MAJOR PERKINS LEAVES ST. JOHN'S

Major Roy W. Perkins who has been the Commandment at St. John's for the past three years was recently appointed assistant Adjutant General of Kansas, and assumed duties on March first.

Plans are, however, that the Major will not be entirely disconnected from the school and we all hope that he will be back to take charge of camp, as he has proposed to do. The Major wishes to have every cadet in the school qualify, at least, as a marksman on the range this year, and has taken great pains to see that each boy knew all of the proper positions of firing before he left.

Mr. Perkins is now residing in Topeka where he will carry on all of his official duties and has given all the members of the Cadet Corp and the faculty personal invitations to visit him at their first opportunity.

We all hope to be able to visit him soon.

Major Perkins is well qualified for his new position which comes to him as a reward for many years of service both at home and abroad. His is a history of steady progress and achievement and we give it with pride.

Major Roy W. Perkins, D. S. C. Croix De Guerre, Kansas State Agriculture College; 2nd Lieutenant Infantry 1912; Captain 2nd infantry 1912-1917; Captain 131st infantry 1917-1918; Major 137th infantry 1918; Major 41st infantry 1918-1919; Major infantry O. R. C. 1919; Major 161st field artillery 1921; Graduate Service school National Guard; British Field Officers school St. Valery, France; 1918; three years at St. John's; Assistant Adjutant General of Kansas 1925.

If there is one person that could be missed as much as the Major by Saint John's that person is Mrs. Perkins. Her jolly laugh and easy chairs were a haven for the depressed and weary, and we all wish her the best of luck in her new home and we envy her new friends.

And here's to Dorothy our only girl.
We hope Topeka won't make her head whirl,

We are all mighty sorry to say our farewells

So three rousing cheers for "Dot" or "Door-bells."

No we won't forget "Pal."

CADETS HOLD PARADE

Following a custom of years the first of a series of formal parades was held yesterday afternoon by the Cadet Corps of Saint John's Military School. Recall sounded at five in order to allow the drum corps to take its position by five-thirty. A special feature of the parade was the presentation of badges of merit to those members of the student body who have distinguished themselves by exemplary conduct and received no demerits during the last month. The order of citation was read by the Adjutant, Cadet Captain Bland.

Saint John's Military School
March 8, 1925.

Special Order No. 15.

For the remarkable and commendable willingness and determination to abide by the rules and regulations of this institution and for laudable observance of said regulations and respect of authority, the following cadets are hereby cited for exemplary conduct and accorded the honor of wearing the Distinguished Conduct Badge and are hereby granted Corporal Privileges during the pleasure of the Commanding Officer.

Sergt. Robert Paddock, Wichita, Kansas.

Corp. Shirley Cronin, Denver, Colorado.

Pvt. Horace Holmes, Eureka, Kansas.

Pvt. George Newman, Hominy, Oklahoma.

Pvt. Philip Short, Belvue, Kansas.
Pvt. Elbert Snodgrass, Denver, Colorado.

By order of the Superintendent.

The cadets cited in the order were then presented to Col. Ganssle who decorated them. Retreat was blown and the battalion passed in review. The reviewing officers were Col Ganssle and Cadet Captain McCracken.

A number of out-of-town guests visited the school over the week-end. They were Mrs. Frank Whitehead of Denver, Colorado; Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Newman of Hominy, Oklahoma; and Mr. Ray House of Wichita; who were visiting their sons. H. G. Short of the class of 1894, and his son Jim Short, who graduated from Saint John's with the class of 1923 were also present at the ceremony. A large number of Salina people watched the parade from cars parked around the campus.

CRACK SQUAD

Now that the Crack Squad is thoroughly organized once more, and the vacancies all filled with competent new members, activities have begun in other lines. A large room has been secured which was formerly occupied by Capt. Allen.

The Club room is very comfortably furnished as the Crack Squad members are very willing to donate any of their possessions which will improve the room and promote spirit.

Another new feature of this year's Crack Squad is the change in style of uniform, the new ones being entirely of white material. The dress consists of a white cap and shirt, black shoes and belts, and white flannel trousers.

She—Have you ever been kissed?

He—Is that an invitation or are you merely gathering statistics. —Ex.

Headquarters Cadet Corps
St. John's Military School
Salina, Kansas, Feb. 4, 1925.

General Order No. 6.

The following addition to regulations effecting the Cadet Corps are published for the information and guidance of all concerned.

Cadets will, when addressing a cadet officer or non-commission officer refer and use the title of such officer or non-commissioned officer.

Cadets will, when meeting a faculty member or Cadet Officer in the city, or when passing same on the grounds of the school will execute the prescribed hand salute.

