going on the range. If the work done in making the sighting triangles indicates how the cadets will shoot, some of them will develop into excellent shots.

Cadet Vernon Benest visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. F. Benest at Severy, recently.

PLAN SUMMER SCHOOL

ST. JOHN'S MAY OFFER EIGHT WEEKS OF WORK

Major W. L. Ganssle, superintendent of St. John's Military School, is planning a summer school. He has already arranged with two of the instructors who handle lower school subjects to remain for the extra session.

No high school subjects will be offered. The entire summer school course will be devoted to work in the Lower School or grade subjects. Cadets will be given an opportunity to make up work in which they may be delinquent or to do advance work in their next higher grade.

Summer work will begin June 7 and the courses will continue eight weeks. This will give Cadets who desire it a chance to make a short visit home before starting their summer classes.

Easter Services at the School

For the first time in a number of years the Cadet Corps did not attend Easter services at the Cathedral in Salina. However, the heavy snow storm that began the day before Easter continued until the streets to town were practically impassable and it was impossible to march to the Cathedral. Services were conducted in the School chapel by the Chaplain, The Rev. Frank W. Myers.

Miss Catherine Joyce Ganssle

The St. John's battalion now has a resident sponsor. She is Miss Catherine Joyce Ganssle. Little Miss Ganssle is the infant daughter of Major and Mrs. W. L. Ganssle of St. John's School, and she will review the Cadet Corps on her next birthday—April 3, 1921.

Poindexter Visits At Home

Cadet Richard Poindexter spent the week-end at his home in Kansas City recently.

Mrs. Hiller a Dinner Guest

Mrs. Ralph Hiller of Salina was a recent dinner guest at the school.

SKILLING WINS MOST POINTS

Track Team, However, Unable To Win Triangular Meet

Stanley Skilling of St. John's Military School was the highest individual point winner in the recent triangular track meet with McPherson and Salina High Schools, which was won by McPherson. He made 23 points. The next highest man was Jones of McPherson with 15 points to his credit. Skilling took first in the 50 and 100-yard dashes, in the discus throw; second in the 220-yard dash and the running broad jump; third in the 120-yard high hurdles and in the shot put. He threw the discus 113 feet.

The other point winners for St. John's were: Timothy, who took second in the 220-yard low hurdles, and second in the pole vault; Jack who came in second in the 440-yard dash, Ross third in the 220-yard dash, Heron third in the 440, Sanders third in the pole vault.

A large crowd of Salina High School supporters, a number from McPherson and the entire St. John's Cadet Corps attended the meet. The following account of the meet is taken from the Salina Daily Union:

McPherson High School won first place in the triangular track meet held in Oakdale Park yesterday afternoon. Salina High School was second and St. John's Military Academy third.

McPherson led through practically all of the meet. During the early part St. John's was giving them a hard fight, occasionally taking the lead in a number of points but the cadets began to lose as the meet progressed and Salina High School, which had been trailing during the early part began to forge to the lead. In the final McPherson had 50 points, Salina 37 and St. John's 35.

McPherson won six firsts, Salina four, and St. John's three.

Skilling, St. John's was the individual star of the meet, with 23 points. He won first in the 50 and 100 yard dashes and the discus throw, second in the 220-yard dash and the running broad jump, and third in the 120-yard hurdles and the shot put. Jones, McPherson was second, with 15 points, and Stansel, McPherson, was only one point behind him.

One of the features of the meet was the discus throw in which Skilling, St. John's, after being outdistanced until in the finals, threw the rubber disc 113 feet, which was seven feet farther than his best practice record.

The records established in the meet are considered exceptionally good, considering that it was the opening of the track season and all the teams have been handicapped in their training by the bad weather. The events were as follows:

50-yard Dash

Skilling, St. John's first; Stansel, McPherson, second; Clark, Salina, third. Time 5.4 seconds.

100-Yard Dash

Skilling, St. John's, first; Clark, Salina, second; Keefer, Salina, third. Time 10.4 seconds.

120-yard High Hurdles

220-yard High Hurdles

Jones, McPherson, first; Timothy, St. John's, second; Gillman, Salina, third. Time 29 2/5 seconds.

Shot Put

Keefer, Salina, first; Stansel, McPherson, second; Skilling, St. John's, third. Distance 40 feet, 9 inches.

PLAYS THE DESSERT MARKET

Cadet Fry's Expedition Into Finance
Is Unsuccessful

Cadet Fry took a "flier" in finance recently. Perhaps it is because Fry hails from Tulsa, Oklahoma, where big deals in oil are made daily. Fry probably intended playing the stock market when he got to be a man—but, like many another would-be financier—is now a disillusioned "man."