Cadets are not required to execute the salute when actually engaged in work or play unless an officer stops to speak or converse with the cadet.

By order of the Commandant
Davis Bland,
Cadet Capt. and Executive

Capt. Zanoni: King if you had 16 hens and 32 roosters, how many pieces of poultry would you have.

King: (in shrill voice): That's too many roosters.

"Why are Scott I's friend in there?"
I only overheard two of their names, "Little 'Joe'" and "Big Dick."

Wife: "Anything new in the papers?"

Husband: "No, only different names."

ALMOST ANY ONE WILL SIGN A PETITION AS THE FOL-LOWING SHOWS

We, the undersigned, do hereby respectfully submit the following petition:

That in view of the fact that the Cadet Corps has been unusually conscientious in the performance of its duties and obligations, and that the school spirit heretofore displayed has been a great credit to the institution, and since the officers have been very punctilious in the discharge of their duties to the great assistance and relief of the faculty,

BE IT HEREBY respectfully petitioned that if

be considered on Thursday, February 12, the faculty postpone the same indefinitely as an unworthy reward for the above mentioned excellencies and virtues.

As a more fitting recognition of our achievement we beg that something be granted that will not soon be forgotten. On the date afore mentioned we request that we, the undersigned be conducted to the rear of the gymnasium and there be noisily decapitated.

The formality of notifying our parents can be done away with as it will not be worth while. All our books, belongings, such as old shoes, pants, jerseys, kite-strings, photographs, marbles, and shinny clubs, penants, paper airplanes and chewing gum we dedicate to the school, hoping hereby to preserve the memory of otherwise useless lives.

All the above we humbly petition.

NEW BOYS

We are glad to extend welcome to two "New Boys" who have recently enrolled here at St. John's. They are Cox, whose home is in Skiatoka, Oklahoma, and Edgerton who hails from Wichita. Both boys are progressing rapidly in their military duties and are doing well in their scholastic work. We hope to hear of better work from them after they have become accustomed to their new surroundings.

FOR DOROTHY PERKINS

A bridge party was given by Miss Virginia Brown, and Miss Mary Ellen Rathburn at the Brown residence last Friday at 8:00 o'clock in honor of Miss Dorothy Perkins. The boys present from Saint John's were: Cronin, Farnsworth, Lester, Elkins, Crooks and Hawkins.

The prize was won by Bernice Winterbotham and the booby prize by Cadet Farnsworth. The party lasted until eleven-thirty, much to the delight of all present. Miss Dorothy will be missed by the younger set in Salina. All join in wishing her much pleasure in her new home.

Crooks: "Oh! Jamison is right guide of "A" Company and is thinking of dinner."

The evening class of physics lab. proved the following experiment last week; $2\pi R$ equals R plus 2 or two pies plus Jamison equals one happy boy.

Capt Liesher: "What was the chief product of the colonies about 1700?"
Linger: "Carriages."

CHOIR

The cadets who are singing in the choir have had the opportunity to learn a number of excellent anthems the past month and are working on a number of others for Easter and Palm Sunday. On Sunday, February 8, the Cadet Corps attended the five o'clock service instead of the usual morning one. Cadet Reese sang a solo during the offertory. The choir is now hard at work on the Easter anthems under the leadership of Mrs. Hiller.

WHEN YOU COME IN

Just grin—when you come in.
And make it wide—not tight and thin.
Say, "Hello Bill" and "Howdy Jack"
And slap the other fellow on the back.
Stick out your mitt and crack a joke.
If no one laughs, there's no bones broke.

And by and by you'll make our club
A sort of happy sunshine hub
That radiates good cheer and vim
Because you grin when you come in.

Capt. McGrew: Ward, if you have one peck of apples at 10c what will a bushel cost?

Ward (only 9 years old) after much thought: "Forty cents."

Capt. McGrew: What would one bushel of tomatoes cost if one peck costs 15c?

Ward after much thought, with a characteristic scowl: "I can't do it in tomatoes."

FORMAL PARADES

The drill period each day is now being devoted to preparation for formal parades. Under the leadership and direction of Capt. Atkinson and Capt. McCracken the Cadets are slowly becoming proficient in the execution of the manual of arms, silent manual and the execution of the different movements.

At present we cannot boast of any high degree of proficiency in any of the drill movements but hope that in the next few weeks the Corps will rank ace-high in everything.

"Love Lorn Linger" has been very irate lately, due to the fact that his Mary Ellen has fallen for Liesers "Adorable Brown Eyes."

Bland: I see you have a new car—ever been pinched?

Capt. Barker: "No, but I've got a couple of slaps."

"Do you know how the rats get in here?"

"Naw!"

"Uh-huh."

AN EDUCATED MAN

The educated man is a man with certain subtle spiritual qualities which make him calm in adversity happy when alone, just in his dealings, rational and sane in the fullest meaning of that word in all the affairs of his life.—Ramsay MacDonald.

Such a man must have been humble in the presence of great minds and great souls, must have been simple in contacts with his fellows, and must have been indefatigable in his desire to cultivate and to maintain the power of his mind and to accumulate that knowledge which makes up the data of accurate reasoning.—Ernest M. Hopkins, President of Dartmouth College.

Genius is only the power of making continuous efforts. The line between failure and success is so fine that we scarcely know when we pass it—so fine that we are often on the line and do not know it. How many a man has thrown up his hands at a time when a little more effort, a little more patience, would have achieved success. As the tide goes clear out, so it comes clear in. In business, sometimes prospects may seem darkest when really they are on the turn. A little more persistence, a little more effort and what seemed hopeless failure may turn to glorious success. There is no failure except in no longer trying. There is no defeat except from within, no really insurmountable barrier save our own inherent weakness of purpose.—Marden.

THE "MATTER WITH" AMERICA

What's the matter with America these days?

Too many diamonds, not enough alarm clocks.

Too many silk shirts, not enough blue flannel.

Too many pointed-toed shoes, and not enough square-toed.

Too many décollete and not enough aprons.

Too much satin-upholstered limosines and not enough cows.

Too many consumers and not enough producers.

Too much oil stock and not enough savings accounts.

Too much envy of the results of hard work and too little desire to emulate it.

Too many desiring short cuts to wealth and too few willing to pay the price.

Too much of the spirit of "get while the getting is good" and not enough of the old-fashioned Christianity.

Too much discontent that vents itself in mere complaining and too little real effort to remedy conditions.

Too much class consciousness and too little common democracy and love of humanity.

NEW GATE

Through the initiative of Capt. McCracken, St. John's will soon boast of a new stone gate at the entrance to the campus. Many of the Cadets have shown their eagerness to push the work of construction forward by taking the school truck to North Pole Mound and hauling the stone that will be needed.

We hope that by the next edition of the Skirmisher, work will have begun on it.

The swimming team is doing very good work so far. Many of the boys are interested in swimming and there are several new prospects. Sergt. Jackson, captain of the team, Sergt. Hartman, Corp. Fuhman, Capt. Heaton, Corp. Crooks and Cadet Farnsworth, all old men and members of last year's team are back and practicing at the Y. pool.

Phillips: "I should like to open an account at this bank, if you please."

Banker: "We shall be glad to accommodate you sir. What amount do you wish to deposit?"

Phillips: "Oh, I mean a charge account such as I have at Lindermans."

Col.: "Did you enjoy yourself at dancing school Jamie?"

Jamison: "No, I did not, the teacher wouldn't give me a partner even once, and there were two or three empty girls all the time."

If all the women went to China where would the men go? "Peking of course."

Sam, the janitor: "I found that 'Not to be used, except in case of fire,' placard those Cadets stole."

Colonel G.: "Where?"

Samuel: "They had nailed it over the coal bin."

Liza, you is exactly like brown sugah.

"Howz at, Niggah?"

"Sweet, but awful unrefined."

Bland: "What was the most you ever got out of your car?"

Phillips: "Six times in a mile."

Lieser says that if a man stays out late it is no sign that he is studying astronomy.

Mrs. Swartz and Mrs. Boatright both of Kansas City visited their sons who are in school here.

Can't Stop 'em

Due to the cold weather Sunday most of the boys stayed in the building. But our School "shieks" didn't heed this. They just put on their overcoats and went right out. After coming in, however, they felt rather chilled and hope for better weather next Sunday afternoon.

Financial Troubles

The milk fad had quite a slump when one week the consumers paid their bills it was announced that they would have to pay in advance for their milk. Believe it or not the "milkers" are cut in half. Ask the milkman—he knows.

Said With Flowers

What was the bride's name? Rose.
How did he propose to her? Aster.
With what did she give her consent? Tulips.

Whose permission did she ask? Poppy's.

What did her father say? For-get-me-not.

What Would Happen If—

Linger got to class on time.
Paddock didn't argue with Capt. Leisher in American History.

Capt. John would get papers graded on time.

Blunt didn't go to sleep in class.
Holmes had to walk off squad.
Coach Zanoni didn't get his two letters a day.

Jamison were put on a diet.

Jamison to Cronin: "What is the difference between a dog with a tail and a dog without a tail?"