At each meal at St. John's, especially at supper, there is frequently lively trading in desserts. If one cadet does not particularly care for the evening's "hereafter," he will offer to trade it for all or part of the next day's dessert. The more venturesome ones frequently trade before they know what the dessert is.

Gooseberry pie was the dessert at supper one night not long ago. Fry offered to trade Lance-Corporal Hyde P. all his desserts for the next two days for Hyde's piece of pie. Hyde agreed.

Before he had finished his first piece of pie, Fry's plunging instinct got the better of him. He asked for bids for the pie for which he had just traded his two days' desserts. He soon had a taker in Cadet Rushmer E. Rushmer agreed, for Fry's extra piece of pie, to give him all of his desserts for one day. Result: Fry had to give his desserts to Hyde for two days, he had to give Hyde's pie to Rushmer who in return gave Fry one day's desserts. Or in other words, Fry got only one piece of pie and lost an entire day's desserts in addition.

Of all pictures taken at St. John's during the year, "The Skirmisher" thought this one of the best, on account of the way the photographer caught the colors. Of course, the handsome Color-Sergeant and his smaller but very soldier-like Color-Guard also add considerably to the merit of the picture.

Thompson In Avalanche

You don't have to go to the mountains to have an experience with avalanches, as Cadet George Thompson found out. Thompson was buried up to his waist in a snow-slide a few weeks ago. You see he was standing close to the barracks when the snow on the section of roof above him slipped off and fell to the ground—and Thompson.

Miss Titzell Visits Here

Miss Kathleen Titzell of Kansas City was recently the guest of her mother, Dr. Ivy Titzell of Salina, and her brother, Cadet Frank Titzell of St. John's Military School.

Cline Trains Rabbit

Cadet Cline is now the proud owner and trainer of the latest addition to the mascot tribe at St. John's, a ferocious rabbit, captured with great danger on the banks of Dry Creek. It was suggested recently that a picture be taken of the three mascots, Duke, the shepherd dog, the Boston Bull belonging to Harris brothers, and Cline's rabbit. However, Sergeant Lippincott claimed that if it was to be a group picture and if all three mascots were to be seen, it would be more satisfactory to wait until an X-Ray machine would be handy.

Hears From Leslie Gray

Major W. L. Ganssle recently received a letter from Leslie Gray, who was a Cadet at St. John's Military School for three years, from 1916 to 1919. Gray has been on a farm near Perryburg, Ohio, since leaving St. John's. Gray had recently heard from another former St. John's cadet, Paul Lyda, who is now living in New York City. He had also recently seen Dimmick and Sam Sabor, both former Cadets.

Cadets Are Chorus Men

They'll be calling 'em the "Candy Kids" now. Twelve St. John's Cadets took part in a local production of The Chocolate Soldier recently. They were: Lloyd Umstot, Stanley Skilling, Robert Kirkpatrick, Lydon Lippincott, Vernon Ross, Greeley Timothy, Glen Hepworth, Harold Brewer, John Fleming, Clarence Wagner, Waldron Sanders, Kenneth Harris.

Locates in Salina

Albert W. Ritchey, former St. John's Cadet, has located in Salina. He is with the Kansas Auto Sales Company at Seventh and Ash. Mr. Ritchey's home was formerly in Kansas City.

Entertain Basketball Team

Captain and Mrs. Charles Cannon entertained members of the basketball squad, Major and Mrs. J. L. Wier and Captain and Mrs. Maurice Hicklin in their apartments at the school recently. Captain Cannon coaches the basketball team which won most of their games with other high schools.

In the center of a large table a silver flower vase. On looking closer, the guests saw that the "vase" was the loving cup, won by the St. John's team at the basketball tournament held under the auspices of Kansas Wesleyan University. The cadets also had an opportunity to see one of the basketball sweaters, which will be awarded to the men winning basketball letters this year.

The sweaters arrived some time ago. They will be awarded after the Athletic Board of Control meets and decides how many of the squad played in the necessary number of games to be entitled to the trophy. The sweaters are white, with an orange S. J. M. S. monogram on a black cloth disk.

Captain and Mrs. Cannon were assisted by Mrs. Cannon's sister, Miss Alma Beadle and by Cadet Davis Bland. Cadet Gardiner Hart, promptly dubbed "Madame Paderwski" by one of the Cadets, entertained the guests with popular piano numbers.

Inhospitable, That's Us All Over

"Sir, I have a complaint to make" said a Cadet recently to the Commandant. Said Cadet has been reported for going to town without a pass one night recently.

"What is it?" asked the Commandant, expecting the usual line about "not having gone to town, but just down to the Half-Way House for something to eat."

"I don't like the treatment here" said the Cadet

"Why not" returned the Commandant, mentally figuring up said Cadet's squad.

"Well, when I tried to slip back into the Barracks the other night the front door was locked and I had to climb through a window."