Cronin: "Dunno!"

Jamison: "Why, a dog with a tail, has its day, and a dog without a tail has its week-end!"

Crooks: "What is this new motor Captain John had installed in his car?"

Lieut. Lieser: To call it by its technical name it is called the "Warmine Techalty" but in truth it is only a harmonious motor.

Crooks: "I don't get you."

Lieut. Lieser: "Well, you see all the knocks are the same tone."

"My shoes are prohibition shoes."
"Why?"

"Because their tongues are always hanging out."

If you can't win, make the one ahead break the record.—Anonymous.

DAVE BARNETT DIES

We are sorry to learn that Dave Barnett who was with us last year and part of this term, died on Feb 1st. He had recovered very nicely and left the hospital for his home when a relapse occurred causing his death in four hours.

"Are you taking good care of your cold?"

"You bet I am. I've had it six weeks and it's as good as new."

A HAPPY DRILL PERIOD

Recently a group of boys desired a holiday and so likewise got up a petition with the help of Lieut. Lieser. But Lieut. Lieser being like Benedict Arnold turned treason and got them in bad.

On the afternoon of February 17th. Major Perkins thought it would be man-slaughter to behead the boys that signed the petition so he made it easy on them and had them run through a line of boys facing each other that didn't sign the petition.

Then to our joy Major Perkins Capt. McGrew and Capt. Shideler ran through also. But we all hope that the performance just described will teach the boys a lesson.

By Cadet Kintz

The following promotions were effected following the Cadets' return from Christmas vacation.

MY PHYSICS INSTRUCTOR

McGrew is my teacher, I shall not pass,

He maketh me to prove dense propositions,

He leadeth me to expose my ignorance before the whole class.

He placeth me in detentions;

Yea, though I study until midnight I shall gain no knowledge.

For problems weary me, and experiments bore me,

He prepareth a test for me in the presence of mine enemies.

He giveth my paper a low grade, My marks runeth under.

Surely, zeros and conditions will follow me all the days of my life And I shall dwell in the class of Physics forever.

Build for yourself a strong box,

Fashion each part with care;

Fit it with hasp and padlock,

Put all your troubles there,

Hide therein all your failures,

And each bitter cup you quaff

Lock all your heartaches within it

And then—sit on the lid and LAUGH.

Tell no one of its contents;

Never its secrets share;

Drop in your cares and your worries Keep them forever there.

Hide them from sight so completely

The world will never dream the half

Fasten the top down securely,

Then—Sit on the lid and LAUGH.

—Ex.

By arithmetic, 4 divided by 2 equals 2. Again figures lie. If you have four pies to be divided among two boys the results would be nothing.

Col.: "If you had a little more spunk, you would stand better in the class. Now do you know what "spunk" means?"

Overton: "Yes sir," its the past participle of spank."

Heaton: McElhenie, are you out for basket-ball?

McElhenie: Yes.

Heaton: "What do you play?"

McElhenie: "Referee."

Prof.: "This is the third time you've looked on McCracken's paper."

Hartman: "Yes sir, he doesn't write very plainly."

THE DANCE

The Valentine Dance held at the Guild House on Tuesday, Feb. 17th, was given by Bishop Mize to those of the Cadet Corps who dance. The usual moonlight dance was of course arranged so that the more bashful or maybe just awkward cadets might dance with the ease and feeling that for once no one was watching them.

A four-piece orchestra furnished very delightful music. Refreshments were served, consisting of cake and brick ice-cream with a heart design in the center. Several schemes were carried out to mix the couples up so they would all have a chance to meet each other. The boys were lined up and given a small head band with a girl's name on it. They then looked for their partners and presented them with the Favor Crown.

Farther along in the evening the girls were given candy cups with the names of the cadets. The girls proceeded to find their partners just as the boys had done. Everyone enjoyed the boys had done. All enjoyed themselves and the party was considered a big success. Those attending were: Col. and Mrs. Ganssle

CAPT. ATKINSON ACTING AS COMMANDANT

Since Major Perkin's departure, Captain Atkinson has taken up the duties as Commandant at St. John's.

Captain Atkinson comes to us well qualified for the position. During the war he served eighteen months as an observer in the French air service. Upon entering, he was appointed as a lieutenant but was later promoted to the rank of Captain. He has served in the National guard of Kansas for several years, the last three of these being in the Salina organization. Altogether he has been in the army for twelve years.

The Captain has collected many trophies from his various experiences and will be glad to show them to the Cadets if they wish to see them.

Capt. Charboneau: "There's a fly in my coffee."

McElhenie: "Well, don't get excited it won't drink much."
